WHO IS THIS?

He has lived in the Falls of Schuylkill all his life. His build is like unto one who has always been well fed. One used to see him standing around the corner of Ridge and Midvale avenues, conversing with young men about their habits in the sporting world. Lately he has given up his corner moralizing and is passing his time away on Dobson's Field. He might be given the title of "Judge Landis of the Falls." His greatest pleasure comes from a nickel cigar. He is possessed of a real American humor and delights in telling the boys how to improve their batting and fielding; for who knows more about sandlot baseball than he. Four times a week he may be found hanging around the home-plate during the games of the East Falls Church League, always willing to help out. A perpetual smile he displays when a ball, thought lost, comes sailing back over the fence. A stranger once asked if he were a bank-runner by night. We don't know why. Maybe it was the little bag he carries which resembles a money bag. He may be seen any night paying off five youngsters in payment for their services. He is vice president of the League, yet he is the ball-chaser. A good way to start a riot would be to put your hand on that little black bag he carries. Too much praise could not be given him for what he does, for his is a thankless job. We hope he will always be with the boys of the Falls in everything they undertake.

His name is Lyman Hess.

WHO ARE YOU?

Ask anyone who has lately attended the ball games of the East Falls Church League, where they heard the above question. Better still, attend some of the games and watch closely when an argument starts and then listen. Long before the teams have time to draw out their war clubs for the combat, there steps forth upon the field a diminutive, austere, gentleman, who immediately asks the cause of the delay. Then from all sides comes the question, "WHO ARE YOU?" and from the spectators "WHO IS HE?" But just a moment. Before the name is found out the question is settled and the game goes on, much to the joy of the fanatics.

His job is one of the hardest. His appointment to a place on the Arbitration Board was the first proof of his ability. Through his decisions he has caused hurts to some, while to others his sound reasoning has brought joy. His judgements are fair and to the point. He likes everybody, but favors none. In him, fear is an unknown quantity and through his courage he is gaining more friends as the games go on. Now that he has been described to you, aren't you sure that you know who he is? If in doubt, ask a player and this will be his answer. "Aw, that's the guy who settles arguments without a rule book, and an owl that sure knows his stuff, and we admire him for his fairness."

His name is Walter Jenkinson.

FALLS CHURCH LEAGUE PRIZE

Championship Cup, donated by the East Falls Business Men's Association, to the winning team of the East Falls Church League.

The large silver cup stands 16½ inches above the base, which is itself 4½ inches high, giving the trophy a total height of 21 inches. The interior is gold-plated and a beautiful design of laurel leaves with a "walls of Troy" border encircles the top of the outer surface. On each side are long graceful handles, with a measurement of 13 inches across the top.

On the front of the cup is the following inscription:

"Presented by
The East Falls
Business Men's Association to

Champions of The East Falls Church League." with the vacant space left for the winner's name.

WHO IS IT?

Off-times after the games of the East Falls Church League, there arises petty arguments, which do not pertain to the sport, itself, and therefore is not under the jurisdiction of the Board of Arbitration. These squabbles occasionally end in fistic combat and result in severed friendship.

From the beginning of the League's schedule, we have noticed a gentleman attending almost every game. He seems very active about the ball field, but when the Board of Arbitration goes into conference he is not among the members. The scribe wondered what his position might be, and waited around one night, after a game, which was vital to the League standing. Searching around among the crowd for our friend, we found him surrounded by a group of players and spectators, settling an argument over darkness. This was in the early part of the season, and since then he has been the peacemaker of the League.

Coming into our midst as a stranger among the younger generation he has regained a multitude of friends among the youth of East Falls. He was a new resident to the rising young lads, but not to their daddies, for he too, had played in East Falls as a boy. His applied belief that "fairness" is the best policy has worked miracles. He is one of the organizers of the League and his work and purpose has done much to revive a spirit of friendship and rivalry which has never been equalled in the town before.

We are discussing none other than the Treasurer of the League, an old resident and a true friend—Walter Costello.

WHO ARE THEY?

Now that the baseball season is drawing to its close, the players of the East Falls Church League teams are naturally turning their thoughts to another sport. A basketball league is being agitated. However, before baseball is over it is only right that those who were an asset to the League, and not previously mentioned, should receive some thanks for their untiring efforts in the League's behalf.

There are four Board members, who like the others, have done their bit and we are sorry that time does not permit us to write their eulogies, as we did to some of the other league officials. Since the start of the schedule of games, the Board of Arbitration has been the most active committee of the League. The men on this board have been criticized and praised, for many of their decisions, would cause anguish in the hearts of some, and to others bring vindication. These judges have attended every game, in person, thereby witnessing situations upon which they later passed judgment. Any night you will find these men doing many duties which are not in actuality theirs, but they are most willing to do anything to further the interests of the League. They have shown themselves capable of holding their positions and have proven beyond a doubt that every decision thus far has been just.

Then entire personnel of the League hopes that these men will remain at their positions. Without them, things would never have run as smoothly for the organization would not have enjoyed the success it has, except for its willing workers.

The men we are praising are men who are doing yoeman's duty to make East Falls a better place in which to live. We refer to Willard Hess, Harry Omensetter, John B. Kelly and ~~Harry Omensetter~~ DANIEL ELY.

WHO'S WHO

At various times during the baseball season which is fast drawing to a close, we have described the various officials of the East Falls Church League who have been responsible for the organization's success.

Among the founders of the league were Samuel Moorehead, Walter Costello, William Muschamp and several others whose names have appeared in print on these pages in earlier issues.

But the man on whose shoulders has fallen the heaviest burden of all, the lad who has worked ceaselessly, with all the intelligence and persistence that he is noted for, is East Falls' most worthy sports advocate, who heretofore has remained unmentioned.

We ask you to tip your hat to CHARLES FOLEY.

DO YOU KNOW HIM?

Like a phantom he goes from one spectator to another, asking their opinion of the games being played nightly on Dobson's Field. He does it so quietly none ever question his reason for asking. He is in attendance at every game and knows how the games should be played. Here is a man who isn't satisfied with his own opinion, alone, and often humbles himself in order to give the players and the spectators a square deal.

Like the managers of the teams in the League, he, too, has a group of men who have been registered like the ball players. A team which has vowed to be true to the League at all times. Its decisions have to be fair, in every instance, no matter what the consequences. Although it is composed of but four men, this team is in good standing in the League. The men work under an hitherto unknown manager, and never know whether they will don their suits, or not, until the day previous to the game. They, too, needed experience and it is the fans undivided opinion that they improve with each game. When trouble arises they talk it over with the "Unseen Hand," who straightens things out immediately. Through fair and honest decisions the League has received increased patronage. Credit for this service is due in great abundance to "the man in the background" and his team of four umpires.

Besides taking care of the arbiters, the "Phantom" is also a very active Board member.

We speak of one of the quietest and squarest athletes in East Falls—Thomas Dougherty.

CUP PRESENTED AT BANQUET OF FALLS LEAGUE

Success of Banquet Proves Great Interest Taken in Base- ball in East Falls

OLD TIMERS PRESENT

Athletics of various sorts, were extolled in the highest of terms, last evening, at the long-looked for East Falls Church League banquet, held at McCallister's Dining Room, 1818 Spring Garden street.

Father David Munyon, the new rector of St. Bridget's Church pronounced the opening blessing and then the ball-players and fans who had gathered from the hills and hollows of East Falls united in singing "America."

After the turkey dinner, which was garnished with St. Bridget's potatoes, Methodist sauce, St. James filling, Baptist sweet potatoes, Presbyterian peas and finished with Lutheran mints, was completed, Walter Costello, vice president of the league, who acted as toastmaster, humorously and snappily introduced the speakers of the evening.

P. J. Kelley, delegate of the East Falls Business Men's Association was the first speaker and at the end of a brief address presented the championship trophy, donated by the town's tradesmen, to President Bernard Klebanoff, of the East Falls Church League, who in turn presented the huge silver cup to P. J. Neilan, manager of the St. Bridget's team, which emerged victorious in the 1927 race for the trophy. Manager Neilan, the fiery little leader of the champions, accepted the cup with a short speech, which was vociferously applauded.

Willard Hess, newly elected president of the East Falls Basketball League, was then introduced and in behalf of the baseball league executives presented each member of the winning team with a sweater. Walter Costello and Charles Foley, for their activity in furthering the interests of the League were also presented with sweaters. Mr. Costello also received a gigantic basket of Fall flowers for his zealotness in behalf of the baseball league.

Jack Kelly, of sculling fame, delivered an address of encouragement and asked the athletes to put everything they had into each contest, as contenders in any game only get out of it, in proportion to what they put into it. Mr. Kelly then officially turned over the League's cup to the Lutheran manager, George Shaw, whose team won the first half of the scheduled games and competed in the final series. The Lutheran manager expressed the appreciation of himself and teammates.

Judge Eugene J. Bonniwell an ardent lover of athletics, and William Shafer, the father of basketball, both delivered addresses, filled with advice to the athletes and explained the advantages that could be gained by indulging in competitive sports.

Rev. Father David Munyon pointed to the lesson of self-restraint that is to be learned by the youth who engages in sports of any kind. The rector's talk was listened to with the keenest of interest by everyone, and at the conclusion of the address, the diners expressed their approval with prolonged applause.

Rev. Charles Jarvis Harriman, of the Church of St. James the Less, followed Father Munyon and detailed some tales of the athletes of Bible times.

Lyman Hess, the League's vice-president, was introduced and threw out a new ball when he declared he had enjoyed being of service to the ball players, in the games of the year. Lyman didn't have his little black bag with him, but from somewhere he produced a trophy in the form of a statuette, donated by Houghkirk and Polin, which he presented to James Homewood, the League's leading batsman, who emerged from the games with an average of .645.

William Dallas, of the Public Ledger, gave an interesting talk on amateur athletics.

It was decided to organize a permanent athletic association to promote all branches of sporting activity. At the suggestion of Rev. Francis H. Tees, it was agreed to select two delegates from each church to act as a governing board for the new organization.

Among the many guests, besides those mentioned were noted: Rev. D. S. Woods, Rev. Joseph W. McMahon, Rev. H. E. Kortekamp, Harry and William Clayton, William B. McFarland, Charles Bogle, Theodore MacKenzie, Thomas Dunleavy, the old Wilkes-Barre basketball star, all of the League's officials, managers and players and a host of the fans.

Charles Foley, previous to the festivities told of the formation of the League as follows:

"Early in May of this year a group of men held a meeting for the purpose of trying to revive athletics in East Falls. There were just a few interested at the time, but as the meetings continued more and more attended, and so at the latter part of the same month a baseball league was organized under the name of the East Falls Church League. Entries were then called for and six churches entered teams, posted a forfeit and were accepted. By-laws and rules were then drawn up.

We look back over the past season it almost seems impossible that so much could be accomplished in such a short time. Never before did East Falls churches participate in a baseball league. Since the first game the keenest rivalry has existed in a true sportsmanlike manner. From time to time general meetings were held where the players could meet and chat over the games played. Here suggestions were asked of the players, such as "How can the league be bettered?" Many good ones were given, tried out and proved successful.

The East Falls Church League is one of the most successful in the city, for many reasons. The league played amateur baseball. It furnished every ball that was used, it supplied every bat. The admission fee was fifteen cents from start to finish, women and children being admitted free up until the time of the play-off series, when everyone was charged for admission. Every player who participated in the games was either a resident of the Falls or a member of the Church he represented. The original list of players was 108. The list at the end shows eighty-three remaining, among which are eighteen sets of brothers, the Matthews family having three boys.

During the season arguments arose which never went further than the ball field, although the league comprised a Board of Arbiters, unsurpassed anywhere. During the first few games things didn't look so good as baseball was almost a dead issue in the Falls. As the games went on each night the crowds grew bigger, and expenses arose. However, the finances and running of the league were in the hands of men who knew just what was needed and went ahead and did it.

A good proof of the success of the league was the banquet held last evening to do honor to the ball players, who, with the officers and others who helped have made the league the most successful of its size in the city. The men who organized it feel that it has created good fellowship among the boys and has revived athletics in East Falls once more. These men along with anyone else who may so desire to enter and help them, are going ahead with a soccer and basketball league. All they ask is a little co-operation from the residents of the town along the Schuylkill who made the baseball league a success by their attendance. The officers and the ball players themselves thank the fans for their co-operation and assistance and hope they will continue to be interested in local athletics.

The officers were: Bernard Klebanoff, president; Lyman Hess, vice president; Walter Costello, treasurer, and Charles Foley, secretary.

The board of arbitrators which disposed all disputes, consisted of Willard Hess, John B. Kelly, Daniel C. Ely, Thomas Dougherty, Walter Jenkinson and Harry Omensetter. Arthur Warrington was the official score-keeper."

NEW BASKETBALL LEAGUE IN FALLS

Success of Church Baseball League Leads to Adoption of Cage Game

SEASON TO OPEN NOV. 1

by "MUDDY"

Long ago, East Falls was noted for its basketball stars. Games of the Philadelphia League, and other contests were held nightly in America Hall, Thirty-fifth street and Sunnyside avenue and it was truly the main sport of the town. At various times, since the old days, independent quintets were organized, but it never seemed possible to organize another successful league.

The East Falls Church League has now taken hold of the reins, and the outcome promises to be bright, as practically the same men who governed the baseball league, which just completed a brilliant season, are in control.

The baseball league, was without a doubt, one of the most successful diamond organizations in the city and those in charge are confident that the basketball league will attain its goal, as a healthful and interesting sport to those who play and to the spectators who will attend the games.

At a meeting of the League, held on Friday evening, at the Old Academy, on Queen lane, it was decided to play all the games on Tuesday and Friday evenings, in the St. James the Less Hall, at Thirty-third and Clearfield streets. Daniel C. Ely, who has charge of the hall reports that the floor has been put in first class condition and ample seating space provided for the fans.

The readers of this column have probably become familiar with the history of the League and I do not wish to bore you with any long stories concerning it, but there is one fact in relation to the organization that is well worth repeating, and that is that the league was created to promote good fellowship and develop the "boys of the Falls," in the sporting world.

I was present at the meeting on Friday night and if I hadn't known where I was, I might have thought that I was listening to an argument at the League of Nations headquarters. The old and familiar question arose: "Where are the boundaries of East Falls?"

However, that was soon settled, but oh! what a blow the managers suffered when the gavel rose and fell with a thud upon the table, accompanied with the statement, "No one but Falls boys in our baseball games, and none but Falls boys shall play basketball."

Think of it! What other league in the city holds the player limit to the community's boundaries? Yet small as East Falls is, it held 108 baseball players and must hold at least 80 basketball players between School lane and Hunting Park avenue, on the north and south, and Wissahickon avenue and the Schuylkill river on the east and west. In basketball, as in baseball, kin will be pitted against kin.

All of the teams of the League are practicing diligently and are being outfitted for the initial games. Grace Church and Falls Presbyterian open the season on November 1, at 8 P. M. Two games will be played each night and St. Bridget's will meet Falls Methodist in the nightcap game, on the opening night.

Vincent McNally, the captain of the 1926-1927 Notre Dame basketball team will toss up the ball at the opening game and will referee the contest. William Shafer, the "father of basketball" will also be among the prominent guests that will be in attendance.

Jack Kelly, of rowing fame, will be a member of the St. Bridget's team and Frank Lees, another athletic luminary will oppose him on the Methodist five. Sammy Moorehead, the ex-Eastern League star will be one of the Falls Baptist quintet.

ST. JAMES LOSES IN LAST SECOND

Winning Field Goal Scarcely Falls Through Basket When Final Whistle Blows

BREAKS 19-19 DEADLOCK

Under the management of Daniel C. Ely, the St. James the Less basketball team, which for the last six years has played in the North Philadelphia Church League, opened its current season on Thursday evening at St. James the Less Hall, Thirty-third and Clearfield streets.

Ely has gathered together a fine collection of cagemen composed of "Bill" Muschamp, who is captain of the team, and his brother Herbert. These boys are all around athletes and put up a wonderful brand of diamondizing for the St. James baseball team in the East Falls Church League.

Then there is "Milt" Lister, who formerly played on the old Dobson basketball five, Herbert "Apple" Chadwick, who is noted as a Germantown High School star; "Ed" Bamford, of Girard College, and "Bill" Proud and "Andy" Dornan, of Clearfield. Winfield Edwards and his cousin, "Bob," are the new material that Manager Ely has added to his list this year.

St. James have emerged champions of the North Philadelphia circuit twice in the last two years, and consequently all of the other teams in the league will put forth their best efforts this year to dethrone them. On Thursday evening, the First Presbyterian Speedboys, in the last few seconds of play, managed to defeat the Champs by the score of 21-19. Tompkins, who had relieved Schmucker, just beat the gong by looping one through the net for the winning points.

The game was fast and furious throughout and although the aliens led at the end of the first half, Muschamp's basketekers staged a rally at the opening of the second period, which brought them up to a tie, until the speed Tompkins settled the game with his rifle-shot goal.

EAST FALLS CHURCH LEAGUE GAMES

St. James got off to a good start in its opening game in the East Falls Church League, on Friday night, winning from Falls Baptist by the score of 35-25.

The contest was rough and fast from the beginning, Lister being the shining light for the lower end five. As was to be expected, Lanky Sam Moorehead gathered all the honors for the Baptist ball tossers. The inability of the Queen lane cagemen to make their foul goals count, cost them the game.

Fouls: Moorehead 4; Ashton 3; Furman 2; Lister 4; Proud 4; W. Muschamp 3; H. Muschamp 3; Bamford 3.

The Lutheran team went down to defeat before the five representing the Church of the Good Shepherds, but it was only in the last two minutes of play that the Oak Road basketekers pulled away from their rivals. The Lutheran team was sadly lacking in shooting field goals, as they only scored two points by this means in the entire forty minutes of play. Andy Leach spared his team a good trouncing by his marvelous foul shooting. Schadel was there with a good eye for the Good Shepherds. The final score was 22-15, the Manorites pulling away from the 35th street lads in the second half, as at the intermission the score was tied.

St. Bridget's and Falls Presbyterian played an exciting game at St. James Hall, on Tuesday evening, November 8, with the Upper Enders emerging victorious by the slim margin of one field goal. The final score was 19-17.

The lead shifted several times throughout the length of the game. With five seconds left to play, and the score standing 18-17, Referee Muschamp called a double foul on Crisman and Morrow. Morrow missed his try and Crisman had an opportunity to tie the score for the Saints, but his shot rimmed the basket and fell outside. On the following jump, Morrow was again fouled and caged his last shot, making the score 19-17. The bell ending the game sounded as his foul fell through the basket.

Methodists Defeat Lutherans

In the other contest of the evening, Methodist had very little difficulty in defeating Grace by the score of 33-11. In the first half, both teams played a close guarding game, with the "M. St. James Wins

On Friday night, Lutheran went down to defeat for the second league game because they had not visited an oculist and had their eyes examined. This time it was St. James that trimmed the Midvale avenue basketeers, and the final score showed the figures at 32 to 10.

Lister, of St. James, was the man of the hour with seven large juicy field goals, and Chadwick and Proud put up a fine game at defense. When the game was stored away on ice, Manager Dan Ely threw in his subs, but the Lutheran lads were unable to stop even the second string men from the lower end.

Shepherds Down Baptists

On the same evening the Queen Lane Manor contingent from the Church of the Good Shepherd trimmed the Baptist boys by the score of 26 to 18. Again it was the weakness of the Moorehead outfit in shooting foul goals that lost them the game. Out of twenty tries in the final half of the tilt the Hillside five could only garner five fouls. The score at half time stood 15 to 11 in favor of the Oak Road ball tossers. There was considerable close guarding done by both teams in the second half, and each of the contestants only received a field goal.

WE WANT TO KNOW

Every Tuesday and Friday evening, if one be observant, he will see a large crowd wending its way to the Parish House of St. James the Less Church, at Thirty-third and Clearfield streets.

It is a sports-loving, good-natured bunch and it is on its way to witness the games of the East Falls Church League, which stage basketball games in the Parish House on the afore-mentioned evenings of each week.

But the crowd is mystified at each game, for before the contests start there appears upon the floor two zebraic-striped strangers, who appear to be having a little private workout of their own. They look as though they might be players on the same team, for they wear the same kind of blazers. The colors of these are orange and black, which is the official colors of the league.

"We want to know," says the crowd, "who these two birds are?" And for their information we're going to spill the beans. The twins are none other than the ticketseller and the scorekeeper. Messrs. James "Hero" McHale and Arthur "Brick" Warrington.

P. J. Neilan, the fiery little chief of St. Bridget's championship baseball nine, was the recipient of signal honors this week, when his friends and fellow employes of the Right Wrecking Company, of 3105 North Fifth street, presented him with an additional prize cup for his success as a baseball pilot.

Mr. Neilan takes his honors with his usual modesty and has been prevailed upon to exhibit his new cup in Welsh's Restaurant, at 4213 Ridge avenue, East Falls.

East Falls Church League BASKETBALL GAMES

Lutherans Defeat Baptists

Andy Leach's Lutheran Leeches emerged victorious in a tight battle with the Falls Baptist aggregation on Tuesday evening at St. James Hall, Thirty-third and Clearfield streets, by the score of 24-21.

Wilbur Kenworthy's five was leading when the whistle blew for half-time, but Leach's Leeches hung on and came back strong in the final frame, ultimately winning out.

It was the playing of J. Leach and Garside that won the decision for the Midvale avenue cagemen. Leach garnered three field goals and Garside duplicated his teammate's feat. Harker, who played his first game of the season with Lutheran, was signed up by Manager Kenworthy for the Baptist quintet and gave a very fine exhibition of basketball playing.

The Queen lane boys missed "Long Sam" Moorehead at guard and inasmuch as the Redeemer lads had found their optics, the game went to the crew from Librarytown.

Saints vs. Grace Reformed

St. Bridget's and Grace Reformed played a very exciting game and "Tom" Dougherty's Saints came out on top by the score of 22-20.

Dougherty is still trying out his new material and placed his second-string men on the floor for the first half, and was on the short end of the stick at the halfway mark by the score of 12-8. When his first string men went in at the start of the second half they soon pulled up to and passed the Ridge avenue basketweavers, but it was not without a hard battle. The going was certainly rough. Jones, of St. Bridget's, had to be carried from the floor, when he received a wallop over the eye, but in a

On Friday night Falls Methodist pranced all around the Church of the Good Shepherds, and a red hot game was the result. During the first half, the rooters from Queen Lane Manor had a gay old time, for their outfit was leading by the score of 13-7. Things looked dark for "Chick" Clayton's gang, for fifteen minutes elapsed before the "M. E." boys were able to drop one through the basket. "Winnie" Edwards finally started things off, and in a couple of minutes he arched another through the net. "Mike" Edwards had a perfect night from the foul line, scoring all six of his tries. In the second half it was "all Methodist," and then the Krall street chorus tuned up their lungs and let loose. In the final half Good Shepherd only managed to get one field goal and four fouls.

The final score was 25 to 19, in favor of Falls Methodists.

St. James Downs Presbyterian

Dan Ely's St. James quintet with two of the regulars out of the lineup had a very easy time of it when they beat "Nate" Calhoun's Presbyterians by the score of 29 to 12, in the other game of the evening.

Lister, the butter and egg man, had a good night of it, scoring five field goals, and some critics say that he would have had a few more if he had had to extend himself. Muschamp, the cage captain, also tossed five in from the floor.

The first half ended with St. James in the lead, 16 to 3. "Apple" Chadwick, who sprained his ankle recently, and "Paddy" Muschamp, who is seriously ill with appendicitis, were the two regulars who were absent from the lineup.

S LUTHERANS TENDERED DINNER

George Shaw's Lutheran baseball team, which represented the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer, of East Falls, and were the runners-up in the 1927 series of the East Falls Church League, was tendered a dinner in the church building at Thirty-fifth and Midvale avenue, last Thursday evening.

Benjamin Marley, acted as toast-master at the affair and President Bernard Klebanoff, Vice-President Lyman Hess and Treasurer Walter Costello, of the East Falls Church League made appropriate addresses. Charles Foley, the energetic little secretary of the league was unable to be in attendance and sent his regrets.

George Shaw, the Lutheran pilot, officially turned the Church League cup, which was awarded to the second place team, over to the church. Rev. Dr. Seamans, the pastor in charge of the Church of the Redeemer, accepted the cup on behalf of the church, with a short speech of thanks and encouragement to the athletes to continue the good work that had been started.

Among the players who were present, were: Andrew and John Leach, Harry and Thomas Connolly, William McDowell, John Brill, Bernard Matthews, "Ted" Steinmetz, Reuben Grill, E. Martin, J. Lynn, Robert Frazer and Robert Turner.

ST. BRIDGET'S DOWN ST. JOHN'S 26 TO 22

In a Philadelphia Catholic League game, played at St. James' Hall, Thirty-third and Clearfield streets, on Wednesday evening, Tom Dougherty's St. Bridget's five nosed out the St. John's representatives of Manayunk by the score of 26-22.

This makes the third straight game that the East Falls contingent has won, and they are now leading the league with three wins and no defeats.

Tommy McCann starred for the Dougherty netmen by obtaining six field goals and four fouls. Sharkey, of the Manayunk basketeers, gathered three field goals to fatten his average.

The lineup:

WILDCATS CLAW RYAN'S TIGERS

Welsh Scores only Touchdown on Trick Play in the First Quarter

GAME HOTLY CONTESTED

The Wildcat eleven of East Falls defeated Ryan's Tigers last Sunday by the close score of 6 to 0. Jennings starred for the Wildcats, while Joe MacAreavy played a bangup game for the Tigers.

Furlong kicked to Joe MacAreavy, who was downed on his fourteen-yard line. A few line bucks were tried, followed by a lateral pass, which was intercepted by Stonelake and taken to the three-yard line. Welsh, on a trick play, took it off tackle for a six pointer. Furlong's kick for the extra point was low.

Hodgins caught the Wildcats' kickoff and returned it to the twenty-five-yard line. The Tigers then started a march up the field but the half ended with the ball on the Wildcats' thirty-yard line.

The second half started with O'Brien receiving the Tigers' kickoff and returning it to the thirty-five-yard line. On a series of end runs and line plunges the Cats brought the ball to the eighteen-yard line, where the third quarter ended.

To start the last quarter the Wildcats forwarded, and it was intercepted by Joe MacAreavy who brought it back to the twenty-yard line.

The Tigers then started a series of end runs and passes, one of which was intercepted by Jennings and returned to the Tigers' twenty-yard line, when the game ended.

ST. BRIDGET'S FIVE GIVEN NEW COURT

Father Muryon, pastor of St. Bridget's Church in East Falls, stated at a meeting held last Monday night, that the old church building, at 3600 Staunton street had been inspected and found strong enough to be used by the St. Bridget tossers as a basketball court. He, therefore, gave his permission for its use as such, and now the church team has a fine court, 40 feet by 40 feet, with a 70 foot ceiling, one of the finest in this section.

All the Catholic League games will be played there, and the local boys will entertain St. Francis on Thursday night. The tossup will take place at 8.15 P. M.

Baptist Defeats Presbyterian

Wilbur Kenworthy's Baptist "Divers" finally solved the problem of how to win basketball games when they trounced Falls Presbyterian, at St. James Hall, last Tuesday evening by the score of 47 to 13.

McClure scintillated for the "Divers" by scoring ten field goals. Kenworthy has evidently grabbed off a couple of good forwards in Harker and McClure. The Presbyterian "Tartans" never had a ghost of a show when those two birds got started.

The lineup:

Baptist	Presbyterian
McClure..... forward	Calhoun
Harker..... forward	Haggerty

Substitutions—H. Moorehead, Verbeck, L. Neeley, W. Neeley and O'Donnell.

In the nightcap game, "Chick" Clayton's "Meboys" beat out Leach's Lutheran Leeches by the score of 20 to 15. The Methodist team had an easy time of defeating the Redeemers. After the first ten minutes of play, the "Meboys" were leading 12 to 3, so Clayton put his second-string men in and at half-time they had increased the lead to 15 to 5. In the final frame, Andy Leach and his brother Leeches crept up a little and at the closing whistle the score stood 20 to 15. The Lutheran outfit missed the services of Gar-side, their star center man.

On Friday night, Dan Ely's St. James' quintet were easy victors over Grace Reformed, by the score of 30 to 14.

The game started off as though it were going to be one of those close affairs that you read about, for with but one minute to play in the first half the score stood 7 to 5 in favor of the "Jimmylads." Then Proud shot a two-pointer in the net, and then on the jump Bamford was fouled and he made it, which brought the figures up to 10-5 at the end of the half. Lister went in the fracas at the beginning of the second half, and put the old basketball game on ice. Ely's butter and egg man caged four field goals. Benham played a good game at defense, but toward the end of the contest he began to weaken. The final score, as stated before, was 30 to 14.

The lineup:

St. James	Grace

Field goals—Morrison, 1; Dornan, 3; Bamford, 1; Proud, 2; Lister, 4; Schofield, 1, and Foster, 2.

Fouls—Muschamp, 1; Dornan, 2; Bamford, 5; Harper, 2; Schofield, 2; Foster, 1; Chadwick, 2, and Benham, 1.
Substitutions—Lister for Morrison.

Carl Happ's "Galloping Herd" from the Church of the Good Shepherd experienced little difficulty in stampeding the St. Bridget's netmen. In the first half "Tom" Dougherty's proteges were unable to score a field goal and the score at the end of that frame stood 21 to 3 in favor of the Manorites.

In the second period the "Gallopers" took their own sweet time and played a passing game. Manager Dougherty, of the "Saints" tried out Knute Rockne's Notre Dame system, by putting in his second string men first, but the football stunt didn't work for a minute. The chorus of Shepherdites yelled "Better luck next time, Tommy." The final score read 34 to 12 in favor of Happ's team.

WILDCATS DOWN COLLEGIANS, 15-7

Jolly Collegians Taken into Camp In Splendid Thanks- giving Day Battle

BUSINESS MEN ATTEND

On Thanksgiving afternoon the Wildcats trounced the Jolly Collegians of Kensington at B and Clearfield streets, by the score of 15 to 7.

The Wildcats line showed up well considering the weight they were stacked up against.

Furlong starred for the victors, while Crowley was the outstanding star of the vanquished.

First half: Layden kicked off to Ramsey, who returned the ball to midfield. The Cats started a march down the field which resulted in a touchdown. They used a varified attack with Jennings taking it over on a reverse play.

The Cats kicked off to Jones, who was down on his own 20-yard line. The Collegians started to march up the field but the Wildcats held in the shadow of their own goal posts. Then a series of forward passes brought the ball to the 50-yard line. Jennings called what seemed to be a stupid play, but in the end it turned about to be a wonderful placement kick for a 50-yard three-pointer by a furlong.

Substitutes now began to flow in plentifully for the Cats. With the second team in there the Collegians scored their only six pointer and added the extra point.

The seconds kept battering away and had the ball deep in the Collegians' territory at the end of the game.

With the closing of the season, the Wildcats extend their heartiest thanks to John W. Welsh, who has taken a great interest in the team and to Charles Brown, James Gavaghan and Ernest Strenger.

The team is negotiating with an East

Falls theatre to enable the members to have football suits in 1928.

The lineup:

O'Rourke..... right end Kelly
 McGill..... Right tackle O'Brien
 Murphy right tackle O'Brien
 Finley..... center Kemp
 Goldbakes..... left end Furlong
 Stuhdreher .. quarterback .. Jennings
 Crowlen... right half back Ward
 Layden..... fullback Welsh

Subs—Wildcats, McCarty, J. Parks, C. Parks, Higgins, Referee, McKeaney, formerly center man on the Catholic High School team.

The Wildcats were followed by several members of the Falls Business Men's Association and friends of the team. At the Holy Name meeting at St. Bridget's church on Monday evening the game was spoken of and the Rev. J. McMahon called on Joe Welch to name the team, and Joe Ward to give full details of the next game.

MORAL VICTORY FOR EAST FALLS

6-0 Defeat Administered by Riverside Team and Officials Really a Triumph

PLAY BRILLIANT GAME

By Muddy

The old adage "that a travelling team never gets an even break" certainly proved itself in the game between the Big Green team of Riverside and East Falls. We might also state another adage, "History repeats itself."

Last year East Falls played the same team and during the game Chap Rafferty kicked a beautiful thirty-five-yard field goal. The fans of both teams cheered the kicker as that was quite a distance for a field goal. However, the official's hands waved in an opposite direction than the uprights and declared it no goal. Further criticism is not necessary since the Riverside team turned their backs to the shouts of derision hurled by the followers of both teams.

Last Sunday East Falls played Riverside before a crowd of 2000 rain-soaked fans and "history repeated itself," for the officials were unfair and the residents of the Jersey town once again wended their way home, embittered by the lack of sportsmanship of their home team and its officials.

The game though marred now and again by unfair decisions was a great one. All through the first half the two teams battled furiously. East Falls held a little edge in the first half as they threatened to score when Cohen, East Fall's own all-American tackle, blocked a kick and grabbed it as it bounced only to be downed on the fifteen-yard line. Here was a chance to score but such chances went astray, when, with one yard to go, a forward pass was thrown which was intercepted by File, of Riverside. From then on until the final whistle, the teams battled in midfield.

The second half was much like the first, the only difference being the attitude of the officials towards our team. Clancy, playing a whirlwind game at end, touched a fumbled ball after having tackled the runner. Rules declare a ball dead when it goes out of bounds, as it did in this case, and should be given to the team whose player last touches the ball. But the game was played in Riverside and they have their own rules. Later in the game Shadel intercepted a pass which would have been a touchdown for Riverside. However, Riverside was given the ball back and East Falls penalized half the distance of the field. The ball now rested on the four-yard line with four downs to take it over. Here the famous line of Jenkie's team held and fought back, for after Riverside had the ball for four downs the ball rested on East Falls' own six-inch line. Shadel, doing good kicking throughout the game, safely booted the ball out of danger. Riverside then took to the air and, on three complete forward passes, brought the ball to their opponents' ten-yard line. With ten seconds to go, a forward, File to Applegate, scored the first touchdown of the game, beating East Falls 6-0, the whistle blowing as they lined up to try for the extra point.

The East Falls fans received a thrill when Jerry Marr attempted a forty-yard field goal, which was long enough but to the side of the uprights. Jerry later had his thumb broken in scrimmage. Razz Jones, playing his first game for East Falls, proved himself a hard line crasher. For Riverside, Applegate was easily the star through his end running and forward passing.

East Falls	Riverside
Norton..... center	Allen
Costello..... right guard	Lidel
Coley..... right tackle	Fisher
Hinkle..... right end	Bendcliffe
Marr..... quarterback	Headman

MANAYUNK A. C. TO OPEN DEC. 15 WITH FINE CARD

New Fight Palace Will Seat
2500 Fans in Main Floor
And Gallery

FINE SHOW FOR OPENING

December 15th will be the opening date at the new Manayunk A. C., at Leverington avenue and Baker street.

This is the news that the fight fans of all northwestern Philadelphia have been waiting for, and there is little doubt, judging from the impatience shown by some of the remarks heard on all sides, that one week from tomorrow night, will find a huge crowd storming the doors of the new arena.

The Robinson Iron and Steel Company has completed the tremendous amount of structural steel work that was necessary to convert the building into a modern fight-club. The interior of the club consists largely of a huge auditorium, approximately 90 feet long, by 90 feet wide, the roof of which is supported by large girders that run the full length of the building. These main supports are sustained by slender uprights, placed in positions which will not interfere with the spectators' vision of the ring.

From close to the ceiling, to a point about ten feet above the main floor, a large gallery descends from all four sides of the structure. This squared gallery will have seven rows of chairs, around the entire auditorium, with a four-foot promenade in the rear of the seats.

The gallery is supported by unusually heavy iron beams, with the safety allowance so liberal that any load that can possibly be placed upon them will be carried with entire safety.

Callahan Brothers, of Roxborough, are the contractors and have a large force of mechanics on the job, making the various alterations and reconstruction which was needed to turn the building into a modern fight-club.

As one enters the arena he will step up a short ramp to the main floor. In the center, the ring will be erected with an elevation of four feet, enabling the patrons to have a full view of the fights from any place in the main auditorium. The galleries will be reached by two stairways; one in the southwest corner of the building and the other in the northeast corner.

Three exits have been arranged. One of these will lead from the galleries to Smick street, in the rear of the building. On the ground floor will be another exit 15 Smick street and one to Leverington avenue. These three exits, in addition to the main entrance on Baker street, will permit the clubhouse to be emptied within a few minutes.

A maple flooring is still to be laid on the main level of the club, which will permit the building to be used for dances, basketball, and other indoor entertainments. Little remains to be done on the galleries except the actual placing of the seats. The building will be capacious enough to accommodate between 2000 and 2500 sport lovers.

From the center of the south wall, a corridor will run off to the offices, dressing rooms, showers, toilets, etc., all of which are to be equipped with the most modern facilities.

Thomas S. Brown, one of the backers of the enterprise stated on Friday, that he "was sure everything will be ready for the comfort and the enjoyment of the sport lovers, on the opening night."

Promoter Joseph Kennedy, who will have complete charge of all the bookings, claims that he will give the fans several pleasant surprises on his opening bill, but inasmuch as negotiations with some of the boxers have not been completed, he will have to wait until next week's issue to make public his opening attractions.

Lutherans Defeat St. Bridget's

On Friday night Lutheran trimmed the St. Bridget's quintet. It is evident that Dougherty is trying to capture the Catholic League title and that his team put more effort into the winning of games in the larger circuit, for in the East Falls League games the "Saints" have only been able to win one game. In the game with Andy Leach's team the Stanton street crew were unable to score in the first half, for the Leeches held them to one lone foul goal. McCann went in for the Doughertyites in the final half and scored the other four points. The score at the windup was 31 to 5 in favor of the Lutherans.

The Midvale avenue aggregation had its two noisy stars in the game, J. Leach and Dooner, of the old P. I. D. quintet. The pair worked fine together and made good running mates for Garside.

The lineup:

Lutheran	St. Bridget's
Munaw..... forward	McDonald
Dooner..... forward	Petrone
Garside..... center	Connolly
A. Leach..... guard	Murphy
J. Leach..... guard	Foley
Field goals—Munaw, 1; Dooner, 3; Garside, 3; A. Leach, 1; J. Leach, 2; Edgar, 1; McCann, 1.
Fouls—Munaw, 4; A. Leach, 2; Edgar, 1; McDonald, 1; McCann, 2.
Substitutions—Edgar and McCann.

Dan Ely vs. Bill Clayton

The real game of the week was played on Friday evening when Dan Ely's Episcopal five clashed with "Bill" Clayton's "Meboys."

It was a red hot contest from start to finish, being anyone's game to the last minute. With but a minute to play the St. James lads were leading, 26-23. Lister cut for the basket and was fouled just as he shot. The field goal counted and then he caged his try for foul, bringing the score up to 29-23. Monroe Hess got a free toss, looped it through, ending the game. The fracas was rough and speedy. "Butter and Eggs" Lister hung up four field goals in the final frame, which was really the deciding factor against the Claytonites.

Methodist

Methodist	St. James

Field goals—Muschamp, 2; Lister, 4; Bamford, 3; M. Hess, 1; Homewood, 1; Calhoun, 1; H. Hess, 1.
Fouls—Muschamp, 4; Mister, 3; Bamford, 3; Chadwick, 1; M. Hess, 2; Homewood, 4; Calhoun, 2; H. Hess, 2, and Lees, 5.

Herdsmen Win

It was Carl Happ's "Galloping Herd" from the Church of the Good Shepherd that took the Falls Presbyterian basketeers into camp on Tuesday evening at St. James' Hall, Thirty-third and Clearfield streets, by the score of 36 to 21.

It looked as though the Presbyterian Tartans were going to give the Manorites a good game, for once, for after several minutes' play the fracas was a nip and tuck affair, with the score standing 12-10.

But in the final frame, the "Herdsmen" started a round-up and corralled the game for their "W" column.

The lineup:

Good Shepherds	Presbyterians
Schadel..... forward	Groves
A. Edwards... forward	Haggerty
W. Edwards... center	Calhoun
J. Edwards.... guard	McClenaghan
Pickard..... guard	Morrow
Field goals—Schadel, 8; R. Edwards, 1; W. Edwards, 4; J. Edwards, 1; Day, 1; Happ, 1; Groves, 1; Haggerty, 1; Calhoun, 2, and McClenaghan, 1.
Fouls—Schadel, 2; R. Edwards, 2; Groves, 2; Haggerty, 3; Calhoun, 5; McClenaghan, 1.
Substitutions—Day and Happ.

Baptists Trim Sparrows

Wilburt Kenworthy's Baptist five are rounding into form, and had an easy time of it on Tuesday evening when they met Frank Benham's "Park Sparrows." The final score was 35 to 17 in favor of the Queen lane contingent. Kenworthy seems to have finally gathered together a fine collection of ball-tossers, and the teamwork that he has instilled into his aggregation is beginning to show its effect. Kirkpatrick had a fine night of it, caging six field goals.

East Falls Church League

BASKETBALL GAMES

The first half of the East Falls Church League's schedule ended on Friday night of last week, with Dan Ely's St. James quintet emerging victors. The Episcopal lads came through with flying colors, not having lost any games that they played in the Schuyllkill Falls circuit.

The final standing for the first half was as follows:

	Won	Lost
St. James	7	0
Methodist	6	1
Good Shepherd	5	2
Lutheran	4	3
Baptist	3	4
Grace	1	6
St. Bridget's	1	6
Presbyterian	1	6

Baptist and Methodist staged a hot battle on Tuesday night at St. James' Hall. The Baptist bunch played hard and fast in the first period, but they played themselves out and Bill Clayton's men pulled away from Kenworthy's clan in the final frame. At half time the score was 13-12 for the "Meboys." In the second half the Divers only scored six points, being held in check by the efficient guarding of "Farmer" Hess. The score at the end of the fracas was 29-18. Harker and McClure were the outstanding stars for the Baptist basketecers, while Lees was the shining light for the Claytonites.

Baptist forward Lees
 Harker forward Lees
 McClure forward A. Homewood
 Fisher center Calhoun
 Furman guard Hess
 Neeley guard J. Homewood
 Field goals—Harker, 4; McClure, 2; Lees, 3; A. Homewood, 2; Calhoun, 2; Hess, 2, and J. Homewood, 2.

Fouls—Harker, 5; McClure, 1; Fisher, 1; Furman, 1; Lees, 3; A. Homewood, 2; Calhoun, 2.
 Substitutions—Baptists: Fritzpatrick for Neeley.

On the same evening Grace and Good Shepherd went at each other and it was a very close contest throughout the first half, but after that Schadel and "Eggo" Edwards went in for the final period and there was nothing to it but "the Manor." The score at the end of the first half was 10-8. W. Edwards played a whale of a game at center, Hemphill, while not listed among the scorers, scintillated as a guard. The final score was 28-13.

Good Shepherds forward Hudson
 Allison forward P. Day
 R. Edwards forward P. Day
 W. Edwards center Harper

Hemphill guard Chadwick
 C. Day guard James
 Field goals—Hudson, 2; Harper, 1; R. Edwards, 2; W. Edwards, 5; Hemphill, 1; Schadel, 1; J. Edwards, 3.
 Fouls—F. Day, 1; Harper, 2; Chadwick, 1; James, 1; Schadel, 4.
 Substitutions—Schofield for Grace, Schadel and Edwards for Good Shepherd.

In the final game of the "half," Lutheran and Presbyterian put up one of the finest games played this fall when the Midvale avenue tossers finally won out over their Presbyterian opponents by the score of 21-20.

It looked like a big night for the Lutheran team, for when Presbyterian called for time out at the end of ten minutes of play, the score was 10-0. But then the fun began and when the half-time was reached, the Tartans had crawled up and were within striking distance of their foes, with the score standing 11-8. In the final frame the going was just as furious, but the lads from the town's end fell one point shy of equalizing the score made by the Redeemers.

McClenaghan was easily the star of the game, inasmuch as he caged five field goals for the Presbyterian outfit.

Presbyterian forward A. Leach
 McClenaghan, forward Edgar Calhoun center Garside
 Starrett guard J. Leach
 Morrow guard Munaw
 Field goals—McClenaghan, 5; Calhoun, 2; Starrett, 1; Weer, 1; A. Leach, 2; J. Leach, 2, and Edgar, 2.

Fouls—McClenaghan, 2; Garside, 5; Munaw, 3, and J. Leach, 1.

Substitutions—Neeley and Weer for Presbyterian.

The St. Bridget's team failed to make its appearance on Friday night and the game was forfeited to St. James, which permitted the latter team to finish the schedule without sustaining a defeat.

After the game, last evening, it was decided to postpone all scheduled games until January 3, 1928.

East Falls Church League

BASKETBALL GAMES

By WARRY

All games of the East Falls Church League have been postponed until Tuesday evening, January 3, when the schedule will be resumed with St. James playing Falls Baptist and Presbyterian battling Tom Dougherty's St. Bridget five.

The five leading scorers of the first half of the schedule were:

Name	Team	Points
"Babs" Calhoun, Falls Methodist...		65
"Milt" Lister, St. James		62
"Dutch" Schadel, Good Shepherd...		57
"Winnie" Edwards, Good Shepherd.		50
"Al" Harker, Falls Baptist		45

Earlier in the season we told you about the two "striped zebras" who come out on St. James' floor, a-practicing before each game. Well, on Tuesday night "Tom" Dougherty indulged in a scouting expedition and now we hear that "Hero" McHale, one-half of the zebraic herd, has been signed to play with St. Bridget's.

Presbyterian and Grace played a red-hot game on Tuesday night, when the second half started, at St. James hall, Thirty-third and Clearfield streets. Grace started off with the whistle and it looked like the "town's end" boys were going to be swamped, for early in the game the score read, Grace, 8; Presbyterian, 0.

Nate Calhoun called for time out, to permit his harried players to gather their wits, and then the battle started. When half-time was up, the figures that were displayed read 11-10 in favor of the Benhamites.

The conflict continued with unabated force in the second period, and with but a few minutes to go, the score was 17-all. Then Chadwick cut loose with a toss for the basket, after a quick pass from Hudson. The final point was made as the whistle blew, when Harper, the Grace star, caged a beautiful goal from the middle of the floor, making the finishing digits 21-17, with the game being placed in the "W" column for Grace Church.

Lineup:	Grace	Presbyterian
Hudson..... forward		Haggerty

Day..... forward	McClenaghan
Harper..... center	Morrow
Chadwick..... guard	Weer
Benham..... guard	Neeley

Field goals—Hudson, 1; Harper, 3; Chadwick, 2; Haggerty, 2; McClenaghan, 2; Neeley, 3; Calhoun, 1.

Fouls—Hudson, 1; Harper, 3; Chadwick, 5; Calhoun, 1.

Substitutions—Schofield and Calhoun.

Referee—Erb.

Methodist started off the second half with an easy victory over St. Bridget's. The game lacked thrills of any sort. Evidently Dougherty's charges are finding the going rough in attempting to play in two different leagues. The East Falls Church League is fast enough in itself without considering the speed which is required to "keep step" in the Catholic League circuit.

On Tuesday night, Jimmy Homewood, truck driver de luxe, started at the guard position in place of Frankie Lees, and Al Homewood only played the initial period, relinquishing his position to Harry Hess in the following frame.

In Foley and Connolly, Tom Dougherty has two hard-working players who are always in the van when it comes to playing the cage game, and it will be necessary for him to build a better team around this nucleus before the Stanton street tossers will have any chance of putting up real competition for the other teams in the league.

Lineup:

Methodists	St. Bridget's
A. Homewood.. forward	Petrone
M. Hess..... forward	Conway
R. Calhoun..... center	Connolly
M. Calhoun.... guard	Foley
J. Homewood... guard	Murphy

Field goals—M. Hess, 2; Calhoun, 3; J. Homewood, 1; Harry Hess, 1; Petrone, 2, and Conway, 1.

Fouls—A. Homewood, 2; M. Calhoun, 1; J. Homewood, 1; H. Hess, 1; Conway, 2, and Connolly, 1.

Substitutions—Harry Hess and McDonald.

EAST FALLS CHURCH LEAGUE GAMES

On Tuesday evening of last week, Andy Leach's "Lutheran Leeches," ncsed out Wilbur Kenworthy's Baptists, by the score of 26 to 22. The early lead that was obtained by the Midvale Avenue quintet was too much for the Divers to overcome. The first half ended with the score 18 to 8, in favor of the team from Dutch Hollow. Manager Leach and Garside had to extend themselves to the limit to hold off their Baptist opponents. Dooner was the shining light for the Redeemers, while Harker starred for the Kenworthys.

ST. BRIDGET'S FORFEIT

St. Bridget's forfeited to Grace on the same evening, because only four of the Saints appeared on the floor. Acting Manager Charles Foley, obtained the services of Andy Doran, of Dan Ely's St. James' team and played Grace in an exhibition game. The Catholic team emerged victorious by the score of 19 to 15.

MEBOYS DEFEAT HERD

Bill Clayton's Meboys and the Galloping Herd from the Church of the Good Shepherd staged a dumdinger of a game on Friday night, when they met at St. James Hall. With but four minutes to go, the score was 19 to 15. The Methodists then scored four field and two foul goals, while the Happy Clan were only able to net one from the floor and three fouls.

The Wool Gatherers were only able to ring two field goals, and both of these came in the second half. The final score was 29-20, in favor of the Claytonites.

The seventy-four fouls that were called, is significant of the roughness of the contest. Good Shepherds had forty-two foul shots and netted sixteen of them, and the Meboys scored on thirteen of their thirty-two chances.

Frankius "Punkius" Lees played a brilliant game at guard, with "Farmer" Harry Lees as his running mate. "Eggo" Edwards scintillated for the Manorites on defense.

BLUE STOCKINGS DEFEATED

Dan Ely's St. James' outfit had a soft time of it trimming the Presbyterian five on Friday night. When the final figures were hung up it was seen that the Lower Enders had defeated the Upper Enders by the score of 33 to 14.

The crowd in the Hall wanted to know why Bill Muschamp can't find some other night to go to the movies. They missed his smiling face from Dan's lineup.

EAST FALLS CHURCH LEAGUE GAMES

Presbyterians Skid

Falls Baptist easily put the skids under their Presbyterian opponents on Tuesday night at St. James' Hall, Thirty-third and Clearfield streets. The score was a record breaker, being 51 to 5 in favor of the Queen Lane Hill Climbers. Kenworthy's cohorts scored at will in the first half, adding fifteen field goals to their totals. At the half-way mark the Baptist team had such a commanding lead that they decided to take things easy in the final frame.

The crowd acknowledged the game-ness of McClenaghan and his men for the manner in which they battled until the final whistle despite the heavy odds that were against them.

Lutherans Trim Meboys

The Lutheran five put it on the Meboys from the Falls Methodist Church on Tuesday night by the score of 31 to 26. It was a pip of a game, and the players of both teams, both forwards and guards, covered their men to perfection, leaving only the center men free to take a cut at the baskets. Gar-side, of the Leeches, snared six field goals and Calhoun, for the Claytonites, netted seven of his tries. Dooner, of the Lutheran outfit, drew the plaudits of the crowd on several occasions for the beautiful game which he put up.

Shepherds Win

The Galloping Herd from the Church of the Good Shepherd pranced home victors on Friday night when they stampeded the St. Bridget quintet by the score of 31 to 16. Powers, St. Bridget's new center man, proved a real find for Dougherty and saved the Stanton street five from being white-washed. "Jacko," as the pivot man is called, scored ten of the sixteen points collected by St. Bridget's. Schadel was the diamond dust king for the Herdsmen.

Saints Defeat Grace

Grace Church made St. James extend itself to win on Friday night, and if Eggo Lister had not been on the job the Park Sparrows might have added the game to their win column. However, the game ended with the score reading 22 to 16, in favor of the Episcopal from the lower end of Dobsonville.

Day and Harper, who toss basketballs for the church by the side of the road, played brilliantly and with a little more passing of the ball between them will form a combination that will make the rest of the league sit up and take notice.

East Falls Church League Basketball

Good Shepherd Wins Another

Carl Happ's Wool Gatherers had little trouble in pushing Frank O'Donnell's Presbyterian team runner down on the percentage ladder in Tuesday night's game at St. James' Hall.

The team which hails from the pumping station could only net three field goals in the first half. In the final period they were not so good, as they netted but one goal and two foul shots. The final score was 36 to 10 in favor of the five from the Church of the Good Shepherd.

When Good Shepherds took the floor, there was an old familiar face in the lineup. At the beginning of the season the fans saw him acting as referee, and now he appears as a player. It has been a long time since Jack (Plainsclothesman) Kindon played basketball.

The lineup:

Good Shepherds	Presbyterian
Schadel..... forward.....	Weer
J. Edwards.... forward.....	Haggerty
W. Edwards.... center.....	Morrow
Kindon..... guard.....	McClenaghan
Hemphill..... guard.....	W. Neeley

Substitutions—A. Edwards and Al-Inson.

Field goals—Schadel, 4; J. Edwards, 2; W. Edwards, 6; R. Edwards, 3; Weer, 2, and Haggerty, 1.

Baptist Trims Grace

"Shiver's Shooters," from the Falls Baptist Church, had an easy time of it on Tuesday night, defeating the Park Sparrows from Grace Church.

It was the good floor work of "Big Bill" Furman that enabled the Divers to chalk up a victory. However, Shivers missed McClure from his lineup. Schofield starred for the Sparrows.

The final score was 27 to 18.

St. James Down Meboys

Friday night saw the best games at St. James Hill. First St. James and Methodist went at it again and the "Jimmy-lads" gathered in the seats of the Clayton cagemen from Falls Methodist. It was a "wow" of a game from start to finish. The final score was 19 to 17, which gives some idea of how strenuous the tussle was. Bamford played a scintillating game throughout and it was principally through his efforts as forward that the game was stowed in the win bag for St. James.

This defeat just put the Meboys out of the running, as it is their second setback.

In the second half of the contest the Methodist lads were only able to cage two of their field shots, while the Clearfield stars were running up a total of seven.

Catholics Defeat Lutherans

The real upset of the week came when St. Bridget's five took the Lutheran team into camp by the score of 15 to 14. This upheaval came right after trimming the Methodist team a week ago. While the Saints played a bang-up game from beginning to end, it took an extra period of five minutes to determine the winner. At the end of the regular forty minutes of play the score stood 13 all. The fans were treated to some real basketball in the extra period in which neither team scored from the field. The points that were made in the additional period were scored on fouls by Greaves, Leach and the winning foul marker was looped through by "Bear" Connolly, who insisted that someone run up to the church and pull the bell rope, proclaiming to the world that St. Bridget's had won.

Petrone starred for the team from lower Midvale avenue.

NEILAN GOES SCOUTING

P. J. Neilan, the fiery manager of St. Bridget's, 1927 championship baseball team, has purchased a new 4-door Hudson sedan.
 Mr. Neilan will use his new "bus" in making trips to locate a spring training camp for his 1928 aggregation.
 "Pat" predicts that he will not finish in last place or in second place, this year, so his opposing managers had better look to their laurels, or the Saints will again capture the gonfalon.

ANCIENT STARS IN EAST FALLS CHURCH LEAGUE

Eight of Championship Dobson Team of '13 and '14 Again Don Uniforms ARE STILL STAR PLAYERS

By "BRICKS" WARRINGTON
 Back in 1913 and 1914, when the John and James Dobson basketball team won the championship of the Manufacturers' League by beating out "E. G. Budd," the local team was composed of "Slim Sam" Moorehead, "Frankius Punkius" Lees, Albert "Zeb" Homewood, Jack "Officer" Kindon, Harry West, Walter Fox, "Eggo" Edwards and "Pete" Maguire.
 Now after fourteen years have rolled into the limbo of things past, we find that names of each one of the cagemen have appeared at some time or other, in the 1927-1928 reports of the East Falls Church League, a fact which seems to explode the theory that the good die young.
 At the beginning of the season "Sara" Moorehead led the team representing Falls Baptist. Since that time he has been starring, first for the Philadelphia Warriors, and at the present time for Pattison in the Philadelphia League, and for Ocean City in the South Jersey League.

Two boys who are much in evidence with the Falls Methodist five, now familiarly known as the "Meboys" are the same "Frankius Punkius" Lees and "Zebulon" Homewood. The Galloping Herd from the Episcopal Church of the Good Shepherd has in its lineup none other than James "Eggo" Edwards and Jack "Copper" Kindon. Kindon has been placed at guard and the fans have not yet had a good chance to judge what the Philadelphia policeman can do after his lay-off of fourteen years, but one basketball bouncer came forth with the opinion, that the cop will answer among the leaders; when the rollcall is made for point gatherers.

Harry West, hasn't yet played in a contest with the Good Shepherd team, but has been signed and expects to take a few cuts at the basket before many days have rolled around.

"Walt" Fox was a tower of strength for the Park Sparrows from Grace Church in the initial half of the present race for the flag, but business of making a living has interfered in the last few weeks and his face is missed from the lineup.

"Pete" Maguire, is on Tom Dougherty's roll, but has not yet had a chance to score points for his Alma Mater, St. Bridget's. However, he is expected to don his regalia within the next few games, and then all of the old stars will be in action.

These eight veterans who starred fourteen years ago are still able to step out and show their younger rivals a few angles from which to ring the ball through the net.

St. Jimmies Win

Dan Ely's St. James' quintet from the lower end of the Falls put it on Carl Happ's Galloping Herd from the Church of the Good Shepherd at St. James' Hall, on Tuesday night of last week, by the score of 24 to 17.

"Copper" Jack Kindon scored four field goals on his second appearance in the lineup. The only other ball netted from the field was thrown by Hemp-hill. R. Edwards tossed four fouls through the ring, which was the sum total of all the Oak road scores.

The St. James outfit scored ten field goals, three of which were scored by Andy (Scotch) Dornan.

Baptists Win, 43-7

In the second game Shivers Shivering Baptists trounced Dougherty's St. Bridget's aggregation to the tune of 43 to 7. In this contest Harker, of the Queen lane contingent, scored nine field goals and seven fouls, which constitutes a record for the league. Any time that one single player scores 25 points in one game, it is worth "telling the world" about. McClure also had a good night with three field goals and five fouls.

The lineup:

Baptist	St. Bridget's
McClure..... forward	Greaves
Harker..... forward	Kelley

Substitutions—Fitzpatrick and Verbeck.

 Fouls—Powers, 1; Connolly, 2; McClure, 5; Harker, 7; Kirkpatrick, 1; Furman, 2; Fitzpatrick, 1.

Lutherans Down Grace

On Friday night Lutheran outplayed the Grace team by the score of 35 to 29. Frank Day with four field goals and three fouls and Harper with two field goals and four fouls were the leading scorers for the Park Sparrows.

"Silent" Leach, the former P. I. D. star, was the outstanding player for the Lutheran Club, scoring five field goals and two fouls. Garside came next with five field goals, and A. Leach was third with three tosses from the field.

Meboys Down Blue Stockings

In the nightcap game on Friday night, Clayton's Cageteers trimmed Frank O'Donnell's Presbyterian five by the score of 29 to 10. The Meboys clearly outweighed and exceeded in height the smaller team from the farthest end of the Falls, but the Presbyterians put up a game battle despite the odds that were against them. Particular credit should be given to Weer and McClenaghan.

Babs Calhoun was the leading scorer for the Hill Climbers with five field goals and five fouls.

East Falls Church League Basketball

St. James Down St. Bridget's
St. James won a loosely played game on Tuesday night, January 30, when they met the St. Bridget's five on their home floor, at Thirty-third and Clearfield streets.

The Midvale avenue quintet only scored one field goal in the first half and would probably have been shut out if Ely's five had not eased up in the second period. The final score was 32 to 20 in favor of the Jimmyslads.

Lutherans Win, 31-19

Falls Presbyterian took its weekly beating, but not without its usual courageous fight. It looked as though O'Donnell's team was coming to life, for it held the Lutherans to a 16-to-15 score in the first half.

The second half, however, found Andy Leach's outfit running on all fours, and they slowly pulled away from their blue-stockinged opponents. Garside was the leading figure in the contest, for he scored ten field goals and three fouls, almost tying the record of 25 points that was made by Harker, of the Shiver's Baptist team, last week.

McClenaghan was the shining light for the losing team. Calhoun's smiling face was in the lineup again and the crowd gave him a hand after his absence of five weeks. The final score was 31 to 19.

Baptists Defeat Methodists

Falls Baptist kept up the fine work it has been doing under the management of Fred Shivers, and trounced the Methodist Meboys by the score of 29 to 13. Harker and McClure starred for the Shiverers. These lads are two of the finest working forwards in the league. Harker was all over the floor and in doing this he was fouled seventeen times, which is also another record. Al Homewood and Frank Lees were missed from the lineup of the Meboys.

Good Shepherds Default

Carl Happ's Church of the Good Shepherds' team failed to make its appearance on Friday night and the game was forfeited to Grace Reformed. Pretty soft for the Sparrows.

TRAINING FOR OLYMPICS

Charles H. McElvalne, Jr., of 330 Midvale avenue, passed the State examination as an embalmer. Mr. McElvalne, who is well known in rowing circles, is preparing to be among the Penn A. C.'s Olympic entries.

St. James won its final game on Tuesday evening, from Andy Leach's Lutheran Leeches, and sustained a perfect record for the year, in not losing a game through the entire schedule.

Garside was certainly missed from the line-up of the Midvale Avenue team. George Shaw, himself, was in the case as a representative of the Lutheran Church.

The final score was 25 to 19, in favor of the Episcopalians.

Galloping Herd Wins

On the same evening, Carl Happ's

Galloping Herd from the Church of the Good Shepherds had an easy time of it in checking the Shivering Shiverers from the Falls Baptist Church. The loss of the contest wrecked Fred's hopes of coming in second. The Queen lane contingent was short of the services of Kirkpatrick and Fisher. The rain did not seem to dampen the ardor of the

Meboys Cop Second Place

In the playoff for second place, Chick Clayton's Meboys nosed out Leach's Leeches, by the score of 24

to 14.

The result of this game gave the Meboys the right to claim the runner-up prize cup, which was presented to them on Monday evening at the league's luncheon, held at St. Jane's hall.

Lees and Blake Clayton held the Midvale Avenue cagemen from scoring from the field. With Frank Lees in the line-up, the Methodist lads seem to be an entirely different aggregation, than when he is absent. Garside, as usual, was the shining star for the Lutheran team.

FALLS TOSSERS ENJOY BANQUET

Presentation of Cup to Winning St. James Quint Marks End of Season

NINE CLERGY PRESENT

With nine clergymen present at the speaker's table, the East Falls Church Basketball League, ended its first season with a luncheon on Monday evening, at St. James Parish hall, Thirty-third and Clearfield streets.

Willard Hess, president of the league, who was to have been toastmaster, was unable to attend on account of illness, and Walter Costello, treasurer of the organization, acted in his stead.

After Rev. C. J. Harriman, of St. James the Less Church, had offered the blessing, toastmaster Costello, with his usual flow of witty remarks, introduced the speakers of the evening.

Father Harriman spoke in praise of sportsmanship in all branches of athletics; Rev. Ula E. Bauers, of the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer, the most recent addition to the clergy of East Falls, expressed his pleasure at being present at the gathering in which such a real community spirit was displayed. Rev. Edward Ritchie, of St. James the Less, chose as his subject "A Sound Mind in a Sound Body." He was followed by Rev. William B. Cooke, of the Falls Presbyterian Church, who lauded the league's officers and players for the furtherance of common efforts in the community. He was loudly applauded as he defended the losers in contests, who stand up under defeat, and despite their position, "on the roof or in the cellar," put forth the best efforts of which they are capable.

Rev. Francis T. Tees, of the Falls Methodist Church, congratulated the winning St. James team, and also expressed his appreciation of those who failed to emerge victors, for he stated "Out of disappointment there often comes a blessing." The speaker commented on the advancement of things in common among the people of East Falls.

Rev. William J. Hayes, of the Falls Baptist Church detailed the Church's duty in caring for the bodies, souls and minds of its members, and Rev. Daniel G. Wood, of St. James the Less, followed with several illustrations of sportsmanship which had been displayed by players of the basketball organization.

Rev. H. E. Kortekamp, of St. Bridget's Church, who was in attendance early in the evening, was called away before he had an opportunity of addressing the assemblage.

Rev. F. C. Harriman, D. D., the father of Rev. C. J. Harriman, was also present.

After the clergymen had spoken, the Falls Male Chorus, composed of Walter Smith, Donald MacKenzie, George Gotwals and Stanley Smith, with Walter Hardill at the piano rendered several vocal selections.

William Markward, coach of Catholic High's basketball teams gave an interesting talk on scholastic basketball and the benefit that was derived from the game. Mr. Markward was followed by Vincent McNally, who played on Catholic High teams and on the fives of some of the leading colleges.

East Falls' own local comedian,

Johnny "Sweets" Shaw, held down the humorous end of the evening's program. Next came two old timers, Carey and Murphy, who entertained the guests with some fine vocal selections. President William B. McFarland, of the East Falls Business Men's Association, made the presentation of the Championship Cup, which was donated by the local tradesmen and merchants, to Daniel Ely, manager of the winning St. James the Less five. Mr. Ely turned the cup over to William Muschamp, the team's captain, who replied with a brief speech of thanks.

Joseph Doyle, of the League's Board of Arbitration, in the absence of President Hess, presented the Runner-up's Cup to Manager William Clayton, of the Falls Methodist Church quintet.

Toastmaster Costello asked for one of the ladies followers of the Falls Baptist team to make some remarks, and his request was complied with by Mrs. Samuel Bastoe, who was applauded for contribution to the evening's talks.

Harry Baird

Charles Foley, the energetic secretary of the league was presented with a handsome leather brief case, and Arthur Warrington, the League Statistician, was the recipient of a genuine leather wallet.

James "Hero" McHale, who has been on a tour for the past five weeks, was among those present. His tour, he said, "was to Atwater Kent's and back each evening."

Rev. Daniel Wood made the closing prayer and the crowd departed in a happy mood and promised to return again next year.

The catering was done by Welsh's Restaurant, and all who partook of the "eats" were pleased with the quality and the quantity of the food placed before them.

ST. JAMES TO TASTE DEFEAT

"Muddy" Predicts Victory For All Stars in Battle With Champs

COMPARISONS ARE MADE

By "MUDDY"

Heretofore we have read of the number of snowstorms and wars which the prophets of fate predict, yes, even to picking the winner of a closely contested prize fight.

On next Friday night a team of picked players from the East Falls Church Basketball League will endeavor to stop the string of fourteen straight victories which have made the St. James team champions of the League, and is a record of which few teams can boast.

The game will be played at St. James Hall, Thirty-third and Clearfield streets, yet before the clock strikes eleven on next "pay night," the champions will have tasted the bitter dregs of defeat. I may be far flung in my predictions, but when one has seen the teams of the League battle for supremacy as much as I have, I am sure they will agree with me.

Go along with me for a minute and compare the teams. Not one of them could defeat the boys from the chimed belfry, I will concede that much. Now inspect the scoring account of their games and you will agree with me that the difference in the scores was very little. Why was that? Not one of those teams was good enough as a whole, but each team had its shining light who kept his team up there by hitting the net now and then, or who reached out a brawny arm to stop a Lister or a Muschamp from scoring.

It will be these shining lights who will burst forth in a blaze of glory to stop these "undefeated demons." Look upon the team that will battle the champions, and you will agree with me that Punk Lees, Shadel, Calhoun, Bob Edwards, Dooner, Si Greavey, Garside, McClure, Al Homewood and Ego Edwards will stop such men as Lister, Willie Muschamp, Ramford, Proud, and the rest of the St. James team.

In the preliminary the best two girl teams of the city battle, with victory as their only reward.

ST. JAMES TRIMS ALL STAR QUINT

DEFY 21ST WARD CHAMPS

By "Bricks" Warrington

Dan Ely's St. James the Less basketball team, champions of the East Falls Church League, kept their slate clean by defeating the team composed of the best players of the league, in an exhibition game at St. James Hall, 33rd and Clearfield streets, last Friday night by the score of 19 to 14.

Calhoun of Falls Methodist was the center man for the All Stars, and the three Edwards boys and Schadel of Good Shepherd and Tommy Connolly and "Si" Greaves of St. Bridget's also were in the lineup.

The Stars teamwork very naturally was bad, as the boys had never played together before. The Good Shepherd men therefore kept passing the ball to their former teammates.

St. James were without the services of their star, Ramford, and Andy Dornan's face was also among the missing. Lister played his usual good game and snared three field goals, while Proud was coming through with two field goals. "Captain Bill" Muschamp was the other goal getter.

"Winnie" Edwards, "Babs" Calhoun and "Father" Schadel for the All Stars, each rung one through the net. Chadwick was so busy guarding that he did not get a shot at the basket, while "Paddy" Muschamp was right on the heels of Calhoun all evening.

The lineup:

ST. JAMES	ALL STARS
Proud ... forward	R. Edwards
W. Muschamp .. forward	W. Edwards
H. Muschamp center	Calhoun
Chadwick guard	J. Edwards
Lister guard	T. Connolly
Field goals—Proud, 2; W. Muschamp, 1; Lister, 3; W. Edwards, 1; Calhoun, 1; Schadel, 1. Fouls—W. Muschamp, 4; H. Muschamp, 3; W. Edwards, 3; Calhoun, 1; Schadel, 4. Referee, John Leach.

The girls games that were scheduled to be played were cancelled, because one of the contesting five failed to make their appearance, and a boys team was picked and played the girls who were present.

On March 16, the Champion St. James team will play the winners of the Twenty-first Ward League at 33rd and Clearfield streets. At the present writing it looks as though the Saints will line up against Ebenezer or St. Timothy.

Manager Donald Mackenzie of the Methodist baseball team, has sent out his contracts for the 1928 season of the East Falls Church League and has received a few back with the necessary signatures. It looks as though "Mac" means business.

A TRIBUTE

The season of basketball is now closed and the East Falls Church Basketball League was a success. It has been the first time in many years that the "once most popular sport" was played in the town. Years back the Falls had good basketball teams, and many of them were taught by none other than Willard Hess, who has been the president of the Falls Basketball League during the past season. None better could have been given the job, no other could have served more faithfully and only he deserves the bulk of the "spoils."

WELSH'S WILDCATS BUSY PRACTICING

On Sunday, March 11, Welsh's Wildcats, of East Falls, held their first baseball practise, behind the Cafe La Riviere on the Park Drive.

The turnout was much larger than expected. A large number of the players are now complaining of sore arms, due to the speed with which they threw the ball on Sunday.

The team has a wealth of material left over from last season, among whom are: Jim Kelly, who was the first-string catcher; Bill Furlong, pitcher, and Joe Ward, a third baseman and pitcher.

The Wildcats hope to have a successful season.

The battle is on for first base between Joe McShane and Airedale Higgins. Should the Airedale lose out he will take his turn in the box with his pitching left arm. Charles Grispson, the Wildcats waterboy, is recovering from a broken leg and can be seen on crutches.

Anyone wishing to book games can do so by calling Victor 9872, any night between 8 and 9 P. M.

LOCAL BOXER

Above is a photograph of "Jimmy" Smith, christened Thomas James Smith, who was born in East Falls some 23 years ago.

His parents' early plans were that Thomas James would some day become President of the United States, and to date the young athlete still has a chance. In the meantime, however, he has been serving in the United States Navy and cleaning up things pugilistically.

The popular boxer has won two fights in Manayunk; one at Carnival aPrk, last summer, when he received the decision against "Jack" Ranford and two weeks ago he placed a "K. O." on Johnny Connolly, at the Manayunk A. C.

His father, "Johnny" Smith, will be remembered by the old-timers, as the peppery shortstop of the old Manayunk and Roxborough baseball teams, and also of the Mount Carmel nine, of the past and gone State League. Jimmy's uncle, "Patsy" Smith, at one time held the featherweight crown of the Schuylkill Navy, which used to go in for all sorts of athletics, in the days when Johnny Corrigan and Billy Rocap were in their prime.

Smith is now serving his second "hitch" with Uncle Sam's seafighters, and is one of the crew of the scout cruiser, S. S. Concord, now en route to Guantanamo Bay.

LIEB HURT IN SCRIMMAGE

By "Bricks" Warrington

Ebenezer, of the Twenty-first Ward Church League had an easy time of it defeating St. James, the champions of the East Falls Church League, on Monday night at the Manayunk A. C., Leverington avenue and Umbria street, thereby avenging the defeat of Friday evening, and tying up the playoff series.

The East Falls contingent seemed to be lost on the large floor, and were bewildered everytime they tossed one for the net.

Moyer and Lieb were in the game and were their old selves, and the Jimmys never had a chance. The final score was 36 to 15 in favor of the Manayunkers.

The lineup:

Street forward	W. Muschamp
Moyer center	R. Edwards
Garside guard	Bamford
Hinchcliffe guard	Lister

Substitutions: Fisher and Winterbottom for Ebenezer; Proud, H. Muschamp and W. Edwards for St. James.

Field goals: Lieb, 4; Moyer, 4; Hinchcliffe, 1; Winterbottom, 1; Schadel, 1; W. Muschamp, 1; Lister, 1.

Fouls: Lieb, 6; Street, 1; Moyer, 4; Garside, 4; Hinchcliffe, 1; Schadel, 2; R. Edwards, 2; W. Edwards, 1; Bamford, 3; Lister, 1.

Referee—Harmer.

St. James, the undefeated champions of the East Falls Church League played and defeated the hitherto unbeatable Ebenezer team of the Twenty-first Ward League, on Friday night, at Thirty-third and Clearfield streets, by the score of 27 to 19.

It was Ebenezer's first taste of defeat. They went to the Falls with quite a large following of fans, and I dare say there would have been a larger attendance but for the weather.

With the defeat went a couple of records. "Modest" Moyer and the little hustler, Lieb, were held scoreless from the field, which was the first time this year that the feat had been accomplished. Another record was that of holding the entire Ebenezer team without a field goal in the first half.

Anyone who is acquainted with the Manayunk lads can appreciate what a job Lister had in holding Moyer down, and scoring four field goals himself, and take it from me, Chadwick had his hands full with Lieb. Speaking of Lieb, he had to be taken to the doctor's office, as he received a little rough handling, and was severely hurt and could not resume play, so Thomas had to take his place in the second chapter.

The Jimmys could not get scoring until 10 minutes had elapsed and the score was 5 to 0 in favor of Manayunk's Meboys. There was a change made, with Schadel, "Wille" Muschamp and "Mike" Edwards going in, and they started the scoring for Lister dropped in one and shortly after Schadel followed suit. At half way the score was 9 to 8 with the Saints leading. But two minutes of the first half remained to be played when Lieb received his wound stripes and it seemed to take all the starch out of the lads from the "town of the hills and mills."

The second period started off with a bang for the Canal-siders who tied the score with a foul by Moyer, but after that the Big Butter and Egg Man from East Falls, Lister, started in and dropped a trio of field goals through the net. Captain "Willyum" Muschamp followed his peppery guard with two more. Fourteen minutes of the final frame had been played before Hinchcliffe arched one, through the dangling lace, which effort was followed in a few minutes with another.

Following these two markers, the Ebenezers were through for the night, as far as two-timers were concerned, Moyer kept them in the running with his foul shooting. Garside played his usual flashy game at center, but near the end he started to play Schadel and seemed to do better at guarding, for he stopped the East Falls Dutchman.

Street played a good game at guard, but taken all in all, the Methodist lads seemed lost in the cage. Walter was placed in the game for a while, but wasn't given enough time to do anything.

FALLS BAPTISTS BOW TO ST. TIM

Runners-up of Twenty-first Ward League Win in Great Second Half Rally

CLOSE GAME THROUGHOUT

Falls Baptist went down to their second defeat before the Episcopal warriors from St. Timothy's on Monday evening at the Manayunk A. C. by the score of 50 to 32.

The Saints had a far easier time than they had last Friday, when they played at the Falls. Ruby was the star of the game, caging 10 field goals. Hawthorne also played a good game while McClure was the star for the losers.

The lineup:

ST. TIMOTHY'S		BAPTIST
Hawthorne forward	Harker forward
Ruby forward	Fitzpatrick forward
Hobson center	Kirkpatrick center
Heath guard	Fisher guard
Schrader guard	McClure guard

Substitutions—Wunder, Furman.

Field goals—Hawthorne, 4; Ruby, 10; Hobson, 2; Heath, 3; Wunder, 1; Harker, 1; Fitzpatrick, 1; Kirkpatrick, 2; Fisher, 3; McClure, 4.

Foul goals—Hawthorne, 5; Ruby, 1; Hobson, 2; Heath, 2; Harker, 2; Fitzpatrick, 1; Kirkpatrick, 1; Furman, 1; McClure, 5.

The deciding game between the champions of the Twenty-first Ward and East Falls Church Leagues will be played March 30, at the Manayunk A. C., at which time St. Timothy's and Falls Methodist will meet in combat.

St. Tim's won Friday in one of the most exciting games ever witnessed at St. James Hall. It was fast from start to finish, the final score being 26-23.

The Baptists were leading at half-time, 15-12, and it was the second half rush of the Saints that carried them through. The crowd got Fisher's goat by razzing him and in the excitement Fisher left Schrader unguarded, which resulted in three field goals in quick time, and that was the breaking point.

Schrader and Hawthorne played a bangup game, scoring nine field goals between them, while Hobson played his usual good game at center. Heath kept Harker down to one field goal, while Wunder, his running mate, played a good game.

The Ridge avenue gang was handi-capped by only having five men. The Baptists were fighting the whole game and especially the last half to try and hold their lead.

McClure was the star of the Baptist clan from the Falls, having four field goals to his credit, while Harker played a good game in spite of a lot of tough luck with shot dropping out. Heath was too much for him. Kirkpatrick was all over the floor and kept Hobson scoreless. Furman and Fisher guarded well in the first half, but the St. Tim's forwards were a little too fast at times. But taking all in all it was a red-hot game and at the finish, only two points separating the teams. The score was 25-23, with Baptist trying their hardest for a field goal and the Saints trying to hold the lead, when, just at the final bell, Hobson was fouled and he made good, bringing the final up to

BASEBALL IN E. FALLS AGAIN

East Falls Church Baseball League Organizing for Second Season

OFFICERS TO BE ELECTED

Once again the "moguls of sport" of East Falls, which has made itself famous through its many and varied athletes, have gathered together and decreed that there shall be another East Falls Church Baseball League and so the town is due for more athletic history.

Let us turn back the pages of time one year, and glance over the "Roxborough News." The above mentioned league was in its infancy, taking its nourishment from the interest shown by men who could be, but who would not be, defeated in their purpose. Months passed by and the "infant" had grown considerably and was in its prime. Boys of all denominations were fighting for the same reward. And all denominations were on the same teams. There were boys of seventeen and men of thirty-five, boys playing their first game and some their last.

Dig deeper into those old papers and along about August you will read of the great interest being shown by the town and the continued success of the league. Interest came naturally, as only a boy from the Falls could play in the league games and who would miss watching his son or his nephew getting a chance to step into the "big tent."

Success, unlike interest, did not come naturally but had to be the result of hard work. The men who ran the league last year deserve a lot of credit for they gave the town something to talk about and remember for the balance of their lives. Things didn't go so well at first and it was hard to see their efforts being burnt up and nothing showing. However, it was not long before success crowned their efforts and they achieved their purpose, which was to create good fellowship and educate the boys of the town both morally and physically.

It is the same gang this year with the addition of the basketball officials, and all others who may wish to help out. A general meeting will be held in the Lutheran Hall, Thirty-fifth and Midvale avenue, on Thursday, at 8 P. M. Come and elect your "bosses" from those nominated, who are as follows: President, Walter A. Costello; Joseph Doyle; Vice-President, Lyman Harker; Judge Land's of the Falls; Treasurer, Walter Jenkinson; Walter Costello; Secretary, Charles M. Foley; Board of Arbitration, Willard Hess, Thomas Dougherty, Dan Ely, Walter Jenkinson, Thomas Denton, William McFarland, Arthur Warrington, P. J. Kelley, and James McHale.

St. James' youthful court combination, cleared the court for the concluding championship contests in local circles, and brought unto itself the Inter-Ward honors, when it nosed out Ebenezer at the Manayunk A. C. last Friday night, 28 to 24.

The game was fast and furious throughout and at half time the figures stood 15-15. However St. James' heavy artillery vigorously shelled the Ebenezer basket in the second half with Hawk Eye. Shadel and Bamford doing some fancy shooting. Manager Taylor's best bets were Moyer and Lieb, both boys playing hang-up ball. Little Mike Edwards, the Saint's center man is trying his best to live up to the generous plaudits showered upon him by the East Falls basket ball fans. Captain Bill Muschamp and Lister formed a wonderful defense, and their passing proved to be too hard for Ebenezer to solve. The big league whistle tooter, Jim Rumsey, handled the game in excellent style.

E. FALLS BASEBALL STARTS SATURDAY

When Walter Costello, newly-elected president of the East Falls Church League, tosses out the first ball at the opening game on Saturday afternoon at Dobson's field, he will start what promises to be the biggest year of base ball the "Little Town of Hills" has ever had. Like the bigger leagues of its kind, the season will be started off with the hoisting of Old Glory, after which a program arranged and drawn up by our own Tommy Denton, will be served the fans. Mr. Denton has secured Howard Berry of All-American and Olympic fame, and John Smithies, who needs no introduction. The Bugle and Drum Corps of the town will be present to assist with the raising of the Stars and Stripes.

While the opening festivities will be a gala affair since it has been a few years since an event of this kind has been held in the Falls, the dessert, which is always held until afterwards as it is usually the best dish, will be meted out in real style, for the opening game is between Methodist and Alumni teams. The latter champions of the 1927 season are ready to defend their laurels against a keen rival. Four times last year these two teams battled and at the end of each game the score showed one run difference, the Methodist gaining the upper hand as they won three games out of the four. Paddy Neilan, manager of the Alumni team is never optimistic about his chances but Don MacKenzie, manager of the Methodist threatens to change Paddy's attitude for contracts were handed out during December to the M. E. boys and secret practices have been held ever since.

Starting its second year the East Falls League asks for the cooperation of the residents of the town. Rivalry between the two teams mentioned above is no different that that which exists among the other four teams, namely, the Lutherans, Presbyterians, Baptist and St. James the Less.

St. Bridget's Alumni base ball team opened up the 1928 season by walloping the Meboys from the Falls M. E. church by the score of 20 to 6, in the first game of the Falls Church League.

Captain Alexander Peterson, a Congregational Medal of Honor man of the U. S. Navy and a member of the East Falls Church League, had placed the flag pole at Dobson's Stadium in shape and there was a grand flag raising with all the thrills of a big league affair. John Smithies, a former City councilman, Howard Berry, an All-American athlete, and Walter Costello, president of the league, were the speakers of the day with the ever-popular Thomas Denton acting as Master of Ceremonies.

Then came the march to the flag pole, with the Saints looking as spiffy as a troop of Beau Brummels in their new white uniforms. Mr. Costello threw out the first ball and the fight for the pennant was on. There was plenty of hitting with Stanley Smith, of the Meboys, and Wee Johnnie Brill of the Saints, each collecting a homer. Brill's came in the seventh inning with a man already on base. Markey played a whale of a game at third base for the Alumni, while Frankie Lees scintillated at second for the followers of John Wesley.

The Saints started off the year's battles with a hitting rampage of the highest order, with "Wild Man" J. Matthews leading with five clouts out of six trips to the pentagon. Clancy collected four bingles out of six journeys to the batter's box. "Proud Papa" Smith was the leading sticker for the Methodist boys. Umpires Golden and Allen handled the game with all the decorum that is exhibited at 21st and Lehigh avenue.

Manager Neilan certainly pulled a masterstroke when he signed little Johnny Brill and Charles Quinn. With the addition of these two stars, the Alumni team is already in championship form.

EAST FALLS CHURCH BASEBALL LEAGUE

East Falls Church League

On Tuesday evening of last week George Shaw's Lutheran team defeated Billy Muschamp's Episcopal nine from the Church of St. James the Less by the score of 3 to 0. The feature of the game was the hitting of R. Jones, of the Saints, who collected three bingles, and the pitching of the Lutheran's lanky twirler, Frazer. The score: St. James 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0 Lutheran 0 1 1 0 0 0 1 x—3

On Wednesday evening the Baptist contingent batted the ball all over Dobson's lot in their game with the Falls Presbyterian team. Harker of the Baptist outfit, started off the season by securing five hits out of five times at bat, for an average of 1000 for his first game. The score: Presbyterians 1 0 0 3 0 0—4 Baptist 4 4 5 3 2 2—20

Thursday evening saw the Lutheran and St. Bridget's teams battle to a five to five draw, which was called at the end of the eighth inning on account of darkness. Gar-side, the right fielder, of Shaw's team, had the misfortune to break his ankle in the battle which was full of thrills from the start to finish.

Additional prizes have been donated to the league by John E. Smithies, who will present the winning captain and manager with $10 each, and Howard Berry, the All-American athlete will award the most popular player with a 14 inch loving cup. The score: Lutheran 3 0 0 0 1 0 0 1—5 St. Bridget's 2 0 1 0 0 0 0 2—5

East Falls Church League

The Monday night game at Dobson's Field was lost on account of darkness. The St. James team of the East Falls Church League were better "Nightworkers" than their Baptist opponents and when they scored their last two markers in the final frame, it was just enough to place the game in the win column for Father Harriman's charges.

St. James 1 0 1 0 2 0 0—6

On Tuesday evening the Lutheran Lads trounced the Presbyterian Blue Stockings by the score of 8 to 5. It was the first inning which ruined things from a Presbyterian standpoint, for after that frame the Scotsmen rallied and put up a fine brand of diamondizing.

Twilight of Thursday evening saw the Baptist and Methodist nines fighting it out to a three to three tie. The Meboys had a couple of chances to pack the game away on ice, but the hidden force of the water-lovers held them, even Stephen, Waldron and Foley, two new men on the Baptist line-up, showed themselves to god advantage.

The Clan-na-Neilan toyed with the Episcopal ball tossers on Friday night, when Paddy's St. Bridget combination ran up a score of 12 to 1 on Billy Muschamp's St. James outfit.

Charles "Collegiam" Quinn had the team from the town's end swinging like gates, and for five innings only issued two hits. McIntyre, a new acquisition, made by Neilan made his debut, and looks like a ball player from the tip of his toes to the end of his hair. Little Johnny Brill played his usual bang-up game.

Lutherans Score Shutout

On Monday of last week George Shaw's Lutheran combination defeated Fisher's Baptist team by the score of 3 to 0. Harry Connolly, pitching for the Lutheran luminaries, held his opponents to eight very much scattered hits and did not allow any of them to cross the pentagon. George Shaw, the manager, himself was the receiver and aided the lanky twirler considerably.

Saints Outclass Presbyterians

Twilight of Tuesday saw Neilan's St. Bridget's boys lam the daylight out of the followers of McCleughan to the tune of 12 to 3. The Presbyterian lads were unable to solve the shoots of either Quinn or Caldwell, who were in the box for the Midvale Ave. ball-tossers. S. Calhoun, of McCleughan's outfit did manage to get two hits and two runs for his club, but his teammates left him flat. Gerald Marr, for the winners, also collected two hits and two runs.

Lutherans Win Playoff

The tie game which had been played between St. Bridget's and the Lutheran teams was played off on Wednesday night, with Redeemer boys emerging victorious. Ruby Grill, with his big stick, was a prominent factor in the battle, inasmuch as he collected three hits and one of the team's five runs. Bernard Matthews, of the Shawians, tagged the little apple for a couple of bingles, while Gerald Marr and Jim Matthews were the leading stickamiths for the Alumni team. Tom Connolly was on the mound for the Lutheran team and Charles Quinn threw them up for Paddy.

Baptists Lose, 8-2

Another tie game playoff was played on Saturday when the Methodists played their lower Queen lane opponents, the Falls Baptist, and handed them an 8-2 setback.

This time it was Frankie Lees, the old Dobson star, who shoosed the Fisherites away from the plate and believe you me he accomplished a fine job. Hits were scarcer than the proverbial hen's teeth. Al Homewood looks as if he had some intention of bettering his brother Jim's 1927 record for being the league's leading batter, judging from the way he has been slamming the little old pill all around the lot. In this game he collected three more bingles.

Presbyterians Lose Another

Billy Muschamp's St. James nine gave the Presbyterians another drubbing on Friday night with the figures reading 15 to 2. T. Kelly was the big hitsmith for the Episcopal players, while N. Calhoun and Starrett snared a couple of hits apiece for the Blue Stockings.

Meboys Shut Out Neilan's

The next regularly scheduled game took place on Thursday night and when darkness fell another surprise had been handed the populace, for the Methodist Meboys jolted Paddy Neilan's nine for their second straight defeat by the score of 12-0.

Babs Calhoun, twirling for the Meboys, handed the Alumni ball-tossers a beautiful coat of white-wash, which came to the fans in a totally unexpected manner. Seven carefully scattered hits were all the Neilanites could glean from Bab's superb pitching. Al Homewood garnered three clouts and Calhoun himself socked out a couple.

EAST FALLS LEAGUE

Lutherans Win Playoff

On Monday night of last week the Lutheran and Methodist teams played a 4 to 4 tie game, in an East Falls Church League game at Dobson Feld, Queen lane and Cresson street. The game was played off on Saturday with George Shaw's Lutheran Leaders handing Don MacKenzie's Meboys a lacing by the score of 13 to 8. Ruby Grill twirled a fine game for the Midvale avenue outfit on Saturday and although the Meboys collected fifteen bingles, the Big Railroader, kept the hits scattered out carefully.

Wierman and Wilcox, of the Wesleyites were the big noise with the bat, each adding four bingles to their batting averages.

Neillons Stop Comeback

Paddy Nellan's St. Bridget's Alumni team staged a comeback on Friday night and when the hostilities ended the scorebook showed that the Catholic lads had won the game by the score of 3 to 5, with the Baptist boys in the hole.

Fisher held St. Bridget's to eight hits, but Bill Quinn, who twirled for the Nellanites, was just a little more fortunate, for while the Fisherites collected twelve hits, they couldn't seem to get to the home plate.

Jones, catching for the Baptist team, slammed the old horse hide for three bingles.

Errors Beat Methodists

St. James' Episcopallans were just good enough on Thursday evening to tuck a 9 to 7 game into their win-bag, against Tomilson's Titans. Hess was on the hill for the Meboys and twirled a good game, but three errors contributed toward the defeat.

Reese, who did mound duty for Muschamp's Maulers, held the Queen lane hill-climbers down to six sparsely spaced hits, two of which were tagged by Wierman.

Next Week's Games

- June 8th—Baptist vs St. James.
- June 11th—St. James vs St. Bridget's.
- June 12th—Baptist vs Methodist.

Baptist Win 15-1

Tuesday evening's game was a runaway for the Baptist boys, when they met their Presbyterian opponents. The score of 15 to 1 shows what a lacing the Blue Stockings had administered to them. Tetrow, pitching for the Divers, climbed into the Hall of Fame by heaving a perfect game, the first no-hit contest which has been staged since the league was organized.

BURKE SECOND IN 1920

Pairings announced for the United States open golf championship that starts at Olympia Fields, near Chicago, today, reveal that by a curious coincidence two Philadelphia home-bred pros have been paired.

One of them is Bill Leach, competent tutor of the Overbrook Country Club, who led the recent Philadelphia district qualifying round for the United States open title fray, with 144, a record thirty-six-hole score for the Cricket Club's Flourtown course.

The other is Jack Burke, now located at Houston, Tex., who back in 1920 tied Harry Vardon, Leo Diegel and Jock Hutchinson for second place in the open, one stroke behind Edward Ray, of England, who scored 295 for seventy-two holes.

Burke, like Leach, was born in the Falls of Schuylkill. These two teed off at 8.40 this morning in Chicago.

Lutherans Lose One

On Thursday evening St. Bridget's defeated the Lutheran team by the score of 8 to 5, which is the first taste of dust the Shawians have received. Manager Nellan had Leadley on the hill and the old standby made a pretty good job of his assignment. Terry Marr collected three bingles for his part of the victory, while Tommy Connelly for the Redeemers also packed three hits away in his average bag. Connelly and Matthews are putting up a grand brand of base ball but Shaw must have nine men working if he hopes to cop the gonfaon.

Six Inning Tie

The game between the Baptist and St. James was a tie on Friday night. Razzberry Himself Jones, socked out a homer. The Queen lane contingent played an up-hill game, and had the winning run on second in the final frame but could not get the runner home. Tucker Kelly kept the Jimmylands in the running with three hits, but the Big Butter and Egg Man Lister almost ruined the game from AB

Neilans Shutout St. James

On Monday night, at Dobson Field, St. Bridget's beat St. James the less by the score of 1 to 0 in one of the best played games seen this season. Charlie Quinn only allowed five hits to be credited to his Episcopalian adversary. McDonald at second for the winners, Donald at second for the winners, had a busy evening of it accepting seven chances in the field and at bat wound up the game with two hits and a walk out of four trips to the batter's box. It was a tough break for Reese, who twirled for St. James, but Quinn had one of his unbeatable nights and Fate was against the Jimmys.

Meboys Win 13-5

On Tuesday night, Methodist had an easy time of it trimming the Baptist nine by the score of 13 to 5. Calhoun and Wierman had a big night with the willow, for the box score shows that each of them collected three bingles. Waldron, who was in the box for the Baptists went good until the third inning when the Big Stickers of the Meboys went in to work. The Baptist second baseman, Garrett, accepted nine chances without a flaw and socked out two hits out of three bats.

Methodists Lace Presbyterians

MacKenzie's Meboys went out on Wednesday evening and handed the Falls Presbyterian another defeat by the score of 21 to 4. It looked like the game that the Business Men's teams played last week at Silver Lake.

Babs Calhoun, the heaving ace of the Methodists, collected two doubles, a triple and two home runs in the contest. In addition he struck out 12 of his Presbyterian opponents. Homewood, the Mexican, also slammed the apple for a round trip. All told there were 40 hits made in the game, Methodist slugging out 29 and the Blue Stockings, who certainly deserve a medal for the punishment they take, getting 11.

Saints Lose to Meboys

After the boys had turned in their pay envelopes on Friday evening they marched to Dobson Field to see St. James take a lacing from the Queen Lane champions of the Falls Methodist Church by the score of 3 to 3.

The Downtowners were short two players and Al Homewood and Wilcox of the Meboys graciously lent their services to the enemy. Homewood immediately showed that he was in the game, for the game itself, by slamming out three hits of his Methodist teammate, Franking Pandus Lees, who was doing ground duty for the Wesleyites.

Friday Unlucky for Baptists
St. James smarting under their defeat on Friday night, went out on Saturday and carried home a 9 to 3 victory over the Falls Baptist.

The Muchamp'ons had very little trouble defeating the Divers although the hitting was pretty well evened up. Hemphill starred at the bat for the Episcopal team, by getting a double and two singles.

Paddy Neilan's Catholic nine took things easy on Monday night of last week, when they met Falls' Presbyterian and annexed another game by the score of 14 to 5.

Charley Quinn, playing third base for the Alumni players, was the Big Noise with the Louisville; for when the clouds of the conflict had subsided it was found that the wearer of the Collegian sweater had collected a single, two doubles and a triple out of the four opportunities given him.

The spectators were impressed with the scintillating work of the Big Cake Man, Bill MacFayden, who has been signed by the Blue Stockings. Willie Matthews has at last found his batting optic and came through with 3 bingles out of 5 trips to the pentagon.

Lutherans Cleanup 8-5

The Cameronians took another lacing on Wednesday night when George Shaw's Lutheran Luminaries won out by an 8-5 score. The Reading Railway's heavyweight fireman, Rube Grill was on the tee for the Midvale outfit and struck out 10 of his Presbyterian adversaries. Tommy Connolly's three wallops kept the Redeemers in the running otherwise there might have been a different story to tell. The Blue Stockings had George the First worried all through the contest, but fell a little short with the stick.

One to Play Over

Falls Baptist and St. Bridget's played to a six to six standstill on Friday evening, and will have to play another game on Thursday night of this week to reach a final decision.

When the final inning started it looked as though the Neilanites were about to taste defeat, but Gerry Marr pulled them out of a hole. In this frame he received a free ticket to first, and kept right on going to second when Kirkpatrick let the final ball get past the catcher's box. When the Baptist were trying to catch the speedy Alumnus napping on his way to third, Lavery the Queen Lane shortstop heaved the globule into the stands permitting Marr to score the tying run.

A "75" WOULD HAVE MADE LEACH CHAMP

Made Best Showing of Any Local Golf "Pro" Since
Jim Barnes

TOO MUCH TEACHING

In finishing in a tie for sixth place in the national open golf tourney at Chicago on Saturday Bill Leach, of East Falls, who is pro at the Overbrook Golf Club, made a better showing than any Philadelphia entry has been capable of since Jim Barnes, then of Whitemarsh, was third and Wilfred Reid, then of Seaview, was fourth.

The pros of this district play good golf, but they are kept so busy teaching, seeing their shop is run properly and looking after other details of their job that they lack the time to polish up their game to the machine-like consistency necessary to wade through such a field as the open championship attracts.

A lot of the New York and Mid-Western pros do nothing but play golf the year round. They are not supposed to anything else by their clubs. Jim Barnes got away with it on much the same lines while at Whitemarsh and that was the principal reason his services were dispensed with by the Chestnut Hill club. Jack McDermott, while at the Country Club of Atlantic City, was also given a free rein in the matter of tournament play.

The Whitemarsh members wanted a pro they could get hold of for a lesson or a bit of advice once in a while, so they finally rebelled and Barnes was let out. And the members of virtually every club in the Philadelphia district feel the same way. So for a local pro to finish in the first ten and to be only two strokes back of the redoubtable Bobby Jones at the end of fifty-four holes, with a fine chance to win the crown, means a lot more than if Joe Turnesa, for instance, had turned the same trick.

It's too bad the breaks went against Leach on the last round and that his total mounted to 80 after he had gone so well in the early rounds. He started with a 72 on Thursday to lead the field for a while and wind up in a tie for third place at the end of the first eighteen holes. His 74 on Friday kept him close to the top and his 73 on Saturday morning started him on the final lap only two strokes back of Bobby Jones. A 75 Saturday afternoon would have permitted the East Falls lad to tie Jones and Farrell; a 74 would have won the coveted title.

ADMIT NEW TEAM IN FALLS LEAGUE

Church of the Good Shepherd to be Represented in Second Half

GOVERNORS IN SESSION

A meeting of the officers and members of the East Falls Church League took place on Tuesday evening at the Young Men's Association Gymnasium, on Queen lane, with Walter A. Costello, the League's president, in the chair.

Plans concerning the activities of the second half of the schedule were discussed and several rules adopted. Managers of the several teams are now privileged to sign up new players, for the final half, until July 5th, when all lists must be filed with the secretary of the organization, Charles "Modest" Foley. However, the players who are signed must act in accordance with all previous rulings of the league. A player who has been once placed under contract on any of the various teams, will be assigned to the team with the lowest average. If the low team does not care to sign the former player, then his services are offered to the next highest team.

American League rules were adopted as being the standard of the East Falls Church League and the staff of umpires will conduct all games according to these rules.

It was moved and seconded to admit a new team, from the Church of the Good Shepherd into the circuit, and starting with the new half a team representing the Queen Lane Manor congregation will be seen in action. Carl Happ acted as the temporary manager of the Galloping Herd, and will more than likely retain the position, at least until the end of the current season.

A meeting of the Board of Governors followed the regular session, with Lyman Harker, officiating. Those present included James McHale, William B. McFarland, Willard Hess, Thomas Denton, Arthur Warrington, P. J. Kelley, Walter A. Costello and Charles Foley.

ERNIE RIEDEL STARS AT FALLS REGATTA WITH FOUR VICTORIES

"AL" VOGT WINS SINGLES CROWN

Miss Ivy Allen Features in Fancy Diving Contest

PENN A. C. WINS EIGHTS

Despite a glowering sky, more than 5000 spectators turned out on Saturday afternoon to witness the series of stirring races of oarsmen, canoeists and swimmers, and were treated to a big afternoon of aquatic competition, which had been arranged by the East Falls Business Men's Association, in conjunction with the A. A. U., the M. S. C. R. A. and the N. A. A. O. with the assistance of the Schuylkill Navy.

Saturday's affair was the Fourth Annual Regatta given by the local business men and was held on the Up-River course, off the foot of Midvale avenue. The proceeds will be donated to the fund for the erection of the Greater Women's Medical College and Hospital which is to be located in East Falls.

The Bugle and Drum Corps of St. Bridget's Naval Battalion, led by William O'Donnell, marched around East Falls prior to the races and then were provided with seats at the finish line, where they keep things lively with martial airs. When McIlvaine and Costello won out in the doubles, the boys with more vigor than ever, by means of their instruments let the world know that it was a sure-enough East Falls victory.

Canoeists for the Pendleton Canoe Club of New York, captured all of the canoe events with the exception of the tilt, which went to Philadelphia Canoe Club, of Wissahickon.

Ernie Riedel, the world's one man single blade champion, added more glory to his name by a long series of stirring triumphs. The canoe races drew the largest field of entries in the history of the East Falls Regatta, for in addition to the Philadelphia Canoe Club, representatives of the Cacawa Club, the Brooklyn Y. M. A. and the Pendleton Canoe Club were on the river.

Al Vogt had little trouble in beating out Hoover, and if the holder of the same name doesn't show up any better in the Presidential race in November, our new executive's name will rhyme with "Myth." Vogt won with a length to spare.

Tom Clark, of Undine, just barely nosed out Charles Coulston of his own club, in the 145-pound singles, winning by less than half a length in a spirited finish.

Ken Myers, the Bachelors Barge star, although entered, did not row, but followed the races in one of the official's boats. For some reason or another none of the Bachelors were entered in this year's contests.

Pennsylvania Barge came in first in the senior four oared shells with Coxswain Smith yelling for more speed. Paul V. Costello was applauded vociferously when he and Charley McIlvaine, a pair of East Falls' own boys, captured the senior doubles by more than two lengths from the Clark twins, of Undine, with Hoover and Coulston finishing third.

Penn A. C. oarsmen carried home their third trophy from a Hoover-stroked Undine crew in the senior quads. McIlvaine and Costello were also in this boat. Chester Turner stroked the four and then came back in the final race, that of the eights, and again brought the Pennas outfit over the finish line first.

The outstanding star of the day, however, was not an oarsman or a fancy diver, this glory going to Ernie Riedel, the canoeist, who paddled in every race in which the Pendleton crews were entered. He twice won in the singles, winning both the singles and double blades events and stroked the double blades and singles blades in the fours. His exhibition was remarkable and he well deserved the applause which was given him on every appearance.

In the fancy diving events, "Joe" Hackney, of the Atlantic City Swimming Club, who was easily identified in his light blue bathing suit, was given a rousing burst of handclaps every time he performed. The judges were unanimous in handing the Seaside diver the first prize. Keasling of the Penn A. C., came in first in the 100 yard swim for men and Miss Violet Page, of the "Turners" came in first in the women's 100 yard. Ludwig, of "The Turners" easily captured the 50 yard event and Ivy Allen, a club-mate, carried home the trophy for the 50 yard women's race.

Miss Allen turned out to be a double winner when she captured the fancy dive for women.

In the local swimming and diving events the field was small but the competition was keen. Thomas Jennings, who won the 50 yard swimming race in 1926, came back and once more won the same contest, with Francis Hickey, second, and Julian Yahn, third.

In the local fancy dive, Francis Hickey was the winner, with Ed. Robinson and Robert Adams, Jr., giving him a close run for his money. Connolly, the only other entrant, gave a good exhibition in his optional dives, but was outclassed by the first three in the compulsory actions.

The summary of the events was as follows:

On account of the Methodists forfeiting to Lutheran on Friday night of last week, a tie for the first half of the schedule resulted with Lutheran and St. Bridget's being the leaders.

This will necessitate a play-off game which will take place Friday evening.

On Monday night George Shaw's Lutheran team was unable to beat Falls Methodist and the game resulted in a tie. It was a hard fought game from the beginning to end and when the Meboys deadlocked things in the final frame it threw the league into a tie for the first half. The Homewood who is named after a republic south of the Rio Grande, came through with a high fly to left and Dooner the Lutheran "Coolidge" failed to see the ball until Jenkie had crossed the plate with the tying marker.

On Tuesday evening the game was a nightmare for Courageous McClenaghan's Clansmen, from the Falls Presbyterian church. Bill Muschamp's St. James' ball heavers trampled the Blue Stockings for a 26 to 0 score.

Everyone on the Episcopal team fattened their batting averages at the expense of the tailenders.

Falls Baptist came out at the long end of a 10 to 6 score against Shaw's Lutheran nine on Wednesday evening. Up until the eighth inning the Midvale avenue outfit had an easy time of it, when like a clap of thunder from a clear sky, the Baptists lammed the ball all over the stadium for seven runs. Rube Grill, heaved more base balls on Wednesday night than the number of coals which are shoveled into the maw of one of the Reading's moguls, but it was to no avail, when the bats of the Queen lane larrupers started playing their tattoo. It was the first set back for the big firemen. Tetrow, the Baptist moundsman had a good night of it, holding his opponents to 9 well-scattered hits.

Thursday night saw the St. Bridget's ball club climb into a tie for first place when they defeated the Baptists. The final digits which appeared on the scoreboard were 10 and 3, with the Alumni team's name in front of the 10. The garrison finish of the night before against the Lutheran, was too much for the Queen Jane nine, and Paddy's cohorts did not even have to extend themselves.

The feature of the game was Gerry Marr's one-handed running catch out in deep left center Tetrow, Fisher and Waldron, in turn tried to stop the avalanche of base hits but were unable to do anything with the Catholic team who were out there fighting every minute.

EAST FALLS CHURCH BASEBALL LEAGUE

FINAL STATISTICS OF FIRST HALF

Winning team: Lutheran Church of the Redeemer: 9 wins 2 losses.
Leading Batter: James Matthews, St. Bridget's, .590.
Leading Pitcher: Ruby Grill, Lutheran, 1.000.
Leading Home Run hitter, "Babs" Calhoun, Methodist, 2.
Stolen Bases for June: Lavery, Baptist, 4; Martin, Lutheran, 4; MacKenzie, Methodist, 4.
Extra basehits for June, Bernard Matthews, Lutheran, 8 doubles.
Most runs for June: Milton Lister, St. James, 9; "Babs" Calhoun, 9.
Home runs for June: "Babs" Calhoun, Methodist, 2; James Homewood, Methodist, 1; R. Jones, St. James, 1.

The second half games were started on Monday night of last week, and when St. Bridget's forfeited the first game to Falls Methodist. In an argument with Umpire Golden, two of the Alumni players were ordered from the field, and as the league rules call for nine uniformed players to be on the field, on each team, the Nellanites were unable to continue the game. At a meeting held later by the Board of Governors, the umpire's decision was sustained.

Walter Jenkinson has been selected to manage the Falls Methodist team for the final half of the schedule.

On Tuesday night, St. James knocked off the First Half winners, Shaw's Lutherans, by the score of 7 to 2. The Redeemer boys did not look so good and perhaps it was because they were anticipating a good time on Fourth of July. The Episcopal lads got the jump on Pitcher Frazer in the first inning and scored two runs. Hemphill, twirling for St. James, was out for revenge because he had been bested in a pitcher's battle with Frazer in the first half. Hemp held the Midvale avenue team to six scattered hits, three of which were collected by Grill.

TO COMPETE AT AMSTERDAM

Paul V. Costello, of East Falls, will make his third straight Olympic trip when he goes to Amsterdam this month. This was assured on Saturday when paired with Charles McIlvaine, the Penn A. C. double sculls crew, beat Walter M. Hoover and Charles Coulston, of Undine, by almost a length in 6 minutes 14 2-5 seconds. W. E. Garrett Gilmore and Emanuel J. McGreal, of the Bachelors, national and Canadian champions, were last.

Costello and his cousin, Jack Kelly won the Olympic doubles crowns in 1920 and 1924. Kelly is now retired.

The Penn A. C. crew, although starting on the west side of the river, finished on the east side and within 10 feet of hitting the judges' stand. Gilmore and McGreal were a disappointment, while Hoover and Coulston gave the Penn A. C. a keen chase all the way. Paul and his new sculling partner started to show their stuff in the East Falls and July Fourth regattas.

The time was as follows: Double sculls—Won by Penn A. C., (Charles McIlvaine, bow, Paul V. Costello); second, Undine Barge Club, (Charles W. Coulston, bow; Walter M. Hoover); third, Bachelor's Barge Club, Philadelphia, (Emanuel J. McCreal, bow W. E. Garrett Gilmore). Time 6:14 2-5.

OLYMPIC BLADESMEN GET GREAT SEND-OFF

THOUSANDS CHEER AS ROWERS DEPART

Costello and McIlvaine Banqueted by Falls Business Men

ESCORTED TO STATION

With the cheers and good wishes of their fellow-townpeople ringing in their ears, Paul Costello and Charles McIlvaine, left East Falls on Tuesday night for New York, on their way to the Olympic Games at Amsterdam.

The two youths who have made rowing history, earned the right to represent the United States in the double sculls events which will take place in the Land of the Dikes, between August 2 and 11, by defeating the best of the American entries in the try-outs, which ended on the Schuylkill river last Saturday.

A "Good Luck" dinner which was hastily arranged by the East Falls Business Men's Association, was held on Tuesday evening at the Cafe La Riviere, on the East River Drive above M. Dale avenue. W. Fred Ford acted as toastmaster at the affair, which was attended by about 100 representative people of the neighborhood.

Short addresses were made by William B. McFarland, president of the Business Men's Association, William J. Benham, of the Board of Revision of Taxes, P. H. Kelly, who was introduced, as "the inspiration of all the famous Kellys"; Thomas Gavaghan, Walter Wells, a former Olympic track star, John B. (Jack) Kelly, the Olympic champion of 1928 and 1924, Paul Costello, who with Kelly twice won the world's crown in the doubles, Charles McIlvaine, the "Bon Bon's" new rowing partner and Dr. Bernard B. Klebanoff.

Each of the speakers lauded the East Falls oarsmen and uttered their fervent wishes for the pair's return from Europe as the 1928 World's Champions. Tributes to the sportmanship and manhood of the youths were interspersed among the words of cheer in all of the addresses. The toastmaster congratulated Mrs. Charles McIlvaine, Sr., on being the mother of so fine a son and stated that the parents of such a lad have just reason to exhibit the pride that they feel in him.

Jack Kelly, who did not phrase it, had a wistful tone in his voice as he told of the efforts of Costello and McIlvaine, but one could sense that he would like to be going over for a third shot at the crown himself. He was loud in his praise of Costello and cited several experiences which he and Paul had gone through in the various races in which they had rowed in the same boat. Kelly's fatherly attitude was displayed when he turned to McIlvaine and said, "You're not used to Olympics, yet, but there are three flag staffs in front of the judges stand, and the national emblem of the winner is hauled up the taller of the poles when he crosses the line, while thousands of foreigners stand and cheer—You'll forget all the long months of training and discouragement, when you see the Old Stars and Stripes going up that pole and the band strikes up the Star Spangled Banner, as you cross the line and all I have to say is that—you'll have goose-pimples for two days."

Each of the aspirants for rowing honors made brief speeches, that of Paul Costello's being particularly touching. This former winner was silent and thoughtful all through the evening, deeply moved by the affectionate and whole-hearted demonstration. When he spoke, it was hesitatingly and on one occasion almost broke down as he attempted to express his appreciation, and told his friends of his determination to bring home another championship, before hanging up his oars forever.

The dinner was concluded by the singing of the Star Spangled Banner and then the oarsmen came out to greet the thousands who had crowded around the Cafe Riviere, patiently waiting for a chance to see their heroes.

Ridge avenue from the inn down to Allegheny avenue was jammed with people from all walks of life, old people, their children and their grandchildren, all endeavoring to catch a glimpse of the boys who are being looked to, to "bring home the bacon" to East Falls, as Kelly and Costello in previous years have done.

Behind a motor-cycle escort, St.

Bridget's Naval Battalion Band led the long procession of motor cars down Ridge avenue over Allegheny avenue and down Broad street to the Pennsylvania Railroad's North Philadelphia station, where Costello and McIlvaine boarded the 10:14 p. m. train for New York, so that they might sail on the S. S. Roosevelt which left for Europe, yesterday noon.

With the band a' playing and auto horns a'tooting the long cavalcade drew the people to the curb along the entire route. Twenty five minutes were spent at the station, waiting for the train, and all the time the musicians continued with unabated zeal.

On arriving at the station, every one seemed to want to be the baggage carriers, and several ardent fans grabbed the oarsmen's suitcases and trunks and insisted on seeing that the luggage was safely stowed aboard the train.

Community pride for two of its citizens, such as was exhibited on Tuesday evening has not been witnessed in East Falls since the day when Kelly and Costello returned from Antwerp as champions in 1920.

For ten minutes previous to the arrival of the New York express the two youths were busy shaking hands of friends and well wishers and kissing their feminine relatives good by.

When the two Falls lads sit in their boat on the starting line on the Canal, in Amsterdam, they are going to recall the rousing send-off they received from their townspeople and should they win—well, one can imagine the cries of an admiring East Falls populace will be heard throughout the entire county.

LOCAL BLADESMEN GET ROYAL SEND-OFF

Friends and Admirers Dine McIlvaine and Costello on Eve of Departure

IF WORDS of encouragement go a long way toward lightening the burden, then the trip across the sea to be taken by Paul Costello and Charles McIlvaine, American double sculls team, should be a success. Fully one hundred rowing enthusiasts, friends of the two men, last night dined them at the Cafe a Riviera and then gave them a royal send-off to New York, where they embark today to the scene of the Olympic games.

W. Fred Ford acted as toastmaster during the activities, a real East Falls section rally. William McFarland, of the East Falls Business Mens' Association, William Benham, H. Kelly, Thomas Galatin, and Dr. Kalebano were the speakers of the evening.

Jack Kelly, cousin of Costello and a former champion himself, delivered a snappy address. The two scullers, of course, were called upon to speak.

It was a rousing send-off which was given the two men as they left the dining place. They were escorted to the North Philadelphia station by a crowd which appeared to include all of East Falls.

East Falls Sees 2 Oarsmen Leave

Costello and McIlvaine Given Big Sendoff by Friends.

All East Falls turned out last night to honor its two heroes, Paul Costello and Charlie McIlvaine, Olympic oarsmen, who will carry the American eagle to Amsterdam this summer. The two boys left last night from the North Philadelphia station for New York, to sail on the President Roosevelt this afternoon with their teammates, after a testimonial dinner at the Cafe La Riviere given by their fellow townspeople. The street outside the banquet hall was crowded as the athletes came out, and a parade three blocks long accompanied them to the station, the bugle corps of St. Bridget's Naval Battalion leading the procession.

At the dinner every one seemed to feel the tension of leave-taking. Young Charley McIlvaine, on the eve of departure on his first trip across as an Olympic contender, was flushed with the adulation of his friends, but not jubilant. Paul Costello, twice winner of Olympic championships, was silent and thoughtful, deeply moved by the affectionate and whole-hearted demonstration. He spoke in a hesitating voice, and on one occasion very nearly broke down as he tried to express his appreciation, and told his friends of his determination to bring home another championship before hanging up his oars forever.

Jack Kelly, elder of both, acted in a fatherly capacity as he bade them farewell. "You're not used to Olympics yet," he told young McIlvaine, "but there are three flag poles at the end of the course, and the flag of the winner starts up the large one in the center when he crosses the line. When you see the Stars and Stripes flutter up that pole, while thousands from every nation stand and cheer—well, you'll forget all about those long months of practice and discouragement. When you know that you were the one who sent that flag up, and made those men from foreign countries pay tribute to your nation, you'll know what it means to be a member of an American Olympic team."

Paul Costello and Charlie McIlvaine were both born and raised in East Falls, and East Falls turned out last night to honor them, with perhaps as great a demonstration it would accord even to the President of the United States.

LUTHERANS WIN 1ST HALF LEAGUE TITLE

Defeat St. Bridget's, 8 to 3, In Play-off Game Last Friday

POWERS GETS FOUR HITS

Despite an unusually rainy season, the first half of the East Falls Church League schedule was completed on Friday night, and true to the prophecy that history repeats itself, George Shaw's Lutheran team from the Church of the Redeemer, emerged the winner again. This same thing happened last year, but Shaw's team found them going a little rougher than they experienced in 1927, for St. Bridget's Alumni nine battled them right down to the stretch at the finish.

Both teams wound up the regularly scheduled games in a tie for first place and the game of Friday night was arranged to decide the winner.

In opening the first Inning Gerald Marr singled to left, and immediately swiped second. McDonald hit to the pitcher who threw to third retiring Marr. Clancy singled, McDonald holding second. Buzzer Mathews, the Lutheran receiver caught McDonald trying to emulate Marr's feat of purloining. Jimmy Mathews, Buzzer's brother, who prances at first for the Neitanites, hit one down to Rube Grill at first, but the big fireman bobbled it long enough for the redhead to reach the initial sack safely. Willie, another of the Mathews clan, hit one to Martin, at third, who stepped on the bag, forcing Clancy for the third out. 2 hits, no runs.

Deoner, the Lutheran Coolidge, skied one to first. Buzzer Mathews walked, then promptly stole second and third; Grill singled, which sent the Buzzer home with the first run. Harry Connolly hit one safely to left, Grill taking third. Connolly proceeded to second. Powers responded with a hit which permitted Grill and Connolly to bring home the bacon. Martin sent Powers home with the fourth run of the inning when he singled. Tom Connolly flew out to first, and Munaw breezed. Four hits, one base on balls, four runs.

Second Inning, Martin threw out Markey. Pickersgill whiffed, and Martin made the third out on McAniffe, by getting the ball to first before the speedy catcher arrived there. No hits, no runs.

Montgomery, the Lutheran ace was fanned by Leadley his pitching opponent. The Catholic twirler threw out Dooner. Bernard Matthews singled to left center. Grill was safe when Jimmy Matthews dropped Willie Matthews throw Jerry Marr wound up the inning by making a brilliant catch of Harry Connolly's long fly to left. One hit, no runs.

Third Inning.
Harry Connolly ran back of second base to catch Leadley's fly. Marr doubled to left, and then pilfered third. When McDonald singled the fleet outgardner came home, with the Saints' first run. Clancy placed a one-base knock in center, but McDonald could not advance. Jimmy Matthews slammed one to Harry Connolly, who in his haste to make a double play, made a bad throw to his brother Tom, who ran over to cover second. McDonald was caught at the plate trying to score, Tom Connolly to Buzzer Matthews. Bill Matthews was thrown out, Martin to Grill. Three hits, 1 run.

For the Lutherans, Powers collected his second hit to left. Martin hit one in front of the plate and Leadley chose to throw to second forcing Powers. Tom Connolly, a force play on Martin. Bill Matthews to McDonald. Tommy stole second, but Munaw ended the inning by whiffing. One hit, no runs.

Fourth Inning.
Markey beat out a hit to third, where Martin made a fine stop, but made a slow throw to third. Charley Quinn ran for Markey. Pickersgill swung like a gate, again McAniffe hit into a double play Harry Connolly to the Rube. One hit, no runs.

Montgomery ozoned. Silent Dooner singled to left and then stole second. Bernard Matthews hoisted a fly to left field, Dooner holding second. Grill flied out to McDonald. One hit, no runs.

Fifth Inning.
Gerald Marr pedominated and went to third on McDonald's single to left. McDonald strolled leisurely to second. Clancy drove a hot grounder to Martin, but his throw to first pulled the coal heaver off the bag, leaving everyone safe. Meanwhile Marr scored. On Wally Matthews hit to third, Martin threw to the home plate, forcing McDonald, and when a double play was attempted Grill dropped the ball, which permitted Clancy to score what proved to be St. Bridget's final tally. Markey flew out to Dooner in left. 3 hits, 2 runs.

In the Lutheran half, Harry Connolly flied to Shortstop Matthews. Powers tagged his third hit of the game. Martin forced the crimson haired one at second. McDonald threw to Bill Matthews. Tom Connolly tapped one to Booby who threw him out at first. One hit, no runs.

Sixth Inning.

Charley Quinn slammed one down the third base line, but Martin threw him out. This was a switch in the lineup for the former Roxborough player had batted in place of Pickersgill. Martin killed McAniffe. Leadley skied to Powers in center. No hits, no runs.

Munaw, Montgomery and Dooner were unable to do anything with Leadley's shoots in the Lutheran half of the inning. No hits, no runs.

Seventh Inning.
Dooner, in left field for the Shawians put the side out in this frame, successively catching flies from the bats of Marr, McDonald and Clancy.

And then came the big inning for the Redeemer lads. Bernard Matthews opened the festivities by singling to center and stole second in time for Rube Grill to score him with a single. Harry Connolly singled, the fireman going to third. Connolly ambled peacefully to second on the next pitch. Powers scored both runners with his fourth straight hit and that put the finishing touches to Leadley who retired from further activity. Charles "Baseball Himself" Quinn took up the mound duty. He had been playing right field since the previous inning and when he came to the pitching tee it was necessary to place Jim Marr in right. Martin was the first to face Quinnie, and he lined the ball right back at the heaver, who threw the ball over Jim Matthew's head, Powers going to third and Martin to second. Tom Connolly singled to center scoring Powers. Clancy's speedy return retired Martin at the plate. Munaw was called out for attempting to bunt the third strike and Montgomery watched three good ones go by. Five hits, four runs.

Eighth Inning.
Jimmy Matthews socked the first pitched ball to short center and it would have been a hit in any man's league, but Powers with superhuman effort raced in for the ball and while on a dead run caught it at his knees. It was one of the finest catches made on Dobson Field this season. Bill Matthews singled, but the hit was squandered when Markey hit into a double killing, Harry Connolly to Grill. One hit, no runs.

Lutheran could do nothing with

Quinn on their final turn at the plate. The tall twirler personally threw out Dooner. The Buzzer flew to left. Bill Matthews ran over into foul territory to catch Grill's fly. No hits, no runs.

Ninth Inning.

Charley Quinn singled through the box, but was stranded when McAniffe lined to Harry Connolly. Jim Marr skyrocketed to Martin and Gerald Marr lifted one to Tom Connolly for the final out, and the death-knell of Paddy Neelan's hope of winning the first half.

EAST FALLS CHURCH BASEBALL LEAGUE

On Wednesday evening, St. James forfeited to Falls Presbyterian. This was due to the fact that a full team had not reported at 6:30 when all the league games are scheduled to start.

On Thursday evening Good Shepherd again went down to defeat, this time by a 7 to 2 slap in the face from Falls Baptist. Sammy Morehead is again back in the harness at the helm of the Water-lovers. The rain curtailed the encounter in the fifth inning.

The second half of the East Falls Church League schedule was launched last week. Monday evening St. Bridget's had little trouble in defeating the new team from the Church of the Good Shephard, by the score of 13 to 3. Carl Happ's Oak Road outfit looked very bad as far as the outfield was concerned and the pitching was not quite what it should have been, but with a little practice, the fans expect to see the Galloping Herd giving the other teams a chase for the gonfalon.

Clancy, the fleet outgardner of the Saints, had a full evening for out of four times at the plate, he received a walk and collected two doubles and a single.

Herd and Meboys Play Tie

The Galloping Herd from Queen Lane Manor pulled a big surprise, last Monday night, when they played Jenkinson's Meboys to an 8-8 standstill. The game looked as though it was going to be another win for Farmer Hess, until the final frame when the Herd stampeded and hung up five runs. Bucky Adams, East Falls versatile athlete, starred at second base for the Meboys, where he filled Frankius Lees' place. Lees was absent for the evening. Moyer, the relief hurler for the Ninety and Nine, showed up to good advantage, and held his adversaries to two runs in the three innings which he twirled.

Neilans Shutout Baptists

St. Bridgets whitewashed the Baptists on Tuesday evening with the figures reading 8 to 0. Bill Quinn heaved a masterful game, for the Queen Lane worshippers only collected four bingles. Gerry Marr and Jimmy Mathews were hitting factors, as the former collected three singles and a triple, while the latter had two singles and a double. McIntyre threw them up for Baptist, and Harker played a whale of a game at short for the same outfit.

St. James Wins 9 to 3

Husky Hemphill took things easy on Wednesday evening, when St. James walloped Good Shepherd in a nine to three tilt. The Muttoneers didn't have a half a chance, although they outhit their Episcopalian opponents. Moyer had a busy night, and he looks better in every game that he plays. Bowers, the Herd's pitcher, tagged the ball for four straight hits, and Kelley, of the Jimmys, added three bingles to his hit column. Butter and Eggs Lister also socked the apple for three singles.

Presbyterians Lose 22-0

Presbyterian took a Heeny on Thursday night, with St. Bridget's in the Tunney role. The score read 22 to 0 when the Klieg lights went out. Bill Quinn's brother, Charlie, was on the mound and issued but six scattered hits to the Courageous Crew from the Pump, and admitted them to swing like a gate 10 times. Gerry Marr is fast becoming a batting demon, for he ran his consecutive hitting spree up to six clouts. Four in the Baptist game and the first two times in this Presbyterian contest. Jimmy Mathews is running him a close second and also had six straight hits. Another Mathews was added to the Saints line-up when Ray made his initial appearance in this game. He made his batting debut by socking a double.

DOUBLE-HEADERS IN EAST FALLS LEAGUE

In order to complete the schedule of games before the summer has waned, the East Falls Church League will stage double headers on Saturday afternoons at 1.30 p. m.

Saturday's games will be between Methodist and Good Shepherd and Baptist and St. James.

Previous to sailing for Europe on Saturday of last week John L. Smithers mailed the league officials a check for $20 to be divided between the captain and manager of the pennant winning team.

Tunney Wins Fight "Sick" Goes Crabbing

The working hours of a newspaper man extend from the moment he opens his eyes in the morning until he closes them at night. No matter where he is or what he is doing he is always keenly on the alert for "copy" for the next issue. There are times that even in his sleep he dreams things which get into print.

Apparently such was a recent experience of our "Sick," or as he is known to the public John M. Sickinger, of Manayunk, who writes of the doings in that vicinity, for last week he had a had dream in which he figured Tunney was going to be Heenevized.

Subsequent events proved that it was only a nightmare that our sports expert had, and the unmerciful razzing we gave him made Sick decide to do a little crabbing, so on Tuesday of this week the Manayunk correspondent hid himself off to the Atlantic ocean to see if he could catch some of the hard shelled back steppers, so that he might study their methods.

Editor's Note:—The above was written by A. C. Chadwick, poet laureate of the Wissahickon, and sometimes known as "Scaff," who perambulates the shores of the Schuylkill.

He rather stole our thunder on that crabbing episode. "Sick" really did go crabbing—just when we thought it was all over.

When "Sick" had the temerity to forecast the result of the Tunney-Heenev fight in last week's issue we promised ourselves, the public, and Mr. Sickinger, that we wouldn't print his alibi if he wrote any, for the reader may recall that he needed one for his last attempt at television, when he picked Dempsey, "Sick" double-crossed us and didn't write any, but just muttered something about "never buying a pencil without a rubber on it."

A sports writer who has the ability to pick 'em in advance, can't afford to laugh it off that way. His job is too responsible, and commands too high wages to permit such flagrant errors as "Sick" has made on Mr. Tunney's last two battles. We figure that "Sick" owes a refund of seventeen cents out of his last week's pay.

Next thing you know "Sick" will be picking the Yankees to win the pennant.

"HAS-BEENS" BATTLE "WOULD-BE'S" TO TIE

There was a time when Williard Hess managed a group of baseball players known as the East Falls A. On Wednesday night of last week he gathered together a nine composed of the Married men of the Falls M. E. church to give battle to the single men of the same church, and the Has-Beens played the Would-Be's to a 5 to 5 standstill.

One feature of the game was the pitching of Williard Hess for one inning, but he soon found out he was making no fruit salad, and Walter Lees replaced him on the mound. Three old-timers, Harry Clayton, "Bill" Clayton and Billy Teap each snared a pair of singles.

George Walker, who umpired, was requested on numerous occasions to "get a pair of specs" and finally acceded to the players demands, after which he was enabled to see the many curves which were being thrown by the twirlers.

The lineup was as follows:

Has-Beens	Would-Be's
Dauck	R. Clayton
W. Lees	M. Calhoun
T. Clayton	H. Hall
W. Heap	Hodge
W. Hess	Brosius
H. Clayton	Davis
S. Briggs	Eastburn
H. Webster	Tilsley
W. Clayton	Hutchinson

doubles races when paired with Paul. The former singles champion stated that Costello was the real power in the shell and that he, himself, never had to extend himself.

Last Friday, eight years older, a bit more grizzled, but just as valiant as ever the same Paul Costello sat in another Philadelphia shell and went over the finish line at Amsterdam in the double shells trial heat against Switzerland.

The "Bon Bon" was paired with Charley McIlvaine, another lad who was born and bred in East Falls; as popular a youth as ever climbed its hillside streets; and together they pulled and tugged over the line five lengths ahead of their vodeling opponents.

On Monday of this week, the pair set a new course record in winning their second trial heat, this time against the Austrians. In winning in the new record time of 6 minutes 48 and 2-5 seconds, the Schuylkillites left the Central European oarsmen three lengths behind, after 2000 meters of well-timed effort.

In next week's edition we hope to announce that there will be a huge dinner and parade in East Falls, when Cos and Mac arrive home.

East Falls Business Men,
Wm. B. McFarland, president

Paul and I take great pleasure in thanking you for the wonderful sendoff you gave us on July 10.

With a home town rooting for us like you are, we will have an instilled spirit that will help us in our battle to bring the World's Championship to East Falls for the third time.

Away back in 1920, a quiet, unassuming youth from East Falls pulled an oar to an Olympic victory in a pair-oared boat on European waters. His name was Paul Costello and the mate who sat in the other sliding seat was none other than the famous Jack Kelly, the first American who ever rowed to an Olympic victory in the history of the quadrennial games.

Arthur Warrington, the statistical hound of the East Falls Church League decided to spend a vacation at Wildwood, and although he left instructions for the Times to get the box scores of the various games played last week, there was some mix-up and none showed up except those of the double header on Saturday.

In the first game on that day, Methodist wallop the nine from the Church of the Good Shepherd by the score of 11 to 1. Hard hitting, as usual featured the game. Hess's pitching was also a highlight, he allowing his opponents but two measly bingles.

Tetrow twirling for Moorhead's Baptists whitewashed Billy Muschamp's St. James outfit in the second embroglio, with the figure reading 4 to 0. The game was remarkable for the fact that no errors were made by any of the eighteen players. Tetrow held the Clearfield street clan to five well-scattered clouts, which accounts for the goose eggs. Waldron, the Baptist hot corner man, tagged the globule for a quartette of bingles. The contest permitted the league race to become a battle between the Queen Lane contingents, for the Baptist and Methodist are new tied for first place.

SPORTSMANSHIP

"By MUDDY"

When two teams meet in combat, naturally there exists a desire to down each other, no matter what the sport may be. They say this desire to be king is what makes the athlete. Though we must admit that this is true still I have seen an exception to the life-long rule and the desire to win was thrown to the winds that the greatest athletic king of all "sportsmanship" might enter.

Here is an example:

It all happened in the Methodist-St. Bridget's game of the East Falls Church League on Friday last. A great crowd was present to see the two teams play, for no matter how bad they might be, other times they are at their best when playing each other. Rivalry causes these two teams to battle hard and this is what the fans like.

The game from the start was nip and tuck. Methodist, hitting hard, had piled up four runs against two for St. Bridget's by the end of the fourth inning. Coming into bat in the fifth with a maddened desire to make it even, the Alumni players lined up for bats. Gerry Marr, a crack player in fielding, hitting and base-running, and an all around athlete, was hit by a fast inside ball right on the left side of his head. Down he went with a thud and with him went his team's fighting spirit.

He was rushed to a doctor and within ten minutes was back in the dug-out. But alas, American League rules state that once a player is taken from a game, he cannot go back in the contest. There was his team doing its best with a willing but inexperienced player occupying the position he had to leave. Presently the Methodist manager, Walter Jenkinson, treasurer of the league, but not a member of the Board of Arbitration, approached Jerry Marr and told him he was willing that he should reenter the game.

Immediately a new spirit arose in the Alumni team and they fought harder. Coming into the seventh inning they tied the score at 4 all, but due to darkness, the game was called and the score reverted back to the previous inning, Methodist winning 4-2.

While I must give credit to Jerry Marr for his fighting spirit, the bulk of the praise goes to Walter Jenkinson, a fitting example of the great trait of sportsmanship.

With his team tied for first place in the league standing and playing a good team, he took a great chance in allowing Jerry Marr to play, you certainly raised yourself to the pinnacle of sportsmanship, "Jenkie," and I feel sure that the bombs of the "knocker" will never weaken your foundation.

OLYMPIC DOUBLES CHAMPIONS

PAUL COSTELLO

CHARLES McILVAINE

WELCOME OVATION PLANNED IN FALLS

Street Demonstration and Banquet to Greet Champion Oarsmen

WON BY SIX LENGTHS

Costello and McIlvaine have won!

Out of all the oarsmen in the world, it fell, the lot of two from East Falls to bring home the bacon in the double sculls, rowed on the Sloten Canal, at Amsterdam, Holland, in the 1928 Olympic contest.

The justly proud, East Falls folks are impatiently waiting until their heroes come home, to pat them on the back and give them the greeting they deserve.

The encouraging send-off which the local oarsmen received when they left their hometown on July 10 will be as nothing compared to the reception, that is coming to them when they arrive home, as the lone Philadelphia rowing victors of the Olympics.

Cabled congratulations, by the dozens, have flown across the Atlantic, to the "Bon Bon" and "Mac" as they are affectionately known to their admirers.

A Welcome Home Reception Committee has been formed, with Charles B. Bogle as chairman. Others of the committee are William B. McFarland, President of the East Falls Business Men's Association, vice chairman; Frederick Strenger, treasurer; A. C. Chadwick, secretary; Charles M. Foley, assistant secretary; Thomas F. Gavaghan, Alfred E. Sowden, P. J. Kelley, Martin O'Rourke, Walter A. Costello, president of the East Falls Church Base Ball League; Dr. Bernard B. Klebanoff, J. Griffith Broadman, Thomas Hurley, Joseph J. Doyle, William J. Benham, Walter Jenkinson, A. F. Skrobaneck, Joseph Maloney, James T. Fielder, Fred Ford and Joseph Cunningham.

A meeting of the committee was held on Monday evening at the East Falls office of the Manayunk-Quaker City National Bank, Ridge and Midvale avenues, where action was started for the biggest time the community has ever yet witnessed, there will be a huge street demonstration and a banquet with speakers of city, state and national prominence present to utter their praise of the youthful conquerors.

Reception Chairman Bogle, and William B. McFarland, president of the East Falls Business Men's Association, emphatically state that the affair will not be confined to any one group of people or organization, but that it will be a public ovation in every sense of the word.

The victory of Paul Costello and Charles McIlvaine in the double sculls at the Olympics was the result of a campaign that began as late as June 16, when they made their debut as a team in the Schuylkill Navy Regatta.

They finished third to the national champions, McGreal and Gilmore and also trailed the Undine crew of Coulston and Hoover. Their first victory came when on June 23, the pair came in first in the East Falls Regatta.

The Pennac crew seemed satisfied with their showing and resuming work they were in such fine form July 4 that they accomplished the downfall of the Undine crew by three lengths in 6:25, who also finished one and one-quarter lengths ahead of Bachelors in 6:34.

Again in the Olympic trials the Pennac crew flashed power to repeat over the same rivals.

Costello won fame by rowing bow oar to Jack Kelly in the winning Olympic senior double at Antwerp in 1920 and Paris in 1924.

Costello is a former Philadelphia Gold Challenge Cup holder and ex-national champion.

McIlvaine has been active half a dozen years. He and Finnegan formed a winning double combination for several years.

McIlvaine and Costello proved worthy representatives of Uncle Sam. Well proportioned and skillful they made an ideal combination.

On Friday, August 3, the Bon Bon, paired with McIlvaine, pulled and tugged over the line five lengths ahead of Boshard and Reider, of Switzerland.

On Monday the 6th, the East Falls boys set a new course record in winning their second heat against the Austrians, Losert and Klessel. In winning in the new record time of 6 minutes 43 and 2-5 seconds the Schuylkillites left the Central European bladesmen three lengths behind, after 2000 meters of well-timed effort.

The boys from Dobsonville, on Wednesday the 8th, again defeated the men from the land of Switzer cheese, by four lengths in the quarter finals of the double sculls.

The following day they defeated for the second time the Austrian pair, which brought Cos and Mac up to the finals against Joe Wright and Jack Guest of Canada.

By the smashing margin of six lengths, the American double combination of Costello and McIlvaine brought their country its first rowing championship, outrowing the Canadians, Wright and Guest in the final.

The crack Philadelphia double sculling pair came through with their impressive victory just when American hopes were falling, their single sculling representative, Ken Myers, having been beaten by five lengths by the Australian, Bob Pearce.

The double sculling triumph clinched the regatta for the United States on points.

The time of the double scullers were 6 minutes 41 2-5 for the Americans and 6:51 for the Canadians. The East Falls lads broke the record they had made against the Austrians.

The Americans jumped into a slight lead at the start, and increased it to a length in the first 750 meters. The next 250 meters saw the terrific stroke telling seriously on the Canadians, and the outcome seemed certain, with the only question how much of a lead the Americans would have at the finish. At 1000 meters the Americans led by three lengths, and they pulled steadily ahead to finish six boat lengths to the good.

Costello, by being a winner this year, has run up a record that stands by itself in the annals of Olympic rowing.

Back in 1920 Paul went over as the doubles partner of Jack Kelly, former world's champion, and he rowed with Kelly in the winning doubles crew after Kelly had lifted the singles crown an hour before.

At that time the Vesper doubles pair of Kelly, stroke, and Costello, bow, was by far the best in the world, Kelly was the mainstay, but Costello made almost an ideal doubles partner.

After 1920 Kelly gave up single sculling and devoted most of his time to his business. He still rowed now and then, however, and was persuaded to go out for the Olympic doubles with Costello. So when the 1924 trials rolled around Costello and his famed partner were again in their shell to bring home another championship.

When Jack Kelly received word of the victory, on Friday, he said, "I am not at all surprised that Paul and Charley won, for they evidently rowed the race as they planned it in this country before their departure.

"In the trials here they appeared to have everything necessary and all of us, oarsmen and well-wishers alike, were convinced that if they could maintain their stroke at forty, they would win the Olympic crown. They did this in the trials and I am certain they did it in Holland."

Costello is thirty-three years old, and started his rowing career with the Vesper Boat Club. He has been sculling more than ten years.

McIlvaine is only twenty-four, and first broke in at the Penn A. C. when Joe Wright was coaching.

Kelly and Costello first brought the Olympic doubles to the United States eight years ago, beating Italy and France in that order in the final heat, and at Paris in 1924, they triumphed over France, Switzerland and Brazil in the final. This year only two crews rowed in each final.

Coaching credit for the American Olympic victory in double sculls goes to Frank Muller, of the Penn Athletic Club.

The triumph of Paul Costello and Charles McIlvaine over the Canadian double is the fourth Olympic victory for Muller.

In the 1920 Olympiad Muller coached Jack Kelly and Costello. They won in doubles and Kelly also won in singles. Four years later Kelly and Costello turned in another Olympic win for the United States while being coached by Muller. He is the only coach who has a record of four Olympic first places in rowing. Muller accompanied the scullers to Amsterdam.

BIG OVATION FOR OLYMPIC ROWERS IN FALLS TONIGHT

MAYOR MACKEY TO ATTEND BANQUET

Parade to Escort Rowers to "Welcome Home" Banquet in America Hall

POLICE BAND TO PLAY

COSTELLO AND McILVAINE

Two East Falls lads sailed o'er the seas,

To where they make the Edam cheese,

They sailed the waves to make a test

Of rowing skill among the best.

The world could send to Amsterdam Against the sons of Uncle Sam.

We cheered them when they left our loam,

And knew they'd bring the bacon home.

The Bon Bon and his partner, Mac, Are bringing champion's laurels back.

The world adorned them with a crown,

And now they're coming back to town.

We'll cheer them loud, we'll cheer them long,

We'll sing of them in prose and song,

This phrase will rise to Heaven's dome,

"We're proud they brought the bacon home!"

All the residents of East Falls and the surrounding territory are going to turn out tonight to do honor to Paul Costello and Charles McIlvaine, who captured the world's double sculling championship at Amsterdam in the Olympic contests, on August 10th.

With the East Falls Business Men's Association assuming a leading part, the whole community is aroused to the highest pitch to give their heroes the welcome they deserve. A grand welcome it will be. And why not?

Here are two lads who were born and raised in the town who have attained the highest honors which it is possible to obtain in rowing circles, for they met and defeated the best which the world could produce.

A gigantic street parade, terminating with a banquet in America Hall has been arranged and will be carried out, so that everyone may have an opportunity of paying their tribute to their native sons.

Inasmuch as Costello and McIlvaine are the lone Philadelphia victors, the municipal authorities have entered into the spirit of the occasion and will lend every effort to put the celebration over big. Ridge avenue and the side streets will be illuminated by the Electrical Bureau, the Police Band will be audibly in attendance and Mayor Harry A. Mackey will make the principal address at the banquet.

Other men of civic prominence who will be on hand to laud the boys are: Judge Raymond McNeille, District Attorney John J. Monaghan, Judge Eugene C. Bonniwell, Paul Gottlieb, secretary to Mayor Mackey; Hon. James M. Hazlett, Dr. A. A. Cairns, Hon. Alexander Murdoch and William J. Benham.

John B. Kelly will act as toastmaster. Walter A. Costello, president of the East Falls Church Baseball League will present the boys with gifts of appreciation, and Thomas J. Gavaghan, Joseph J. Doyle, Fred Ford and P. H. Kelly will pay personal tributes to the triumphant oarsmen.

All the pastors of all of the churches in East Falls have been tendered invitations and as many as are not absent on vacations will be in attendance as guests.

The Reception Committee composed of William J. Benham, John B. Kelly, P. H. Kelly, Thomas J. Gavaghan, George B. Costello, Benjamin Walker, Walter A. Costello and Joseph J. Doyle left for New York yesterday and will escort the rowers from New York today. They will arrive at the North Philadelphia station of the Pennsylvania railroad at 6.00 P. M. and proceed to 29th and Allegheny avenue in three automobiles which have been generously provided by the Packard Motor Company.

Promptly at 6 o'clock the Police Band and the parade will leave Ridge and Midvale avenues and march to 29th and Allegheny avenue, there to meet the scullers and the Reception Committee. The cavalcade will be marshaled by P. J. Kelley, vice president of the East Falls Business Men's Association.

All of the local athletic, social and community organizations will be represented and in addition to the Police Band, there will be music furnished by the local Boy Scout Band of Troop No. 124, under the direction of Scoutmaster William E. Clayton and by the Naval Battalion Bugle and Drum Corp of St. Bridget's church, led by William O'Donnell.

The marchers will proceed west on Allegheny avenue to Ridge avenue, northwest on that thoroughfare to Midvale avenue, east to 34th street, south on 34th street, to New Queen street, thence west to 35th street and to America Hall, the scene of the banquet and welcoming speeches.

The entire route of the parade will be decorated with American flags, bunting, electric lights and signs of greeting to Costello and McIlvaine.

Costello, in the recent Olympic games, established a record which will probably endure forever, for he formed one-half of the doubles crews which captured the world's championship three times in succession. In 1920, while paired with Jack Kelly, he won fame at Antwerp and in 1924, with the same rowing mate, he trimmed the best of them at Paris. This year he was seated in a boat with Charles McIlvaine, a youth whose rowing future looks exceedingly rosy.

The celebration which was staged in 1920 for Kelly and Costello was of such tremendous proportions that the townsfolk have never ceased talking of it, but if the affair of tonight does not surpass it in every way then our representative has made a sad guess.

One reason why the ovation should be great is the fact that no one person is more interested and elated over the victory of Cos and Mac, than is Jack Kelly, and this individual is expending every effort to see that the boys "get what's coming to them."

Walter Jenkinson will be on the door of America Hall tonight, and states that "no One-Eyed Connelly's will get in." Last night was the final opportunity to obtain tickets for the dinner. The seating capacity of the hall made it necessary to limit the number of pasteboards which were sold. However if there is any of the coveted cards unsold they will be for sale by a representative of the Reception Committee outside of the auditorium.

Souvenir programs will be distributed to those who enter America Hall and will serve as a remembrance of the East Falls Lads' triumphal return from Holland.

The Committee in charge of the affair is: Chairman, William B. McFarland; Vice Chairman, Charles E. Eogle; Treasurer, Fred A.

Strenger; Secretary, A. C. Chadwick, and Assistant Secretary, Charles M. Foley.

Parade Committee: P. J. Kelley, William E. Clayton, Martin O'Rourke, Benjamin J. Walker, Harry A. Andrews, Joseph A. Maloney and Thomas M. Hurley.

Folks at Home to Feast Two Winning Oars

Paul Costello and Charlie McIlvaine Are Heroes of Well-Known Section.

Big Doings Tonight

By GORDON MACKAY.

TIS A GREAT night tonight will be for the Kellys and the Costellos up there in the Falls. Every four years Paul Costello—he was a fine broth of a bye when he went over the first time—goes to Europe and rows with some other guy in a boat. They win. Paul comes back and they put on a feed for the omadhaun up in East Falls.

And Kelly's the toastmaster, certainly. Kelly? G'wan with you. If you don't know Jack Kelly, you don't know the Falls at all at all. Jack Kelly is one of the Falls Kellys. There's Walter—yes he is the same one, that Virginia judge. There's George. There's a lad for you—he writes plays and makes more money than Jack.

Jack has mason work and brickwork and everything else, and he's getting so rich that he has to play golf to keep in shape. He'll be the toastmaster. And now you'll about The Costello. 'Twas a dozen years ago that Jack and Paul, the byes are cousins, went over to those Olympic games.

Kelly had a shell of his own, but Costello only owned half of the one they had together. Jack rowed down all the guys who oared the singles, and with Paul he rowed the doubles and they won that, too. 'Twas a proud gang up in the Falls when the news came rolling under the ocean that the boys had come through.

Kelly got married and had to stay home then and pull his own oar, so the Falls had to send Costello over to the Olympics to let those "furreners" know that they still produced oarsmen and scullers up there on the Schuylkill. So Costello went over four years ago and came back with the doubles.

This year was the knockout, though. Charlie McIlvaine, he's another of the Falls' lads, rowed the doubles with Paul. They make those foreigners look as if they were tied to the stake boat. Costello and McIlvaine won the doubles and the Falls let out a roar.

Billy Benham, who was a member of Council and now is the right hand man of Jimmy Hazlett, down there in the Recorder of Deeds' office, was made chairman of the committee to get that "four year feed" ready for Paul.

"When'll he get back?" asked his cousin, Jack Kelly.

"I understand that he's due Thursday," replied Billy.

"Good," said Jack, "then give him ham and cabbage, he ain't had a real meal since he left home. But boy, what a tough thing he's in for if that ship is 24 hours late."

As luck would have it the good vessel docked yesterday in New York, where the returning Olympic invaders were dined, wined, feted and feasted. So tonight the Falls will welcome her own.

Mayor Mackey will be there. So will Jack Kelly. So will District Attorney Monaghan and Judge Bonniwell and all the "regulars" known by the Falls.

It will be a gala night up there, too. Flags and bunting bury the houses, stores in that section and a real homecoming will be the order of business. Paul and Charlie get home at 5.45 o'clock in North Philadelphia. The police band will umpah for the boys, and then comes the parade.

Right up to American Hall the marchers will go, and once there, 400 will dine to give a whoop and a halloo to Paul and Charlie. The Clearfield Club, with which Jack Kelly played football when he was a kid, will be on hand. So will the Paradise A. C. and all the other clubs that make the Falls a nursery and cradle for the athletes.

JOE CUNNINGHAM SALUTES THE HEROES

'OLYMPIC REGATTA MARVELOUS'—BURKE

Chairman of U. S. Committee Upon Return Says Costello and McIlvaine Won On Confidence

HONOR OARSMEN TONIGHT

BY ROSS E. KAUFFMAN

AMERICA and Philadelphia should feel proud of its showing in the Olympic regatta," said Henry Penn Burke, chairman of the U. S. Olympic Rowing committee, who returned to his home in Germantown early this morning.

Accompanying Burke were Ken Myers, the Bachelors Barge Club sculler, who reached the final heat; Walter M. Hoover, alternate sculler; members of the Pennsylvania Barge Club four oared shell that also went to the final, the pair oared crew from the same club and the Penn A. C. pair; as well as Coach Frank Muller who looked after Paul Costello and Charles McIlvaine, the new Olympic doubles champions.

Costello and McIlvaine were the only oarsmen to remain in New York. They will arrive here this evening at 5.45 o'clock where they will be met at North Philadelphia station and escorted to East Falls for the big homecoming celebration.

"I've never seen a marvelous or better conducted regatta than the one put on by the Dutch," continued Burke. "Every detail was perfect and competition just about the greatest that I ever hope to see."

"Costello and McIlvaine deserve all the credit in the world for winning. Their spirit and confidence was a big factor. They were not over-confident but felt right from the start they could win. When they came through in their preliminary heats, I knew they would carry off the title. They sculled together beautifully."

"They will not row in competition any more this season but I can't speak for them regarding next year's plans. McIlvaine is still young and doubtless will continue while Paul may retire and rest on his laurels of three straight Olympic conquests."

"Ken Myers rowed a remarkable race against Bob Pearce, the Australian in the final. Ken gave all he had but it was not good enough. I understand Myers and Hoover have also retired for the season."

"Pearce is a sort of grandson of a Man-O' War when it comes to sculling as his father and grandfather before him were famous oarsmen. His dad was with him continually at Amsterdam and I talked things over with him every night when we made the draw for the next day's racing.

"I told Pearce's father once 'Your son is too good for this field. He should be racing motorboats' and the elder Pearce chuckled with delight. Young Pearce will return to Australia but I hope to see him compete in the United States and possibly on the Schuylkill next summer. He weighs about 182 pounds and has powerful arms and legs."

"I still think the Pennsylvania Barge Club four, without coxswain, is the best in the world, regardless of its defeat by Great Britain in the final heat. It was fortunate that the British drew a bye the day before the final and did not have to row while Pennsylvania Barge was compelled to compete. There should be no byes late in the Olympic regattas."

"This Olympic trip was a big success. The 400 or more athletes appeared as one happy family. There was no internal trouble of any kind. At Antwerp in 1920 foreign nations were still disorganized as the result of the World War. Four years ago at Paris they showed improvement and this time they gave our track athletes plenty to think about."

When Costello and McIlvaine arrive at North Philadelphia station this evening they will be escorted to motor cars and whisked to 29th st. and Allegheny av., where a parade headed by the Philadelphia Police Band and scores of automobilists, will proceed to American Hall, at 35th st. and Sunnyside av., where a rousing reception and banquet will be tendered by the East Falls Business Men's Association.

Mayor Harry Mackey has consented to attend the banquet in East Falls tonight and will personally extend congratulations to the Pennac oarsmen for bringing one of the two U. S. rowing titles to this city.

While the East Falls celebration is on, parents of Harold C. (Dem) Wilson, the Bachelors Barge Club oarsmen, who went abroad with the Philadelphia oarsmen as a stowaway, will entertain Ken Myers and the two Pennsylvania Barge Club crews, at 414 N. Broad st.

Pennsylvania Barge Club plans a later celebration for stroke Charles G. Karle and its four oared crew which went as far as the final heat only to lose by a scant half length to Great Britain.

Only a few of the victorious California eight returned from Amsterdam yesterday, including Don Blessing, veteran coxswain. Most of the "Golden Bears" will be back on a later boat and proceed direct to Berkeley, Cal., as college re-opens next week.

East Falls Joins in Welcome to Olympic Champs

Entire Community Celebrates Return of Costello and McIlvaine.

Great Parade and Banquet

By NED IRISH.

EAST FALLS did itself proud last night. Philadelphia may think it has a world's championship doubles sculling team in Paul Costello and Charles McIlvaine, but folks on the Falls of the Schuylkill know differently.

The real home town folks turned out in gala array to give their returning heroes such a welcome as East Falls has never equaled. From every available nook and cranny banners and signs flared welcome to these famous sons of the home town, just a section of the city, but a mighty proud one after having produced the last three world's champions in double sculls.

Not only did the signs bear welcome to Paul and Charley, but every able-bodied citizen, male, female and infant, turned out to join in the welcome, lining the steers as the parade from North Philadelphia streamed over the hill and dale of East Falls, led by the Police Band and followed by thousands of cheering, enthusiastic residents.

It is part of the city but this was East Falls' night and they made the most of it for after the parade and welcome through the familiar streets of the home town, which had missed them for nearly two months, Charley and Paul returned with the laurels of victory. What a reception it was they were tendered in the America Hall later as every available seat in the huge hall was filled by ardent hometown admirers of the champions.

Three-Time Winners.

Never in the history of the Olympics has an athlete three times won the world's title and that he should be a product of the Falls seemed natural after watching the hearty turnout that his neighbors tendered Paul and his young partner, Charley.

They were all on hand shepherded by Jack Kelly, the former champion and partner of Costello's in the previous two Olympic triumphs. All the Kelley's were on hand with P. J. Kelley busy marshalling the parade, P. H. Kelley, another good toastmaster on hand and young George to liven the occasion with some rousing songs.

It was a home folks turnout that gained citywide recognition, for leaders from all sections were on hand to do honor to these noble performers from the Falls. Led by Mayor Harry A. Mackey was Judge MacNeille, Judge Eugene Bonniwell, James Hazlett, Alexander Murdoch, Paul Gottlieb, Thomas Gavaghan and Councilman Benham the home son. All paid verbal tributes to the great performance of the veteran Costello and the equally gallant McIlvaine. Joe Cunningham had the crowd

OLYMPIC ROWING CHAMPS HONORED

Parade Through East Falls Followed by Dinner to Paul Costello and Charley McIlvaine

East Falls welcomed Paul Costello and Charles McIlvaine, Jr., Penn A. C. double scullers and Olympic champions, home yesterday as few home-bred figures of the sport world have been received here before. A street parade and dinner gave almost every person in the Schuylkill section an opportunity to pay tribute to the Olympic champions, which they did unstintingly.

Costello, McIlvaine, their coach, Frank Muller, and Jack Kelly, former Olympic singles and doubles champion and master of ceremonies, were met by more than a hundred persons when they arrived at North Philadelphia Station late yesterday afternoon.

After motoring to the Penn A. C. the quartet and a few friends proceeded to East Falls for a lengthy street parade, witnessed by several thousand persons. The dinner was held at America Hall and continued for more than four hours.

Figures prominent in city life and sportdom alike paid tribute to the pair. Among the notables were Mayor Mackey, Judge John Menaghan, Judge Eugene Bonniwell, Recorder of Deeds James M. Hazlett and Alexander Murdoch.

Chester Turner, national singles sculling champion; Joe Dougherty, a member of the United States Olympic pair-oared entry; Al Vogt, singles sculler; Lew Johnson, Fred Ford and Harry Penn Burke, manager of the Olympic rowing teams, helped represent sport.

EAST FALLS HONORS ROWING CHAMPIONS

Paul Costello and Charles McIlvaine, Doubles Winner, Welcomed by Town Folks On Return

FETED AT BANQUET

WHEN it comes to giving recognition to town folks who come back after making a success in any kind of an endeavor, East Falls, a section of this city, cannot be surpassed.

Anyway that's the way every denizen of East Falls feels this morning after the royal welcome, reception and banquet tendered last night to two of its sons, Paul Costello and Charles McIlvaine.

The denizens, or citizens, if you please, had the right to paint up things and everything, for had not Paul and Charles, or Charlie as it comes from the lips, captured premier honors in the Olympic rowing championships at Sloten, Holland, early in July.

For the third consecutive time Costello has had the laurel wreath of victory placed on his crown by Olympic officials for his victory in double sculls. First it was at Antwerp, in 1920, with his cousin Jack Kelly. Then in 1924, again paired with Kelly, Paul came through with a double victory. This year he, with McIlvaine, came through on the Holland canal.

And what reason was there that Paul and Charlie should not be given a welcome home fit for conquering heroes. Jack Kelly saw no hindrance and everyone who registers from East Falls felt the same.

From the time Costello and McIlvaine paired together early this year, they had the backing of every East Falls' family from the wee tots to the old folks. And how they pulled for Paul and Charlie to come through.

And when the pair won the title the plans for the reception were in full force. The first outburst came when they landed on Wednesday in New York and continued upon their train arrival last evening, followed through with the parade, the reception in American Hall and the banquet with speechmaking and whatnot.

From Mayor Harry A. Mackey, Judges Raymond MacNeille and Eugene C. Bonniwell and other officials, and President Henry Penn Burke of the National Association of Amateur Oarsmen, to the smallest boy or girl, crowding to get a peep at the champions as they rode through the streets of the city, there were praise, cheers and congratulations on their achievement.

Costello was hailed as the "only man who ever went to three successive Olympic games and three times came home champion," and McIlvaine was pictured as the "blond, bashful, clean-living McIlvaine, a credit to the Falls," by the city's leaders in all paths of life.

The men reached this city about 6 o'clock last night from New York City, where they arrived Wednesday aboard the Roosevelt. Along with them were Joe Dougherty, Gus Goetz and Al Vogt, Dougherty and Goetz having rowed in the pair oars and Vogt being a substitute. Goetz proceeded to his home in Ocean City and the others were present last night at the mammoth banquet of welcome, held in America Hall, in East Falls.

On the way there Costello and McIlvaine were driven all around the city and through the East Falls in the parade. Then last night the East Falls Business Men's Association staged the wonderful banquet. More than 600 persons crowded the hall to capacity and many others were turned away.

With Costello and McIlvaine in the first automobile of the parade was McIlvaine's mother, Mrs. Charles McIlvaine. In the second machine were Coach Frank Muller, who accompanied the men to the Olympics and was given a large part of the credit for the championship by the men themselves, and Mrs. Muller; May Costello, a sister of Paul, and Walter Costello, a cousin and member of the reception committee.

Jack Kelly was the toastmaster of the banquet, and he opened by congratulating Mr. and Mrs. McIlvaine. Henry Penn Burke, manager of the oarsmen on the Olympic trips, denied reports that the athletes behaved themselves improperly, or that they ate too much, declaring that America won twenty-four first places in various events, as against ten for Finland, the second best. He said America won two rowing first, two seconds and one third.

Thomas J. Gavaghan welcomed the oarsmen on behalf of the Business Men's Association, and hailed them as an "inspiration to the youth of the Nation, the city and the Falls." W. Fred Ford, Judge Raymond MacNeille, Hon. Alexander Murdoch, Chester Turner, Al Vogt, Joe Dougherty, Paul Costello, Charles McIlvaine, Judge Eugene C. Bonniwell, James M. Hazlett, the Rev. John J. Bonnor, P. H. Kelly and Frank Muller were among the speakers.

Mayor Mackey gave a rousing word of praise for them, and stated that he understood that the reason they won was that the boat was called the Penn-Mackey.

Mayor Will Ask Council to Buy Medals for Costello-McIlvaine

Mayor Harry Mackey announced today that he will ask City Council to make an appropriation of sufficient money with which to purchase medals to be presented to Paul V. Costello and Charles McIlvaine, the Penn A. C. pair, who recently won the Olympic doubles sculls championship at Amsterdam.

"I feel that this city should give official recognition to sportsmen who have brought honor and credit to 'The Sports Capitol of America'—the city of Philadelphia," said the Mayor.

THERE is one man who ought to know what he is saying about rowing in this city, and that is Jack Kelly, the former singles Olympic champion. Yesterday Jack was serving as toastmaster of a welcoming reception to those two world's champions, Paul Costello and Charles McIlvaine, for the second time is as many days.

Jack made a statement during the affair at the Penn Athletic Club, which organization the doubles kings represent, which was a great forecast for the future. During his introductory remarks Jack, talking of Charley, the younger member of the doubles pair which captured the Olympic honors, predicted the 145-pounder from East Falls would be the next world's singles champion, and only time will tell how true this prediction is.

Paul Costello, the three-time Olympic champion, who created a record in winning three consecutive world's titles, got a great reception from the crowd of Pennac members assembled at the informal reception. He wasn't the only one to get a royal welcome, for there was a full complement of Pennac travelers at the gathering.

Lawson Robertson, the head coach of the team, opened the event with a short talk in which he stressed the increased proficiency of the foreigners and the real benefit of the Olympic games. There were numerous other Penn A. C. members on hand who had made the trip, including Al Vogt, the singles scull substitute; Gus Getz and Joe Dougherty, members of the doubles pair which got second; Tom Mack, the youngest male member of the Olympic team, who was coxswain for this pair; Harry Glancy, the well-known swimmer; Frank Muller, the veteran coach who tutored the winning oarsmen, and Walter Laufer, a Chicago boy who got second in the back stroke, was also one of the guests at the big welcome.

JOE CUNNINGHAM 'TEES OFF' FOR THE FALLS

NINE YEARS ago, over the coffee and eggs in the Gunboat Cafe, which was the Ritz-Carlton of East Falls, there was a memorable golf argument. Who was the golf champion of the neighborhood among the many shining stars? was the subject of the debate.

To settle all the shouting, Tom Gribben and a few boys organized the "East Falls Golf Association" and the annual picnic, known far and wide as the "Falls Open," probably the only golf tourney of its kind in the country.

At one time or another nearly every boy in the Falls of Schuylkill worked as a caddy at the exclusive Philadelphia Country Club, so the members donated the course to decide the question that rocked all the cracked crockery in the Gunboat.

In a section that has developed nearly 50 golf professionals the rivalry is keen, very keen. This morning the ninth annual tourney will be held at the new course of the Philadelphia Country Club, 36 holes of medal play, with prizes in all classes.

While membership in the East Falls Golf Association is confined to golfers born in the neighborhood, most of the professionals are from that section. Bill Leach, of Overbrook C. C., and his brother, Jack, of Tavistock; the brothers, Eddie and John Clarey, of Juniata C. C.; Griff Boardman, of Ashbourne, to mention but one or two of the stellar entries in the classic of drives and putts.

In some classes of the tourney high scores are expected, as some of the boys are still suffering from indigestion due to overeating at the recent party they threw for Paul Costello and Charlie McIlvaine when they returned from the Olympics. Other than winning the world's doubles rowing championship, both boys swing mashies and midirons, but they are much better oarsmen.

While the tournament was started to settle an argument after nine years of competition, the argument is still unsettled.

EAST FALLS CHURCH BASEBALL LEAGUE

Sport lovers in East Falls had all of their attention focused last week on the homecoming of Paul Costello and Charley McIlvaine and as a consequence the baseball games were almost forgotten. And then came the miraculous efforts of Philadelphia's Athletics when they closed the gap between second and first place. This also had its effect on the local fan.

The Falls Baptist boys must have felt a lot like Miller Huggins Yanks, on Tuesday night for Paddy Neilan's St. Bridget's team pulled them right out of first place by trouncing them in a 7 to 4 conflict.

Willie Quinn pitched a most beautiful game and kept the Queen lane lad's hits well scattered. Jimmy Matthews, after a week's vacation, came back and socked out three hits out of four attempts. Jerry Marr was purloined of a triple when Neely ran over to deep right field and snared the Catholic leader's terrific smash to that corner. Sammy Morehead batted a thousand and so did his teammate, Foley.

It was a tough night for Fetrow, for in the third inning the Buffalo had to seek the showers, for it was Neilan's night and the Saints bats played a tattoo on everything the husky heaver had to offer.

The steps taken by the "A's" had nothing on the jumps made by the nine from the Falls Methodist Church, who on Wednesday night met the Good Shepherd nine, on Dobson field and threw them for an 8 to 4 loss.

The winning of this game permitted the Jenkinson Jabbers to climb into the upper berth, and sent the Galloping Herd farther into the rear.

The Meboys started the fireworks in the second inning and got enough runs in that frame to settle things, for when the scorekeepers had made a checkup he found that five runs had been registered.

Al "Zeb" Homewood cleaned the bags with a double to right, Wierman followed the Zeb with another double which chased Albert home and then as if to break the hearts of the Sheepmen, Frankius Punkius Lees came across with the third two bagger of the inning, which sent "the Guy" home with the fifth marker.

Calhoun, on the mound of the Krail street outfit held the Woolly Ones down to three hits.

"WILL NOT RESIGN" DECLARES COSTELLO

Paul and Charlie Lauded by Mayor Mackey and Many Notables for Deeds

KELLY TOASTMASTER

By Cornelius L. Wells

"California is a nice place, and I see no reason why I should retire." So spoke Paul Costello in the most pregnant sentence uttered at the Welcome Home banquet, held in America Hall, at 35th and Sunnyside avenue, East Falls, last Thursday evening, at which the citizenry of the Falls paid tribute to him and Charley McIlvaine, as World's Champions and victors in the Olympic Double Sculls events, in the greatest demonstration Dobson-town has witnessed in recent years. In his statement Mr. Costello revoked his decision, voiced shortly before his departure for Amsterdam, that, win or lose, it would be his last race. His East Falls friends now look forward to further honors to be won by him and McIlvaine at the Olympics to be held in Los Angeles in 1932, at which Paul hopes to hang up a record that will probably last for all time, that of being the winner of four consecutive Olympiads in the same event. He won with Jack Kelly in 1920 and 1924. This year's victory with Charles McIlvaine, makes his third straight win, a record unapproached in modern times.

It is hard to imagine two athletes more justly entitled to the adulation poured out at their feet by the 500 diners who occupied every seat arranged by Caterer McAllister. It is far more difficult to be a good winner than a good loser, and the praise these lads received would have spoiled any pair less great, in character, as well as rowing ability. They each credited the glory to the other, to Coach Frank Muller, and to their preceptor, Jack Kelly.

Mayor Mackey attended the banquet in person, and was high in his praise of the pair. Being a former athlete, and football star, he was able to appreciate the thrill that victory brought them—and the arduous trials and deprivations endured while training, and he got it across to the diners in a way that made them realize a little more keenly what greatness the pair had achieved; Costello—the veteran—coming through for the third time; McIlvaine—the novice—a youngster, but pulling his half of the boat.

"Never," said Costello, "have I seen anyone, not even excepting Jack Kelly, row a better race than Charlie did. I couldn't have had a better partner in the shell."

The parade, preceding the dinner, was a monstrous affair that was marshaled by P. J. Kelley, vice-president of the East Falls Business Men's Association, and assisted by Harry R. Smith and John Wood. P. J. is a handsome broth of a boy when he is all dolled up for parading, and received almost as much handclapping as the rowers themselves.

At 6.30 p. m. Marshall Kelley marked time and with Captain Joseph Kiefer, of the Philadelphia Police Band in the van of a large delegation of members of the local merchants association, started from Ridge and Midvale avenues to meet Costello and McIlvaine at 29th and Allegheny avenue, where the winning pair had been driven in shiny new Packards and Lincolns by the Reception Committee, headed by William J. Benham.

When the marchers reached Hunting Park avenue, they were joined by the complete membership of St. Bridget's Boys Battalion resplendent in their white naval uniforms. The lads who had seen Costello and McIlvaine leave North Philadelphia on their way to the Olympics were on hand with their Bugle and Drum Corps to greet the home-coming idols. William O'Donnell as usual, was in charge of the sailors.

Following the Boy's Battalion came thousands of friends and neighbors of the rowers, both afoot and in motor cars.

The parade arrived at 29th street none too soon, for in a few minutes the triumphant oarsmen arrived and the cavalcade started back to East Falls with their heroes. Just after the start of the return trip, Scoutmaster William E. Clayton, with Troop 124 of the Boy Scouts of America, joined the line and accompanying his lads was Troop No. 160, of Burholme, in charge of Scoutmaster Calvin Edwards, a former resident of East Falls. The appearance and actions of these boys drew forth the applause of the crowds which lined the streets.

Cheers, music and noise of all description reigned supreme. As the marchers swung past Dobson's Mill Gate someone in the Parkview Laundry at 4138 Ridge avenue, tied down the steam whistle and left it go until every ounce of the steam had been exhausted. And then Dobson's big factory whistle added its thunderous boom to the pandemonium.

Up Ridge avenue, past the foot of Midvale avenue went the happy citizens who were bringing home the boys who brought home the bacon. On past the fire station of Engine Company No. 35 and Truck Company No. 18, where the sirens and bells of the apparatus joined in the noisy chorus; on up to the entrance of the Falls Bridge, where the Merck Company's officials had instructed its watchman to let out all steam when the boys made the turn around the corner to counter-march back to Midvale avenue. And we'll say that watchman done his duty!

The jubilant revelers paraded up Midvale avenue to Henry avenue, where they stopped in front of the McIlvaine residence for a moment's serenade, then south on Penn street, and west on that thoroughfare so that the occupants of the Costello domicile might know that the whole Falls had turned out to bring the master of the house home.

After this serenading, the marchers continued west on Penn street to Vaux, to New Queen street, to Conrad street and thence to America Hall at the corner of Sunnyside avenue.

The streets along the entire route of the march were lined with well wishers and friends of the conquering scullers and everywhere one's eyes traveled they were attracted by decorations such as never were exhibited anywhere in greater abundance.

It was truly an affair which will never be forgotten in East Falls.

Jack Kelly called the banqueters to order and asked Rev. Joseph McMahon to ask a blessing before

PHILADELPHIA'S LONE AND EAST FALLS' OWN—CHAMPIONS.

In the center is Jack Kelly, the first American oarsman to bring an Olympic championship to the United States, by winning the Singles crown in 1920. Kelly also rowed in the double shells with Costello in 1920 and 1924.

the diners fell to. Mr. Kelly then made a short address, praising the champions, and then introduced the Misses Anna and Mildred Kelly. Misses Anna and Mildred Kelly, who sang delightfully, an original song dedicated to the heroes. They were accompanied on the piano by their sister Miss Marie Kelly. The girls, in conjunction with Miss Eugenia Waldron then sang an encore number, "The Olympiads," in Dutch. This song was the official anthem of the Olympics and was sung at all games. It has a stirring rhythm and the line, "Oh! Oh! Oh!" recurs at intervals. Upon invitation the audience joined in the "Oh! Oh! Oh!" line with a roar that could be heard all over East Falls.

After an interval devoted entirely to satisfying the inner man, George Kelly, a brother of the girls, was called to the piano and sang "Laugh, Clown, Laugh," and "On the Road to Mandalay." In a fine bass voice, and so pleased the diners that he received as much applause as did his sisters. He was introduced as never having sung before an audience before. If that be true, audiences in East Falls have been very negligent of their own welfare and entertainment in the past. All future audiences will insist that George do his stuff.

The first speaker of the evening was Henry Penn Burke, who gave a most enlightening account of the trip to Amsterdam, describing the S. S. Roosevelt and the accommodations afforded the athletes, both on the way over and while anchored in the harbor during the contests. He lauded Mayor Mackey for his interest in the games and commended his action in giving personally $3750 to complete Philadelphia's quota of $20,000 for the Olympic Fund.

Mr. Burke was followed by Thomas J. Gavaghan, representing the East Falls Business Men's Association, who praised the rowers and East Falls for producing them. Mr. Gavaghan spoke for several minutes in a highly entertaining vein and was roundly applauded for his utterances.

Fred Ford, of newspaper and sports fame, was next called to his feet. His talk was short and pithy and terminated with a broad hint to Mayor Mackey that when the City Fathers next meet in conclave they should do "something nice" for Costello and McIlvaine. Mr. Ford's suggestion was not wasted for in the Evening Ledger of Friday the following item appeared on the sports page:

"Medals will be struck by the city for Paul Costello and Charles J. McIlvaine, Philadelphia rowers who won the Olympic double sculls championship, Mayor Mackey announced today. The Mayor said he would ask City Council to appropriate money for the presentation of the medals to the two men.

Costello was a member of the doubles team that won the sculling championships in 1920, 1924 and again this year, at the Olympics.

"The victories of Costello and McIlvaine should encourage other Philadelphia boys and girls to excel in athletics so that they may do honor to the United States and to this city by winning future Olympic championships," Mayor Mackey said.

Judge Raymond McNeille, of South Philadelphia, turned a very neat compliment by saying that East Falls people reminded him of South Philadelphians because they raised such fine American boys, and proceeded in further praise of Paul and Charley.

Toastmaster Kelly then introduced Hon. Alexander Murdoch, Director of Public Works; Chester Turner, National Singles Sculls champion; "Al" Vogt and "Joe" Dougherty, who rowed in the Olympics in the pair-oared events; and Lew Johnson, the captain of the Penn A. C. rowing squad.

His Honor, Judge Eugene C. Bonniwell was the next speaker. He gave an absorbing account of the history of the Olympics games from ancient to modern times in a way that clearly defined their greatness over a period of 2700 years and made plain the height of honor attained by winners in such exhaustive and world wide tests.

The witty gem of the evening was given utterance when Joe Cunningham, the cartoonist de luxe of the Philadelphia Record, and a member of the Publicity Committee, was called upon to say something.

Among other things he said that there were too many Kellys and Costellos around and that he was for Charley McIlvaine and Al Smith.

The Hon. James M. Hazlett was next introduced and was lavish in his praise. He was followed by Rev. Dr. John J. Bonner, superintendent of Philadelphia Catholic schools, who told humorously of his efforts to attend the Olympics to see Charley and Paul perform, and of his failure to do so. He also expressed his pride and fealty to East Falls.

P. H. Kelly followed next in line and took issue with Joe Cunningham for his remarks about the Kellys and Costellos. "P. H." hed the last word—but very probably Joe had nothing more to say anyhow.

"P. H." was followed by Joseph J. Doyle and Frank Muller, both of whom complemented the rowers and their achievements.

His Honor, Mayor Harry A. Mackey made a splendid address, complimenting the boys and lauding Charley's parents. He told of his experience of being in Paris when Lindbergh arrived at Le Bourget Field and compared Costello and McIlvaine to Lindy, as good-will ambassadors. His speech was keen with wit and he received a great ovation from the delighted East Falls citizens.

McIlvaine and Costello were the last speakers. Each praised the other and both lauded Jack Kelly and Frank Muller. It was at that time that Costello announced his decision not to retire. He said that Muller was "the finest rowing coach in the whole world" and Charley McIlvaine, "The best partner" he could have possibly selected.

Toastmaster Kelly, on behalf of the East Falls citizenry, then presented each of the oarsmen with black cowhide Gladstone traveling bags. Rev. Ulla A. Bauer pronounced a benediction and the greatest banquet East Falls has ever witnessed came to a close, with the assemblage loath to depart.

What are we here for this evening?
If you don't know, we'll tell you
All our town is upside down
Everyone is happy too.
We're here to honor our champions
Who wear Penn A. C. crest,
Our words won't mean very much,
But we're going to do our best.

Don't you think we're proud,
Proud of you two,
Proud of all you've done for home?
When we heard the final word,
We prayed that what we heard was true
Don't you think we're glad,
Glad that you had Everything your way all through
Yet we might have known
With all you've shown
You'd stand by the Red, White and Blue.
Think, think, three times Paul made the grade,
Our Charles, look at what strides he's made,
East Falls, doesn't that thrill you through?
Paul and Charles,
We want you to know, before you go,
Our thro'ts were with you o'er the foam
Each one is here to give this cheer,
"SUCCESS AND A WELCOME BACK HOME."

Joe Cunningham says he is for Charley McIlvaine and Al Smith.

Well, Joe has already picked one winner, anyhow!

We ate two helpings of Chicken a la King—and then we found out it wasn't soup.

Mayor Mackey was astonished by the flags, bunting, signs of welcome, and the other street decorations raised in honor of the oarsmen.

His Honor ought to get up this way oftener. Everybody in this neck of woods knew that the Falls would be decorated from manhole covers to weathervanes.

Jack Kelly says that the first time he coaxed Charlie McIlvaine into a shell he went right over and out on the other side.

In fact Charlie learned to be a fine swimmer while learning to row.

As Mayor Mackey arrived the orchestra played the "Star Spangled Banner," which was quite proper.

But as he sat down it burst into "Hail, Hail, the Gang's All Here." Despite Joe Cunningham's remarks, it was!

A painting depicting the champs in their rowing shell in Holland, which was hung behind the speakers table was quite flattering—to the windmills which appear in the background.

The difference between a dinner and a banquet is that at a dinner you eat first, and pray for a small check. At a banquet you pay first and pray for good food.

The affair in America Hall was a banquet—and the prayer was answered.

If it was appropriate, as Henry Penn Burke said, that the athletics should be taken to Amsterdam in a ship named after Theodore Roosevelt, who was a lover of sports and sportsmanship:

It was also appropriate that Thursday's affair should be held in America Hall.

Jack Kelly says McIlvaine won the race.

He rowed bow, and was the first man over the line.

Those Kelly girls are no doubt as nice as they look and sing, and we advise Pere Kelly to buy a bull dog and shot gun, or he'll lose 'em.

Charley Bogle, whose wife thought she had lost him forever, returned home on Friday and spent the day in bed. Charley worked nights, days, Sundays, without cessation to put the affair over.

It's the first time we ever saw Charlie TIRED.

EAST FALLS OPEN TERMINATES IN TIE

Ebresman and Schneider One Stroke Ahead of Hoffman at Finish

OARSMEN IN CONTEST

Struggling through rainstorms, flooded greens and kindred other worries, two young golfers finished in a tie for the east Falls open championship Monday with scores of 156. The fortunate pair were Charles Schneider, of Rydal, and Clarence Ehresman, of the Country Club. It took a brilliant 32 on the last nine to give Ehresman a chance for the playoff.

These two golfers have been fighting for a place in the spotlight for the past two years. Occasionally one or the other gets his name into the headlines but Monday they concentrated to such good effect that today they are dual champions of East Falls and will fight for the coveted title at some future date.

Right behind this pair came Charley Hoffner, of Ocean City, with a score of 157. Hoffner is still kicking himself in the shins over a missed putt on the last hole that would have given him a place in a triple tie. Last year Bill Leach won the title after a playoff with his brother, Jack Leach, and Jim Edmundson, and Hoffner was confident that he could have repeated Bill's feat.

Leach defended his crown for eight holes and then found the greens in such terrible condition from the rain that he withdrew. He played in the midst of the downpour and was just two over fours for the eight holes. Later the rain stopped, the greens dried off, and in the afternoon the putting surfaces were delights to the hearts of all the late finishers.

While interest in the doings of the leaders occupied a large part of the fans' attention, the golf playing of one foursome attracted a large gallery.

This foursome consisted of Paul Costello, Charles McIlvaine, Jack Kelly and Griff Boardman. The first three are all Olympic rowing champions, while Boardman was on the committee that had a lot to do with making this year's tournament one of the best of its kind.

Kelly knows a bit about the game of golf as can be noted by the fact that he had no less than 13 holes in 5, and collected two birds for good measure on par four holes. But his cousin Paul was not so fortunate, and McIlvaine failed to cause worry to the leaders in the tournament.

Costello and McIlvaine are afraid of water.

Strange as this may sound the rowing stars hate water in all its forms, but more especially if it is found in the creeks and lakes that make the Country Club's Spring Mill course a real test of golf.

Both were doing fine for three holes, but on the fourth they faced a real water hazard. That ended the day for the two oarsmen. It would be uncharitable to them to give their scores on this hole, and it was a sorry pair that faced the next tee.

The next bit of trouble came on the eleventh. Arriving at the tee the pair took one look and then in unison uttered one heartfelt exclamation. It sounded very much like "Another lake."

Even on the 13th Costello found water. His tee shot was just to the right of a trap, and he essayed to pitch over the hazard to the green. Imagine his surprise and dismay when the ball disappeared from view, and a second later a splash told the world that water was in that trap. Sure enough the ball had gone from view, and was buried in a foot or more of casual water.

Yet with all the trials and tribulations the golfers had a great time, and proclaimed the new Spring Mill course a real golf layout, and a treat for experts.

Kelly, Boardman, and his foursome did not start out until after the worst of the storm, and did not compete for the prizes, but their scores were very fine under the circumstances.

EAST FALLS CHURCH LEAGUE

Paddy Muschamp's St. James outfit trounced Good Shapherd on Monday evening, at Dobson Field by the score of 3 to 0.

While Bowers twirled a good game for the losers, the Sheepmen were unable to do anything at all with Reese, who did mound duty for the Jimmylads.

The score by innings:

On Tuesday night Falls Presbyterian forfeited to Methodist, but afterwards played a benefit game for the delectation of the fans.

Wednesday night was a repetition of the forfeit act when Baptist relinquished any claim to the game to be played with the Lutheran Larropers.

St. James came in for their second win of the week on Thursday night when they took the Methodist Meboys into camp with a score of 5 to 2.

The score by innings:

St. James 0 0 4 0 1—5
Methodist 1 1 0 0 0—2

Friday night was a Lutheran evening and the Midvale avenue team nosed out the Good Shapherd club in a 1-0 game.

Griff pitched for the Shawians and Ryan did the heaving for the Herdsmen.

Score by innings:

On Saturday afternoon, September 15, the Little World's Series will start in East Falls, between the base ball nine from the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer and a team which is not yet definitely known.

The final half of the league's scheduled games has been fought right down to the close of the season with Falls Methodist and St. James the less in a tie for first place. There will be a play-off game on Saturday of this week between the two teams, and the nine which triumphs will then enter the play-off series with Lutheran, who captured the first half title.

St. Bridget's team, through a protected game was also in the tie, making it a three-cornered affair, until Monday evening, when they magnanimously withdrew and left it for the Meboys and Jimmylads to fight out.

The games will start at 3 p. m. and will be played on Dobson Field at Queen lane and Cresson street.

Jimmylads Nose Out Meboys in Second Half

Billy Muschamp's baseball nine from St. James the Less Church will, through having eliminated Walter Jenkinson's Meboys last Saturday, be the Lutheran team's opponent in the Little World Series of the East Falls Church League, which starts next Saturday afternoon at Dobson Field.

The final figures, 5 to 2, which were exhibited on the scoreboard, told the story, for the digits gave a true idea of the ratio of superiority which the Jimmylads held over their Queen Lane antagonists. The battle for the leadership of the second half series—which is in reality what the week-end conflict was—was well worth witnessing; and while Reese, for the Episcopalians, appeared to hold the game in the hollow of his hand, the Meboys were at all times threatening; and a break in the game might have seen the Methodist lads fighting it out with Lutheran for the championship.

George Shaw will find that he has his work cut out for him, and his Lutheran Larroppers, when they face Mussy's Maulers, next Saturday and those who populated the Dobson Stadium, last week, and saw the brand of ball that the Jimmylads displayed, are inclined to think that the Shawlans will have to put their best foot forward to down Muschamp's nine.

Garrett started off the festivities by lambasting a clean double to center. Lister tried his best to advance the Laurel Hill luminary with a sacrifice, but it was gobbled up by Bob Jenkinson and thrown to the initial sack ahead of the Butter and Egg man. Hemphill expired via "Stan" Smith and Wilcox. Razzberry Jones fanned.

In the Methodist half, Al Homewood sent a spinner to Tucker Kelley who threw to first ahead of the Zebulon. Wierman knocked a hot one down the third base line, which was grabbed by Taylor, but the Razzberry, on first for the Jimmylads, dropped the throw, giving Guy a life. On Frank Lees' hit to right field, Wierman attempted to go to third, but Hemphill's sterling peg to the hot corner ruined the works.

Tucker Kelley started off the second inning by breezing. Taylor flew out to left field. Grill sent up a high infield fly and Frankus Lees had to duck the sun to snare the skyrocket. It was a soft inning for Calhoun, the Methodist twirler.

But in the final half, Reese had it just as easy, for Jimmy Homewood went out by way of the Garrett to Jones route; MacKenzie took his dose a la Taylor and Jones and "Stan" Smith ozoned.

Third Inning. Reese looked over four bad ones. Muschamp waved at three good ones. And then came the break! Garrett, decided to single, and carried out his plan. Lister sent Reese home with a torrid double to center this being the first run scored. Lister got caught napping. Hemphill wig-wagged. One run for the Clearfield street Clouters.

In the Methodist portion of the inning, Wilcox hit one to short, which Garrett snared and threw to first ahead of Charley. Jenkinson socked the apple right back to the Saint's twirler, Reese, who retired him at first. And right here the Meboys figured it was time to tie the score. "Zeb" Homewood's eyes were in good condition and he ambled. Wierman singled. Lees followed with a duplicate of the hit, scoring Homewood. Calhoun hit to the pitcher for the third out with Wierman and Lees stranded.

4th Round. Jones batted the sphere to Jenky who threw him out. Kelley expired when Calhoun stopped his hot liner and threw to first. Al Homewood made a wonderful catch of Taylor's long drive to center, retiring the side.

The Meboys' Turn. Taylor flivvered on Jimmy Homewood's wallop to third, for the Methodist marksman was safe when Taylor made a poor throw. However, Homewood died the next moment when he attempted to pilfer second, for Billy Muschamp picked him off with a fine peg to the middle cushion. MacKenzie flew out to Reese. Smith skied to the middle garden. No hits, no runs.

The fifth inning was the fateful one for it was in this frame that the Jimmylads scored their winning runs. Joe Grill started the fireworks by singling. Reese essayed to bunt and reached first safe when Calhoun held the ball too long. When Mussy saw the effect of that bunt he evidently issued orders for everyone to do likewise and the Meboys were "bunted" out of the contest. Muschamp bunted, Jenky hesitated and everybody survived. Garrett bunted safely and Grill and Reese came home and there were still two on base. Lister tried to bunt, but Charley Wilcox put him on unassisted. Hemphill singled and Muschamp and Garrett scored.

Jones struck out. On Kelley's knock to short, Stan Smith threw to second and killed Hemphill on a fielder's choice. Kelley was left on first base, but the damage had been done. Four hits and four runs.

Wilcox reached the first hassock when Jones' tee left the bag. Jenkinson hit to Kelley who threw him out. Umpire Cavanaugh's decision was against Al Homewood's eyesight. Wierman hit to the short stop but was retired at first.

Sixth spasm. Taylor flew out to MacKenzie. Joe Grill collected another single. Reese sacrificed him along to second. Grill was left marooned when Billy Muschamp whiffed.

The Meboys' Minute. Lees was retired by Garrett. Calhoun saw three swift ones cross the rubber. Jimmy Homewood singled. And then Don MacKenzie fanned.

Seventh stanza. Garrett was spared from running any further by Jenkinson's throw to first. Calhoun took care of Lister, by throwing his clout to first. Hemphill got on base when Wilcox erred, but was snuffed out a moment later, there being a fielder's choice on Raz Jones' knock to third.

In the latter half of the stanza Lindley, who had replaced Smith at short, for the Queen Lane laddies, went out through the efforts of Taylor and Jones. Wilcox singled. Jenkinson didn't connect with the three good ones which Reese put over the pan. Homewood singled sending Wilcox home with the Meboys last marker. Wierman was thrown out by Taylor.

8th Effort. Kelley and Taylor fanned. Grill collected his third single, but when Reese fell a victim to strikes Joe was stranded on second. Calhoun had struck the side out.

The Methodist Half. Lees skied to Hemphill, but tell the world that Sammy had to do some tall sprinting to catch the globe. Reese was almost knocked cold with Calhoun's sizzler to the pitcher's box but he recovered in time to throw out his heaving opponent. Jimmy Homewood expired when Garrett's throw to first beat him.

Curtains. Calhoun struck out the last three batters. Muschamp, Garrett and Lister in order.

After Hemphill had caught MacKenzie's long drive to right field, Lindley walked. Wilcox also walked, but the game ended with a rousing, double play when Jenkinson bammed one down to Taylor who caught Lindley coming into third and then threw to first ahead of the Methodist manager's brother.

EAST FALLS HAS "WORLD'S SERIES" ALL OF ITS OWN

Falls Presbyterian, St. Bridget's and St. James the Less.

Bobby Bates, who is recognized as the Dobsonville "Tex" Richard, as far as sporting events are concerned, annually grabs off a lead pencil and arranges a pair of schedules for the league. The first set of contests are played in the early half of the summer. The final games are played in the latter half of the hot spell. And then the winner of the first half and the victorious team of the second portion, meet each other in September to see which will become the owner of the big silver cup which the East Falls Business Men's Association never fails to donate.

Walter A. Costello, the League's president and Charles "Modest" Foley, the secretary have their hands full during the season to keep things going, but with a Board of Arbitration, which is composed of some of East Falls' leading lights, they somehow or other manage to hold the over-zealous managers and ball players in hand. This year, however, several problems arose and Connie Mack, himself, and Joe Cunningham, the Philadelphia Record cartoonist and "Al" Smith and Charley Melvaine adherent, were asked for the expert opinions and assisted in controlling things in general.

George Shaw's Lutheran team repeated their success of 1927 by winning the first half. Shaw, who has been playing base ball since Ridge avenue was an Indian trail, is credited with knowing more base ball than any one else in the town, with the exception of Dick Cole, "Doc" Byrnes and Hero McHale, and after looking over the boys he selected to play on his "nine" we believe that he is entitled to all the credit he receives. Scan this list of diamondizers and then judge for yourself: Harry and Tommy Connolly, Garside, A. and J. Leach, Donner, Fitzgerald, Ruby Grill, Munaw, Powers, Lyon, Martin, "Buzzer" Matthew's, Tommy McCann, Bill McDowell, Montgomery, and on occasions, George Shaw, himself. Some outfit, don't you think?

The second Half was was a battle clear down to the finish, for in the last week, Falls Methodist, St. James, and St. Bridget's were tie for first place. St. Bridget's dropped their protest over a game played earlier in the half and withdrew, leaving the field to Methodist and St. James. Last Saturday the two teams played the tie off and St. James came through with the battle by a 5 to 2 score, which leaves it up to St. James to argue the matter out with Lutheran for the cup. And the battle starts next Saturday at 3 p. m. at the Dobson Arena, Cresson and Queen lane. It will be worth your while to be there.

Billy Muschamp, who directs the Episcopal players, states that he will give Sage George a good run for his money, and advances the following eighteen reasons why: Benham, Edwards, Garrett, Joe Grill, Hemphill, Jones, Kelley, M. and R. Lister, Max, two Muschamps, Schadel, a couple of Taylors, Reese, Wrigley and Norton.

So the fan who wants to see some real sport—the kind that kings were unfortunate enough not to know—will travel East Fallsward on Saturday to watch the Little World Series at Dobson Field.

GREAT GAME EXPECTED

Connie Mack's Athletics may have fallen before the onslaughts of Babe Ruth and his cohorts. Bobby Jones may lose the golf championship, and a huge crowd of voters of these grand old United States may feel disgusted after the 6th of November, but in little old East Falls the sport bugs are aroused for their regular yearly dish of base ballitis during their own private World Series, and they are positively sure that a hometown team will win the gonfalon. Why? Well, let's tell you.

East Falls, you know, has a base ball league. It is composed of seven teams representing as many churches in the community. These are Falls Baptist, the Episcopal Church of the Good Shepherd, the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer, Falls Methodist,

JOE CUNNINGHAM GETS INTO A BASEBALL ARGUMENT

HERE IS THE SITUATION

AND THE ARGUMENT STARTED..

By RUFUS MCGOOFUS

THERE is another argument in East Falls. This time it is baseball, and the question arose during a game in the church league between St. Bridget's and the team of St. James the Less.

As the championship series cannot go on until the big problem has been settled, some qualified expert is wanted or a new Grand Jury.

Here is the play:

Two men were out; a man was on first base; the batter had two strikes. The next ball pitched was a low ball. The batter struck at it, but did not touch it. The ball, being low, hit the ground in back of the batter and bounced into the catcher's hands. The umpire called the man out. However, the man ran to first base and continued to second base. The man who was on first base in the beginning ran to third. The catcher did not make an attempt to get the batter at first base, but threw to third base to catch the man who had run from first base.

A says—The man was out, because it is the same as if the ball had went direct from the pitcher to the catcher, even though the batter struck at it.

B says—The play is the same as a trapped ball at first base, because the catcher received the ball on a pickup and the batter is out.

C says—The man is safe, because a ball must go direct to the catcher's hands, without touching the ground.

D asks—Should the protest be allowed; will game go on from that point or must it be played all over again?

In most any tone of voice this query, if it is a query, comes under the head of a baseball problem for an expert. There are two kinds of people who know very little about baseball—one who plays the game and the other is an expert.

Admitting we couldn't crash the line up at right field for the Starfish Giants, and not being able to talk loud with little information like the wise guys, we were floored for the count. All bets to be settled on our say-so and not knowing what to say.

There is an old army expression known as "passing the buck." Let the other guy take the slap, step from under and likewise shuffle out. Hence we casually explained the circumstances to one Gee Mackay, sports editor and author of "Is Zat So" and other fiction, who rapidly and loudly answered.

"The guy was safe on base; muffed third strike," says Mackay; and he is to blame if the decision is all wet.

FANS GET COLD SUPPER

By A. C. CHADWICK, Jr.

It required sixteen innings of the most fervid and heart-breaking thrills of base ball for Billy Muschamp's St. James the Less team to conquer George Shaw's Lutheran nine on Saturday afternoon, when the officials of the East Falls Church League staged the first game of the "Little World's Series" at Queen lane and Cresson street.

The digits which finally appeared on the non-electric scoreboard were a 4 in the Jimmlyads column and a 3 in the Lutheran line. But, oh boys, what a battle it was before those figures were displayed!

No matter where one roams, in any section of "these yere" United States, he is apt to be checked in his conversation, when base ball is the topic, by some ardent fan who butts in to tell of the most exciting game he ever saw. It may be that he raves over a World Series triumph of his favorite club, or perhaps it may have been a game for the championship of Podunk County, or some other such outlandish place, but nevertheless you are compelled to listen to the tale of what "the bug" considers the greatest ball game he ever witnessed.

Well, there were more than four hundred of these creatures who came into existence at Dobson field on Saturday, for after seeing that sixteen-inning contest, any of those whose base ball desires were not stated must have been both blind and deaf. With the rest of the crowd we arise to remark "It was the greatest ball game we ever saw!" and when our back is bent and we hobble around with the aid of a cane, our voice will somehow manage to squeak out that same old phrase.

Everybody, who is anybody, that could possibly get away from their job of pummeling life to collect the living which he owes them, was "among those present," Walter A. Costello, president of the League, strutted around during the entire fray, with a smile on his face which seemed to say, "Look at the brand of ball my boys are giving you." Even Modest Charlie Foley, the league's secretarial genius, who usually stays in the shadows of the dug-out, emerged during several of the tight places in the game to whisper, "What do you think of that?" Vice president Lyman Hess was here, there and everywhere bragging about the talent which the league has brought forth to the light of day. We didn't see Treasurer Walter Jenkinson, but we're here to wager an old straw hat against a new felt Stetson that Jenky was around somewhere telling the world about his way base ball is played in Dobsonville. After the battle was over, we saw him at work, up at the Veteran's Frolic in Roxborough and reports come to us that he was one of the organization's super salesmen that night. He was so elated over the sixteen-inning game that his enthusiasm was spontaneous and no one could resist him.

This coming Saturday will see the two teams clash again and a bigger crowd than ever is expected. Now that the nines have faced each other and the managers have tried out their preliminary strategies, the best brand of base ball will come in the remainder of the series.

The fan who is looking for an opportunity of seeing some good diamond pastiming will be on hand at the East Falls Stadium on Saturday afternoon.

Previous to the fracas of last week, there was a ball throwing contest, the officials of which included Lyman Hess, Henry Welch, William O'Donnell, William McFarland, Hero McHale, Arthur Warrington and oodles of assistants. The contest was won by Bernard Matthews, the Lutheran catcher, who heaved the ball for 308 feet and three inches. Reese, the St. James twirler, was second with a throw of 305 feet and 11 inches. The first was awarded a $2.50 gold piece and the latter received a gold penknife from members of the East Falls Business Men's Association.

The embroglio started off with both teams as nervous as an inexperienced bridegroom and the Jimmlyads, who batted first scored a run when Garside dropped Lister's fly in right field which permitted the Butter and Egg man to come home on Raz Jones' single.

In the Lutheran half, Dooner walked, Rube Grill singled and after Matthews and Tom Connolly perished, Garrett made a wierd throw to first that looked as though he was trying to pot a Lindbergh who was flying over the diamond. Harry Connolly didn't move rapidly enough to get out of the way of one of Reese's fast ones, and and the tenseness of the Episcopallians permitted the Bauerboys to score two runs.

After that initial inning the players settled down and the conflict developed into one that will live forever in the memories of those who participated in or witnessed it.

In the ninth inning, with Buzzer Matthews, the Redeemer receiver, on first, Rube Grill, who was batting, was called out by Umpire Golden for interfering with Muschamp's throw to second to head off his catching rival. In the argument, which followed, the Reuben and Manager Shaw were banished and Tommy Connolly, with a heart as courageous as a lion, stepped in the breach to finish the pitching for the Lutheran Lads and successfully held his opponents scoreless until the final frame.

We hold no briefs for umpires for we with thousands of others, have often joined the bleacher chorus of "Kill the Ump! He's a robber!" But nevertheless we are compelled to admit that discipline is necessary on a ball field and we are not going to type any opinion of the correctness of Golden and Cavanaugh's decisions for our readers. The arbiter's ruling is the one that stands, as far as we are concerned. The decision which he makes against us today, may be in our favor tomorrow. Who knows?

But let's go on with the tale:

First inning, St. James: Garrett fanned. Lister got a life when Garside was stricken with nervousness and dropped his fly to right field. Hemphill bunted to the pitcher and was thrown out. Jones singled and Lister scored by the narrowest of margins. Kelly was put out by Dimmo McCann, unassisted. One hit, one error, one run.

Lutheran: "Silent" Dooner walked. Matthews flew out to right field. Ruby Grill singled. Tom Connolly sent a sky liner to Lister. Martin reached first safely when Garrett made a throw to first which would have made Jones climb a 20 foot ladder to reach, but got out a moment later when Powers hit one to Garrett who chose to throw to second, killing Old Man Connolly's son. One hit, one walk, one error, two runs.

Second frame, St. James: Taylor whiffed. Ruby Grill took care of Joe Grill by throwing him out at first. Reese breezed. No hits. No runs.

Lutheran. Garside ozoned. Dimmo McCann skied one to Ernie Taylor. Dooner was hit by a pitched ball. Matthews walked. These two were left stranded when Ruby Grill hit to Garrett. No hits, one walk. No runs.

Third tilt, St. James: Muschamp heard Empire Golden say "strike three!" Garrett ambled. So did Lister. Buzzer Matthews had a mental lapse and threw to second. The throw was wild and Garrett scampered home with the tying run. Hemphill's eyesight wasn't so good, so he also listened to a detrimental speech by Golden. Raz Jones sent a high fly to Powers in centerfield. No hits, 2 walks, one run.

Lutheran: Tommy Connolly tried to start something and bunted. Reese's throw to first killed him and his plan. Martin and Umpire Golden agreed on four wide ones. Harry Connolly singled, chasing Martin to third. Powers hit down the third base line, but Taylor gobbled it up and threw to first ahead of the runner. Garside duplicated Powers' actions. One hit, one walk, no runs.

Fourth Fizzle, St. James: Tucker Kelley doubled to left-center. Taylor fell a victim to strikes. These Grill boys are a reciprocal lot, for once more Ruby took care of Joe, by catching his high fly to the pitcher's box. Reese and Golden didn't agree, on what came over the plate. One hit, no runs.

Lutheran: McCann hit to second, but the Tucker killed him at first. Dooner and Matthews couldn't connect with the six curves which Reese threw to Bill Muschamp. No hits, no runs.

Fifth Fiasco, St. James: Muschamp sent a high fly to McCann. Garrett just waved at three good ones. Lister flew out to Harry Connolly. No hits, no runs.

Lutheran: Rube Grill was thrown out by Garrett. Tommy Connolly sent up a high foul fly which had Billy Muschamp running around in circles before he snared it. Martin had a close eye on four bad ones. Harry Connolly was spared when Taylor bobbed. Powers took a hike. Garside left the bases populated when he sent a fly to Garrett of Laurel Hill. No hits, two walks, one error, no runs.

Sixth stanza, St. James: Sammy Hemphill finally connected and drove out a single. Raz Jones bunted him along to second, but was retired at first himself. Kelley came through with a one base knock. Ernie Taylor popped up a foul to Buzzer. Joe Grill outwitted his pitching namesake and singled, scoring Hemphill with the third marker for the Clearfield street clan. Reese was fanned with second and third occupied. Three hits, one run.

Lutheran: McCann looked over three throws which "Ump" Golden called strikes. Dooner hit to Kelley, who pushed the ball to first ahead of the speedy mule. Buzzer Matthews singled and stole second, but was left away out there in the middle of the diamond when Ruby Grill couldn't connect. One hit, no runs.

Seventh spasm, St. James: Muschamp, never even saw the three speedy ones which Grill threw to Matthews. Garrett's eyesight wasn't a bit better. Lister however, connected for a single, but was marooned on the initial bag when Hemphill hit to Harry Connolly. One hit, no runs.

Lutheran: Tom Connolly slammed one to Garrett who had no trouble retiring his shortstopping opponent at first. Martin fanned. Harry Connolly lifted one to Sammy Hemphill. No hits, no runs.

Eighth period, St. James: Jones was erased by the strikeout method. Kelly flew out to McCann. Taylor bingled a one base knock. Joe Grill and got a moment's respite when Tommy Connolly bobbed but was soon snuffed out when Reese hit to the heady shortstop, who in turn threw to his brother, Harry, retiring Joesy Grill. One hit, one error, no runs.

Lutheran: Powers skied to Hemphill. Garrett and Jones accounted for Garside's demise. Dimmo McCann singled and then stole second. It was of no avail, for Dooner was picked off by Raz Jones, all by himself.

Ninth knot-tyer, St. James. Muschamp sent up a pop foul to Buzzer Matthews. Garrett sent his sky rocket to Harry Connolly. Lister was thrown out by Tom Connolly. No hits, no runs.

And then came the big thriller in the Lutheran half of the ninth. Matthews walked, stole second and third. Ruby Grill was called out for interfering with Muschamp's throw to second where he tried to catch the Buzzer. An argument ensued and Umpire Golden chased Manager Shaw from the field. Ruby Grill pressed the arbiter so incessantly for an explanation, that he, too, was requested to visit the showers. Tommy Connolly reached first safely when Reese erred. Martin singled, sending the Buzzer home with the run which kept the game going until the sixteenth. Harry Connolly hit one to shortstop, but the St. James player chose to pick his brother off at the home plate. This run would have scored and the game would have been in the Lutheran column except for some faulty coaching at third. Powers ended the heart-breaking inning by being thrown out by Reese. One hit, one error, one walk and one run.

Tenth Tilt: On account of the umpire's action it became necessary for the Lutheran team to make some changes. Tommy Connolly went into the pitching box. Powers went to centerfield. Garside was moved to first base. Dimmo McCann was switched to second, Harry Connolly moved over to short and Leach took care of the right garden.

St. James: Hemphill hit a hot one down to first base which Garside gobbled up for a put out. Jones singled. Kelley flew out to Dooner. Taylor skied one to Harry Connolly, now playing shortstop. One hit, no runs.

St. James: Lutheran: Garside fanned. McCann walked, but was picked off on a fielder's choice of Dooner's slam to Garrett. Matthews reached first safely on Garrett's second error. Leach flew out to Kelley. No hits, one walk, one error, no runs.

Eleventh Nerve Wrecker, St. James: Joe Grill opened with a hot one to Harry Connolly, who threw him out at first. Reese doubled. Muschamp took his third dose of strike poison. And then Garrett left Pitcher Reese stranded when he slammed one to Martin, who killed him at first. One hit, no runs.

Lutheran: Tommy Connolly singled. And then Martin, Harry Connolly and Powers waved their bats without hitting anything. One hit, no runs.

Twelfth Tidal Wave: Supper all cold at this time: St. James: Lister pedestrianated. Hemphill fell before Connolly's curves. Jones lifted one to Dooner, and Kelley flew out to Martin. No hits, one walk, no runs.

Lutheran: Garside hoisted a high one to Jones. McCann followed suit with one to Garrett. Reese threw out Dooner. No hits, no runs.

Thirteenth Division: St. James: Kelley took one of Connolly's pitches on the middle of the back. On a fielder's choice he was picked off at second when Joe Grill hit to the shortstop. Joseph also was nicked when Buzzer Matthews threw to the middle cushion, catching the only Grill that was left in the game, trying to steal the bag. It was a tough break, for a moment later Reese doubled. Muschamp left his battery mate on the far hassock when he hit one to Second Baseman McCann who retired Mussy at first. One hit, no runs.

Lutheran: Matthews skied one to Lister, Kelley and Jones finished Leach. Joe Grill snared Tommy Connolly's long drive to centerfield. No hits. No runs.

Fourteenth Frenzy: St. James: Garrett was thrown out by Martin. Harry Connolly threw out the next two batters, Lister and Hemphill. No hits, no runs.

Lutheran: Martin was deleted by Garrett and Jones. Grill held on to Harry Connolly's centerfield rocket. Powers doubled but was left when Garside sent a high one to Kelley. One hit, no runs.

Fifteenth Futility: St. James: Jones spun out a one baser. Twirler Connolly retired Kelley at first. Martin took care of Taylor and Grill by throwing the ball to Garside before the runners reached first. One hit, no runs.

Lutheran: McCann drove one to Taylor, who threw him out. Reese retired Dooner, unassisted. Matthews bludgeoned a one base blow, but Leach fell down by striking out. One hit, no runs.

Sixteenth and Final Set To, with the fans almost starved and hundreds of wives fuming: St. James: Reese and Muschamp fanned. Garrett singled and stole his way around to second. On Lister's single the light of Laurel Hill pranced home with what proved to be the winning marker. Hemphill ended the St. James portion by sending a foul to Garside. 2 hits, 1 run.

Lutheran Lacrimose: Tom Connolly flew out to Jones. Martin sent his fly to the second baseman, Kelley. Harry Connolly tried to revive his teammates' drooping spirits by singling, but Powers ended the "best game we have ever seen" by sending a high one to Garrett.

Here's the figures: If you're a St. James rooter, grin over 'em, but if you have Lutheran tendencies, read 'em and weep:

LUTHERANS EVEN UP EAST FALLS SERIES

6-1 Victory Deadlocks "Little World's Series" at One Game Each

FINAL GAME SATURDAY

BY A. C. CHADWICK, JR.

Gordian aspect appeared in the problem of setting the championship of the East Falls Church League, when on Saturday afternoon George Shaw's Lutheran nine came back in the second game of the Little World Series with St. James and annexed the contest by a six to one count, tying things all up and making everything even Stephen between the two contenders.

Smarting under the 4-3 sixteen inning defeat of last week, the Shawians came out on the diamond with a look of determination on their countenances which presaged no quarter for their rivals.

Ruby Grill, after his 12 strikeouts in the opening fray, again faced the Episcopalians and mowed down no less than sixteen more of the Jimmys on strikes, bringing his series total up to 28 whifflings in 18 innings. Grill also scintillated with the Louisville for out of five trips to the plate he blasted out two doubles and a smashing triple and secured a base on balls, all of which counted heavily in the scoring. It was truly a Grill victory, although he was ably abetted by one Tommy Connolly, the Roxborough alumnus, who clouted out a pair of singles, driving in two runs and scoring two for himself. Garside and Buzzer Matthews were the other Lutheran lights which gleamed out to show the way to the home plate.

For St. James, Reese and Garrett again performed well, although not up to the mark they set a week ago. Ruby's rockets were too much for them. Sammy Hemphill, who was originally drafted from the "Wisecrack League" batted a thousand at his favorite pastime, but couldn't connect safely with the trajectories zoomed up by the Lutheran twirler.

A remarkable feature of the battle was the fact that it was an errorless game until the final half of the ninth inning. In that period Paddy Muschamp dropped Taylor's perfect peg to first, permitting Garside to arrive safely, and then the usually reliable Joe Grill allowed Matthew's short fly to center, to bounce out of his hands. Otherwise the game was played according to Hoyle and the Marquis of Queensbury rules.

Both factions had large delegations of loyal legionnaires cheering them on to victory, led by the pastors of the two churches. Rev. Ulla E. Bauer, the Lutheran spiritual leader was the man who was entitled to leave the field with the winner's smile on his face, while Reverends Harriman and Woods, were compelled to go home with nothing on their faces but smiles of hope for next Saturday's game.

A non-too silent rooster for the Lutheran team was Harry Connolly, Sr., who was out in the first base bleachers cheering loud and long for his two athletic sons, Tommy and Harry. And after this second contest he went home satisfied.

And now everything is being planned by Managers Shaw and Muschamp to wrap up the gonfalon on next Saturday when the two teams lock horns in the deciding battle, which will be played on Dobson Field, starting at 3 p. m. President Costello, head of the East Falls' lively little base ball organization, and the other officials, are all ready to greet a huge crowd, who are expected to be on hand to witness the final set-to and have every preparation for the enjoyment and comfort of the fans.

FINAL GAME OF FALLS SERIES ON SATURDAY

East Falls' "Little World Series" was washed out on Saturday when Jupiter Pluvius opened up his flood gates and drenched Dobson Field.

President Walter Costello and Secretary Charles Foley had a band out on Friday night reminding the fans of the big final game to be played the next day and evidently they roused "Jupe" who probably thought the baseball moguls were basking too much in the limelight, for sometime during the night he started to weep and put the kibosh on the ball game.

Managers Shaw and Muschamp of the Lutheran and St James teams, respectively, were all set for the deciding skirmish, and all kinds of supplications ascended to the heavens for the rain-god to net like a regular fellow.

However, patience is a virtue, and the "bugs" will have an opportunity of seeing a champion crowned next Saturday afternoon at the Queen lane stadium for the last game will be played at that time and place,—if Jupe doesn't show up.

LUTHERANS VICTORS IN PLAY-OFF SERIES FOR FALLS CROWN

GRILL HAS CLOSE SQUEAK IN FIFTH

Third, and Deciding Game,
Full of Great Deeds by Hurlers and Batsmen

TO AWARD CUP OCT. 18

By A. C. Chadwick, Jr.

Like the Japanese beetles, the base ball bugs of East Falls went into hibernation until next year, when George Shaw's Lutheran team defeated Billy Muschamp's nine in the final game of "The Little World Series," by a 4 to 2 count on Saturday afternoon, at Dobson Field.

The deciding game, like the two which preceded it, was filled to overflowing with tense moments and had the spectators sitting on the edge of their seats throughout the contest. In the fifth frame, Rube Grill temporarily lost control and could not locate the rubber, with the result that he walked three men, but a scintillating double play by the sons of Harry Connolly, saved the day and we think—the championship. However, in the succeeding innings Grill regained his composure and prevented the league crown from sitting on the heads of the Episcopalians.

In reviewing the series, the outstanding lights of the contests were: the pitching of Reese and Grill, the stellar work of the Connolly boys, and the fine brand of base ball exhibited by Garrett, Lister, Jones and Taylor of St. James and that of Matthews, Martin and Powers of the Lutheran club.

Reese twirled the entire 33 innings for the Jimmys and gave a wonderful demonstration of the "iron man" abilities which he possesses. His work was just a little below that of Grill's who was without a doubt the most prominent figure in the group of diamond warriors. Grill heaved the ball up to the home plate for 27 innings and set several records which will probably stand for years. Tommy

The games were conducted with all the decorum of a genuine World Series and the officers of the League; Walter A. Costello, president, Lyman Hess, vice president, Charles M. Foley, secretary and Walter Jenkinson, treasurer, are being congratulated on all sides for the manner in which the final play-off was staged.

The fans who followed the various teams throughout the regular playing season are the ones who most enjoyed the deciding games, and those who were first attracted by this final series of 1928 were surprised at the calibre of baseball which was played. The series will more than likely be the means of drawing larger crowds to the games next year. Now that the league has finished its second year, those in charge find that its prestige is growing, and the teams and individual players developing the perfection which is only looked for on big league diamonds.

The Winning Lutheran team will be presented with the East Falls Business Men's cup, emblematic of the Championship, at the Church League Banquet, which will be held in Palestine Hall, Ridge and Midvale avenues, on Thursday evening, October 18th. All of the players in the League will be in attendance and any of their friends and well-wishers who may want to be in on the big party. Tickets of admission can be obtained from the League Treasurer, Walter Jenkinson, 3420 Queen lane.

The play by innings:

The Jimmys: Garrett opened with a long fly to right field which Dimmo McCann bobbled and after he threw to second Harry Connolly repeated the right fielder's feat by dropping the sphere. Lister attempted to sacrifice but accomplished nothing, and was thrown out. Matthews to Garside. Schadel hit a hot one down to Tommy Connolly and on the fielder's choice Garrett perished at the home rubber. Razz Jones hit a long single to right field and the speedy diamond setter, Schadel, raced all the way home from first with the first marker. Kelley popped up a four to Martin, ending the half, 2 errors, one hit, one run.

The Bauerboys: Dooner fell a victim to Reese's shoots. Matthews waited until the Episcopal hurler had thrown four wide ones. Ruby Grill clouted a double to right field scoring his battery mate, Tom Connolly listened to a strike out lecture. Martin skied one to Herb Muschamp, who failed to squeeze the horsehide and Martin tabbed first safely, and the Rube scored. Harry Connolly's dogs touched the initial cushion safely, when Garrett bobbled his hot one to short. The third baseman and the second baseman were stranded when Powers was thrown out by Garrett. One walk, one hit, two errors, two runs.

Second Frame. Jimmys: Muschamp whiffed. Joe Grill was bruised by a pitched ball. Reese crossed Ruby Grill by placing an arching bunt over the Lutheran twirler's head. His clever work, however, was all in vain for a moment later Garside threw to H. Connolly and caught Joe Grill at sec-end. Taylor's bat had a hole in it. One hit, no runs.

Bauerboys: Joe Grill personally took care of the first two Lutheran batters, Garside and McCann, and Reese didn't deliver any wide ones to "Mutes" Dooner. No hits, no runs.

Third Inning. Jimmylads: Garrett jifted a high one to McCann. Lister walked. Schadel breezed. Jones socked out his second hit, a single to right field, but both he and Lister were marooned when Tucker Kelley watched three good ones zoom by. One walk, no hits, no hits.

Bauerboys: Matthews was thrown out by Garrett and Tucker Kelley pushed the ball over to first in time to get both of the following batters, Rube Grill and Tom Connolly. No hits, no runs.

Fourth Inning: Jimmydals: Herb Muschamp found it impossible to get to first before Tom Connolly's throw; Joe Grill tagged one to left for a single, but could not advance on account of Reese falling before three strikes and Taylor being thrown out by Ruby. One hit, no runs.

Bauerboys: Martin strolled. Harry Connolly sacrificed him to second, Reese throwing the martyr out. Powers took a Reese throw on the hip, and was waved to first by the Ump. Garside gave up his life for his teammates, Martin going to third and Powers to second. McCann looped a fly to the Attic, at short. One walk, no runs.

Fifth Inning. The James Boys: In which they pretty nearly robbed Rube of the championship. Garrett ambled, and when Lister took up his bludgeon, he socked one to Tom Connolly, who erred. The big Reading fireman found himself in hot water and no control over the safety valves when he walked Schadel, loading the upholstery. Jones tried his best, but by this time Ruby had thrown open the furnace and dampened the fire for a moment, for the Raspberry was fanned. But it was only temporary for Tucker Kelley decided that he, too, would walk, which he did, thereby forcing Garrett, the roof of the house, home with the tying run, with the sacks densely populated. Herb Muschamp slammed one to Tommy Connolly for a double play, T. to H. Connolly to Garside, which saved the Lutheran Locomotive's head plate. Three walks, one error, one run.

The Bauerboys' Comeback: Dooner stood at the plate for a while and then turned to see Arbitrator Cooper wave "strike three." Buzz Matthews singled to center and advanced to second on a wild pitch by Reese. The youthful son of Bobby Matthews' must have worried the Paradise pitcher for he let loose another wild heave, which permitted the Lutheran receiver to move up to third base. Matthews scored what eventually proved the winning run a moment later when Rube Grill sent a long sacrifice fly to right field. Tom Connolly ended the wierd inning by fanning. One hit, two wild pitches, one run.

Sixth Scrimmage. The Subdued James Boys: Joe Grill's bat hit nothing but atmosphere. Reese flew out to Powers. Taylor, was thrown out by Martin. No hits, no runs.

The Bold Bauerboys: Martin expired via Garrett and Jones. Harry Connolly carefully selected four balls. Powers skied to Lister and on a fielder's choice on Garside's rap, to short, Garrett and Kelley snuffed out Harry Connolly at second. One walk, no runs.

Seventh Set. The House of Harri-man: Garrett met his fate via the H. Connolly to Garside route; Harry Connolly had no trouble snaring Lister's fly to second and Dooner gobbled up Schadel's fly to left. No hits, no runs.

Lutheran Lights: In a three-cornered conference between Dooner, Reese and the second man back of th home plate, Reese was out-voted and Dooner walked; Matthews took a dislike to one of Reese's shoots and shot it back so fast to the pitcher, as to make that worthy put out his bare hand to stop it, with the result that he made a poor throw to first and the Buzzer was declared safe. The throw being wild, both runners advanced an extra base. Rube Grill hit into a fielder's choice, and a quick throw to third retired Dooner. On Tom Connolly's single to center Matthews raced home with the last Lutheran marker. Martin was thrown out by Kelley. One walk, one error, one hit, one run.

Eighth Act. Episcopal Effort: Jones walked. Kelley waved his bat futilely through the air, and when Muschamp sent a fly to Tommy Connolly, Jones misjudged the conditions and advanced to second and was unable to return to first before Connolly threw the ball to Garside. One walk, no runs.

The Bauerboys' Turn: Ruby Grill tried to knock the flag pole down with his long drive to center but another of the Grill Clan, one Joseph, raced "away out there" and speared it for an out. Powers hit a single to left, but was left stranded when Garside flew out to center and McCann ozoned. One hit, no runs.

The Ninth and Curtains on East Falls' Base Ball for 1928. Jimmylads: Joe Grill laced out a pretty hit between center and right fields. Reese fell before Rube's trajectories. Taylor singled to left. Garrett popped up a foul fly along the first base line which was shared by Rube Grill, and the championship of the Church League and the Big Silver Cup, presented by the East Falls Business Men's Association became the property of George Shaw and his Lutheran Luminaries when Lister ended the fracas by being thrown out by Harry Connolly. Two hits, no runs.

Foul Tips

We were familiarly accosted by a stranger with whiskers and a pipe, and were later informed that it was Buffalo.

Dave Grill played the first game all the way down Queen lane and along Ridge avenue, for a week after the opening tilt ended but now there is nothing left to explain.

We have a feeling that somehow or other that Dobson's lot wouldn't look natural if Dick Coje weren't among those present.

We remembered Jack Coombs, of the old "A's" and the "rep" he built up as an iron man, but the East Falls Church League has its own John Reese.

The steel works is just outside of the playing field and it is O. K. with us, and is also in accordance with Manager Shaw's strategy, providing the steal—works.

Smiles for the living and blooms for the dead. We don't believe there were any dead ones at the game on Saturday and therefore can't understand why

Pat Kelley's dog was running around loose.

We noticed several residents of Conarroe street on the third base line, but they weren't along our side. Oh! Wurra! Wurra!

The Costellos' and Brills' may be in the jewelry business but we'll lay a little bet, O Pal, that they never saw a finer setting than a Ruby on a Diamond.

A base ball game without a Matthews would have about as much thrill in it as a fellow kissing his brother.

We heard one of the St. James players say he was going to hit Rube's shoots all over the lot, and he did like Kelley did!

We don't know how good the new Ump, Cooper, is on barrels, but we noticed he knows all about bbp bottles.

PLAN BANQUET FOR BASEBALL PLAYERS

Annual Affair of Falls Church League to be Held on October 18

LUTHERANS TO GET CUP

Now that George Shaw's Lutheran base ball team has emerged victorious in the summer-long battle for the East Falls Church League Cup, the officials of the league are arranging the sportman's big treat—the Base Ball Banquet—for next Thursday night, October 18th.

This year the affair will be held in Palestine Hall, at Ridge and Midvale avenue, and in addition to all the players of the League, there will be scores of their loyal followers who will want to attend, and provision has been made for all these that the hall will hold. There will be ladybugs well as those who sing bass, which will be an innovation.

President Walter A. Costello will don his "soup and fish" and drag the retiring Lyman Hess, who is a "pinch hitter" for the prexy, with him to the speaker's table. We can imagine Charley Foley, the league's scribe, acting as umpire—or usher, as you will—and Walter Jenkinson, the watchdog of the treasury acting as strong arm man to withhold the One Eyed Connolly's who will attempt to crash the gate. Nobody will get by Walter, we'll guarantee that, for we observed him in action at the Costello-McIlvaine dinner, when a high official of one of Philadelphia's largest sporting clubs appeared at the door with no pasteboard.

Arthur "Bricks" Warrington, the league statistician will be there to keep tabs on those who want "seconds" and James "Hero" McHale will be in attendance to lend color to the scene.

"Bill" McFarland, the leader of the East Falls Business Men's Association will be on hand to hand Sage George the Business Men's Cup which he and his team have earned, and someone will be delegated to give "Wee Willie" Muschamp, the manager of the St James' running-up club, another cup on behalf of the League itself.

There will be a lot of praise handed out to all of the shining lights of the league, prizes given to those who were the best batsmen, the leading pitcher, the greatest base-stealer, for the most home runs, and a dozen or more things which was promised the boys by the various members of the Business Men's Association and the Base Ball League officials.

Turkey—yes, we believe there'll be turkey—but not of the Boo Boo kind. One may attend the big feed and eat all of the succulent bird that he desires—and if John Monaghan happens to stroll in the hall he'll give everyone a pat on the back for doing so. Next Thursday is the big night in East Falls.

LAD HURT IN GAME WITH "WILDCATS"

Foy's Fractured Hip Mars
Victory Over South
Phila' Rangers

"CATS" TEAMWORK GOOD

Quarter-back Foy, of the South Philadelphia Rangers, sustained a fractured hip last Sunday on Dobson's Field, in East Falls, when the Rangers met, and were defeated by Welsh's Wildcats in a 14-0 struggle. The injured lad was taken to Memorial Hospital, where his injury was diagnosed and treated.

The Wildcat's teamwork showed up well, and it was a great factor in "Bringin' home the bacon." Brown crossed the line after a 40-yard run, being aided in his dash by splendid interference by Ramsey. O'Brien scored in the third quarter after receiving a pass from Strenger.

The 'Cats' backfield did not run smoothly and the line was slow in opening the holes.

The lineup:

Rangers	Wildcats
Stevens L. E.	Kelly
Gatto L. T.	Lewis
Sampson ... L. G.	Stonelake
Wettanfer C.	Kemp
Wheeler R. G.	Kesher

CUP PRESENTED TO SHAW'S LUTHERANS

Second Annual Banquet of East Falls Church League Held in Palestine Hall

"RUBE" GRILL PRAISED

About two hundred baseball players, league officials and their friends crowded into Palestine Hall, at Ridge and Midvale avenues, last Thursday evening when the Second Annual East Falls Church League Banquet was held at the end of another successful season.

Walter A. Costello, president of the strongest amateur league in Philadelphia, served as toastmaster in a most delightful manner and introduced the various speakers with his usual running fire of witty remarks.

After everyone had assembled at the tables, bearing the vlands prepared by the incomparable McCallister, the toastmaster called upon Rev. Ulla E. Bauer, of the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer for a prayer of Thanksgiving and Rev. Charles Jarvis Harriman, of St. James the Less Church asked a blessing.

The Falls Male Chorus, composed of George Gotwals, Walter Smith, Donald MacKenzie and Stanley Smith rendered two pleasing vocal selections, being accompanied on the piano by Walter Hardill.

The 1928 Champion Lutheran team, the running-up St. James the Less club, the individual players, umpires and even the losers were praised and congratulated on the manner in which local baseball doings had been conducted. Competitive sports were lauded as a means of displaying courage, sacrifice, sportsmanship and physical capability and many of the speeches were punctuated with humorous illustrations which kept everyone keenly interested.

The speakers included Rev. Edward Ritchie, of St. James the Less Church, Rev. William B. Cooke, of the Falls Presbyterian Church, Rev. John S. Tomlinson, of the Falls Methodist Church, Rev. Elmer E. Kortekamp, of St. Bridget's Church, Rev. Daniel Wood, of St. James the Less, Rev. Joseph F. McMahon, of St. Bridget's Church, Rev. Ulla E. Bauer, of the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer, John B. Kelly, of Olympic rowing fame; William B. McFarland, president of the East Falls Business Men's Association; P. J. Kelley vice president of the same organization Howard Berry, former University of Pennsylvania All-American football star; Charles McIlvaine, who while paired with Paul Costello, recently won the World's Doubles Rowing Championship in Holland; Lyman Hess Harker, vice president of the Baseball League; J. Griffith Boardman, who on the day previous won the golf championship of the Penn A. C., by defeating "Woody" Platt; Joseph J. Doyle, of the Baseball League Governing Board, and Walter Jenkinson, treasurer of the League.

The Championship Cup, annually donated by the East Falls Business Men's Association was presented by William B. McFarland, the tradesmen's leader, to Manager George Shaw, of the winning Lutheran team. Mr. Shaw thanked the business men for the trophy and modestly handed the credit of winning it to his teammates, and stated that it would be placed in a prominent place as an inspiration for other youths who strive for like honors. He also paid a nice compliment to the St. James the Less team which battled the Lutheran club right down to the end of the season.

Toastmaster Costello presented the John E. Smithies Awards, of $10 each to the winning manager and captain, who were George Shaw and Thomas Connolly, respectively. Each expressed his thanks to Mr. Smithies.

It fell the lot of P. J. Kelley, vice president of the East Falls Business Men's Association, who is also a member of the Board of Governors of the Church League, to present the St. James the Less team with the League's trophy which is annually awarded to the team finishing in second place. This was received by William Muschamp, the manager of the Jimmys, who responded with a brief speech of thanks on behalf of himself and the members of his club.

Howard Berry paid a wonderful tribute to Ruby Grill, the twirling ace of the Lutheran team when he handed that player the Howard Berry Trophy, for being the most popular and valuable player in the League for 1928.

Mr. Berry contributed the trophy at the beginning of the season and stated at that time that the players of the league, themselves, were to select the man to whom it would be presented. As each ball player entered the dining room, he handed his vote to a member of a Board of Tellers, who tabulated them for a final tally. Grill received the majority of the votes, proving that his fellow players, both on his own team and on opposing clubs, held the highest respect for his ability and character. And when the fans heard his name announced, they, too, voiced their ardent approval. In presenting the trophy, Mr. Berry read off the following figures concerning "the Rube's" activities:

Grill played 22 of the 23 games played by the Lutheran team.

He pitched 12 games, winning eight, losing none, tying two and acted as relief hurler in 2.

He had 64 strikeouts for the season and also pitched 27 innings of the 33 played in the playoff series. In this latter series he had 36 strikeouts.

During the season he also played first base and right field.

His batting average was .350.

Lyman Hess Harker, presented James Matthews, of St. Bridget's Club with the A. G. Spalding Trophy, for being the League's leading slicksmith. Matthews emerged from the season's campaign with a batting average of .545.

Joseph J. Doyle, a member of the Board of Governors, arose to laud the League president, Walter Costello for the capable manner in which he conducted the affairs of the organization. His remarks met with vociferous applauding from the players and their guests. Mr. Doyle then called out the name of each of the Lutheran players and each was presented with a woolen sweater, the gift of the League.

Those who received sweaters were Captain Thomas Connolly, Harry Connolly, Robert Frazer, Albert Garside, Egber Martin, Thomas McCann, Richard Powers, John Leach, Andrew Leach, "Silent" Dooner, Bernard Matthews and Ruby Grill.

Walter Jenkinson, the League Treasurer, was the next Santa Claus who appeared on the program and on behalf of the officials of the League he presented Michael Cummings, his gate assistant, with a sweater similar to those given the Lutheran players. He then called Arthur Warrington, the League statistician to the front and handed him a pencil and pen set. He still had a fast one left in his system for the next name he called was none other than that of this representative of the Roxborough Times, who was the recipient of a handsome silk umbrella, the gift of the League. (We again express our surprise and gratitude.)

Fred Strenger, representing the East Falls office of the Manayunk-Quaker City National Bank came forth from a hiding place some where down near the door to present James Matthews, of the St. Bridget's team, the Bank's Award of a Ten Dollar Gold piece for being the League's leading hitter.

A communication was read from one "Tommy" Denton, who had always been active in baseball and sporting circles, but who early this year left East Falls to make his home in Ontario, Canada. Mr. Denton penned his regret at not being able to be present and congratulated ulated the winning team and the league officials for the successful conclusion of another season.

President Costello gave a report of the financial condition of the league and expressed his thanks for the support which the people of East Falls had given to the various teams. He paid his respects to the women of the community when he said they "they too, have played a great part in the success of our games, for often they have had to stay at home keeping suppers warm for us when we were late, and very possibly some of the younger women waited for the single fellows, on Wednesday nights, while those chaps were out there on Dobson's Field playing ball." He then asked for one of the ladies to arise and say something to the boys and his request was granted by Mrs. Thomas Graver, one of the game's most ardent feminine fans. Mrs. Graver voiced her clation that the Lutheran team had come out victorious and expressed her appreciation for the enjoyment she obtained in watching the boys on the diamond.

And then, when President Costello, had about decided to break up the good time, the ever-active

Joseph Doyle, once more jumped up to make another presentation speech. This time it was on behalf of the League players, themselves, who wanted to display their feelings toward their leader. Mr. Doyle, as spokesman for the players handed Mr. Costello a beautiful picture depicting the Good Shepherd leading his flock, which was fittingly emblematic of the work which the League's leader has done for the youthful athletes of the community.

And thus descended the 1928 curtain on baseball in East Falls.

FALLS "TOSSERS" TO START SEASON

East Falls Church League Organization for Winter Contests

FOUR TEAMS ENTERED

After a most successful baseball season the East Falls Church League is again taking up the cage game and starts the winter sport with four basketball teams entered, and four others expected to join immediately.

Those already signed up are St. James the Less, St. Bridgets, the Lutherans and the Falls Presbyterians.

The official opening date of the league is Tuesday next, when the Jimmy-lads will clash with St. Bridgets, and the Lutherans will do battle with the Blue Stockings. The curtain will rise in St. James the Less Hall, and a large crowd is expected.

Walter Costello has been chosen as temporary president, and it is hoped that he will accept the chair permanently, although Mr. Costello is a particularly busy man throughout the winter, especially in the evening.

The officers who have been permanently elected are as follows: James cHale, vice president; Walter Jenkinson, treasurer, and Arthur Bricks, secretary.

The Board of Arbitration is composed of ten members, including William McFarland, Joseph Doyle, Walter Jenkinson, Willard Hess, Lyman Harker, Richard Cole, Thomas Denton, Michael Cummins, Charles Bogle and Alexander C. Chadwick.

EAST FALLS CHURCH BASKETBALL LEAGUE

JIMMYLADS WIN FIRST

The opening guas of the 1928-1929 campaign in the East Falls Church League was launched on Tuesday evening of last week, when St. James and St. Bridgets met in the opening victory with the Jimmy-lads emerging victorious with a score of 21 to 15.

Greevies, of St. Bridget's, proved the star of the evening, looping through the net all five of the Catholic lads' goals, and getting two of his five foul tries through the coveted ring.

Adelman and Foley scored the remainder of the St. Bridget points.

Calhoun and Lister scintillated for the Episcopallians with three goals each, with Bamford looping two and Harker one. Harker also snared two fouls and Calhoun scored one.

LUTHERANS DOWN BLUE STOCKINGS

In the second game, Lutheran started things off by defeating the Presbyterian Blue Stockings, to the tune of 27-14.

Calhoun starred for the losers while Moyer accounted for ten points for the winners. Garside and Andy Leach each played a nifty game and rang up a couple of goals for themselves.

WILDCATS DOWN COLLEGIANS, 12-6

Heady Football of Victors Results in Two Scores for Welsh & Co.

LEWIS IS NEW CAPTAIN

Welsh's Wildcats, of East Falls, defeated the East Falls Collegians, formerly the Italian Giants, on Sunday, by a score of 12-6, before a crowd of about 800 people.

The Cats' bag of tricks fooled the Collegians on two occasions, which resulted in both touchdowns.

Kelly kicked to McGeogh, who was down on the 15-yard line. A few line bucks proved futile and the Collegians punted. The Cats marched down the field until they reached the 35-yard line, and on a fast reverse play O'Brien brought the ball to the 3-yard line. Connison took a high dive over the line for the score.

Caruso dashed 30 yards in the second quarter for the Giants' only score.

In the third quarter a reverse forward pass was received by Furlong, who ran for another touchdown through the whole Collegians' team.

In the fourth quarter, the Cats made a bid for another score, but lacked the final punch. Strenger, Ward and Welsh brought the ball from midfield to the 6-yard line, when the game ended.

Fred Lewis, the dashing left tackle of the Cats, was elected to lead the team in '29.

Basketball Resumed in East Falls

Church League Games Will Hereafter Be Played in Literary Hall

NEARER TOWN CENTER

St. Bridget's and St. James Win First Games in New Cage

Basket ball activities in East Falls swung into action on Friday night after a lay-off of several weeks.

On account of playing conditions not being of the best the officials of the East Falls Church Basketball League, thought it better that the schedule be ended until a suitable playing space could be obtained, which if possible would be closer to the center of the community.

Therefore an active committee was appointed to locate a hall in which the game could be played. The committee, consisting of James McHale, Daniel Ely, Harry Connolly, with the ever-earnest "Billy" Muschamp as chairman went right to work and before long they came back to headquarters with a favorable report. The hall of the Young Men's Literary Institute at Frederick street and Midvale avenue, was obtained and all future contests of the League will be staged there.

Success should be the reward of those who worked so diligently to secure and re-arrange the hall for Winter's greatest sport. The officials requested us to take this opportunity of thanking all those who helped to make the opening night a success, particularly Joseph Grilli and John Jenkins, who though not actively connected with the basketball organization did the electrical and carpentry work which was necessary.

St. Bridget's downed the quintet from the Falls M. E. Church in the opening tilt last Friday night. The scrimmage saw two teams come together that when ever they play is sure to be a hot one. The winners and their rivals both put up a grand battle, which is not clearly defined by the score. The Meboys were unable to stop Kelley and Greevey, who scored five double deckers each, and the guarding tactics of "Bear" Connolly and "Chuck" Foley played a large part in the victory for the Saints.

It seemed that the orange jersey which Tomassio Connolly wore held him in restraint for he was apparently unable to get steam up on Friday night.

In the opening half, "Will" Clayton had his youngsters in the game and the scrubs held the Saints to a 13 to 7 score, but in the final period he sent "Babs" Calhoun and Hess out on the floor with the hope that they would be able to turn the tide, but his strategy was to no avail, for the Midvale avenue team's guards held their opponents away from the basket. Hess was a little off on his shooting anyhow, and when the final whistle blew the score stood 21 to 17 in favor of St. Bridget's.

The lineup:

St. Bridget's	Methodist
Greevey	forward
Kelley	forward
T. Connolly	center
Foley	guard
B. Connolly	guard

Substitutions: Cunningham and H. Connolly for St. Bridget's; R. Clayton and Calhoun for Methodist.

Field goals: Greevey 5; Kelley 5; T. Connolly 1; B. Connolly 1; H. Connolly 1; Hess 1; Tomlinson 1; Calhoun and Gerke 1.

Fouls: Greevey 1; T. Connolly 1; Foley 1; B. Connolly 1; Hess 2; Calhoun 4 and Tomlinson 3.

Referee—Bush.

St. James vs Presbyterian

The second game found the formidable St. James the Less team battling it out with Falls Presbyterian, and there was little doubt about the outcome. It was all Episcopal. "Dig" Bamford, and "Al" Harker at forward with "Milt" Lister at the pivot and Schadel and nobody else but "Wee Willie" Muschamp at guard, formed a combination which was too much for the Blue Stockings.

Schadel was the high scorer with 6 field goals and 3 fouls. In fact all of the Jimmys took a part in the scoring and from the showing they made on Friday night, the rest of the league teams will have to travel a hard road to beat them for the gonfalon.

The Presbyterian team was slow getting under way, but when the new combination gets to working together a little longer, they too, will no doubt put up some strong opposition.

"Rip" Furman, who pranced around in a Baptist uniform last semester was the high scorer for his team, snaring four two-timers. "Paddy" Muschamp, former Episcopal star with "Sherm" Starrett show every promise of being a tower of strength in the guard positions.

The latter half of this game was far better than the opening, for all of the players had gauged the basket properly and scored seven times from the field.

"Sam" McClenaghan was at center, but next week, the "Pres" manager says that "Nate" Calhoun will do the jumping. Haggerty, who appeared on the floor, late put an added touch of pepper to the contest when he finally showed up. Montgomery made an able substitute in the meantime.

The final score was 42 to 21 with Dan Ely's team on the long end.

BASKETEERS HAVE KRAUT SUPPER

More than two hundred East Falls Church League basketball players, their families and friends sat down to a sauer kraut supper at the Young Men's Association on Queen lane, East Falls, last Saturday evening.

The affair was arranged by the League to raise funds for the athletic organization and was under the direction of a committee of League officials composed of Walter A. Costello, William Muschamp, Henry Welch, Walter Jenkinson and James McHale.

The dinner was cooked and served by the Women's Auxiliary and those in attendance included Mrs. Harry Bairstow, Mrs. Albert Lewis, Mrs. Hugh Ward, Mrs. Fred Shivers, Mrs. M. Foley, Mrs. H. Welch, Mrs. J. McHale, Mrs. George McClenaghan, Miss M. Furman, Miss H. Bates, Miss D. MacIndoe, Miss A. McClenaghan and Miss A. Welch.

EAST FALLS CHURCH BASKETBALL LEAGUE

Lutheran had an easy time with the Falls Baptist five when they met last Tuesday night, in a Church League game at Literary Hall, Frederick street and Midvale avenue.

It was a case of too much Moyer and Dooner. When these two boys get going, nothing can apparently stop them. Combined with Andy and J. Leach and Edgar they form an outfit which is extremely difficult to master.

Baptist could only score three field goals in each half. They certainly miss Kirkpatrick, who by the way has been selected as pivot man for Drexel Institute. The Queen lane contingent would like to have their old star back with them this season, for he is right at the height of his playing form.

The final score was 15 to 5 in favor of the Bauerboys.

The lineup:

Baptist	Lutheran
Hannes forward	Moyer
Fitzpatrick forward	Edgar
Verbeck center	A. Leach
Moorehead ... guard	L. Leach
Yaun guard	Munaw
Field Goals: Moyer 5; Edgar 2;
A. Leach 4; J. Leach 3; Dooner 2;
Hannes 2; Fitzpatrick 1; Moore-

Fouls: Moyer 8; Edgar 1; A. Leach 1; J. Leach 1; Dooner 4; Fitzpatrick 5; Verbeck 1; Moorehead 1.

St. Bridgets won from Falls Presbyterian on the same evening and at the same place. It was a bang-up game during the first half and for the first five minutes of the second period, when the Saints pulled away from their Caledonian opponents.

Weer, of the Blue Stockings, started the second half and, was only playing a few minutes when he was fouled, while making a field goal. He scored his field goal and also the foul throw and the feat was practically the entire Presbyterian activity. The town's end team only scored two fouls afterward.

The score at the half-way mark was 12 to 8 in favor of the ultimate winners, and the final figures read 28 to 11 with the Saints being on the long end.

The lineup:

St. Bridgets	Presbyterian
McCann .. forward	Montgomery
Cunningham .. forward	Furman
T. Connolly center	McClenaghan

Foley guard Muschamp
B. Connolly guard Allison
Substitutions: Weer for Presbyterian; Greevey and H. Connolly for St. Bridgets.

Field goals: McCann 1; T. Connolly 1; Foley 1; B. Connolly 3; H. Connolly 2; Furman 1; Muschamp 1; Weer 1.

Fouls: McCann 2; Cunningham 1; T. Connolly 1; B. Connolly 1; Greevey 5; H. Connolly 1; McClenaghan 2; Muschamp 2; Weer 1.

St. James was never in trouble, in their game with Presbyterian on Thursday night, when they took their rivals over for a 40 to 16 defeat.

The Presbyterian five were unable to score in the first half and in the second half only were able to score 4 two-pointers.

Everyone of the Jimmylads except "Wee Willie" Muschamp, scored 2 or more field goals. Paddy Muschamp, of the Blue Stockings was matched against his old teammate, "Digger" Bamford. The scooper scored three times while Paddy My Boy went scoreless.

Another case of buddies being opposed to each other was noticed when McClure was observed lining up against Harker.

This pair played in the forward positions for Falls Baptist last year after having made their debuts on the basketball floor at Girard College together.

Harker scored six field goals, while McClure was caging a pair. Every time Lister shot for the basket some one put a lid on it or so it seemed, for he came almost going through the entire game without ringing up a double-decker. Just before the close of the contest he managed to slip one in.

The final score, as stated above was 40 to 16 in favor of the Jimes Boys.

The lineup:

St. James	Presbyterian
Harker .. forward	Montgomery
Bamford forward	Weer
Lister ... center	McClenaghan
W. Muschamp guard	H. Muschamp
Schadel guard	McClure
Field Goals: Harker 6; Bamford 3; Lister 2; Schadel 4; McClenaghan 2; McClure 2.

Fouls: Harker 1; Bamford 4; Lister 1; W. Muschamp 1; Schadel 2; Weer 1; McClenaghan 4; H. Muschamp 2; McClure 1.

Bauer's Basketball Boys from the Lutheran Church grabbed off a soft one on Thursday night, from the Meboys, by the score of 25 to 10.

Andy Leach's gang rolled up a lead of 12 to 0 before Gerke, the Methodist forward put one through the net for a two-pointer.

Will Clayton's laddybucks failed to make one foul out of the first nine tries in the first half, and only snared one field goal, making the score at half time read 22 to 2 (Toot-Toot to too.)

When the Dutch Hollow stripplings pranced out on the floor it was noticed that there was a newcomer in the lineup and when Manager Andy Leach was requested to give his name he replied "Why that is George Shaw, who used to catch for Paradise." All joking aside, George did a fancy job of holding Gerke to a lone field goal.

The entire team played good consistent basket ball. Dooner and J. Leach had nothing to say about the way things were going, but were right there when the action was needed.

MacKenzie appeared on the floor for the Meboys in the second half and right off the bat the Methodist team pepped up. The Tartanite lad scored six of his team's eight points in the last period. Don't confuse this MacKenzie lad—it was Malcolm, so don't give Don the credit.

Davis turned his ankle and had to leave the cage, and "Ruscé" Clayton came on the floor to announce his name as the man in a pinch.

The lineup:

Lutheran	Methodist
J. Leach forward	Gerke
Edgar forward	Wright
A. Leach .. center	M. Calhoun
Shaw guard	Davis
Dooner guard	Hodges
Substitutions: MacKenzie and Clayton for Methodist.

Field Goals: J. Leach 3; Edgar 4; A. Leach 5; Dooner 3; Gerke 1; MacKenzie 2.

Fouls: Edgar 1; A. Leach 1; Shaw 1; Dooner 2; Gerke 1; MacKenzie 2.

League Standing

	W.	L.
St. James	4	0
St. Bridget's	3	0
Lutheran	2	1
Baptist	1	2
Presbyterian	0	3
Methodist	0	4

The battle between St. James and Lutheran, on Tuesday night of last week was a world-beater. The fight was nip and tuck from beginning to end and the spectators found it difficult to follow the ball.

Each team scored three field goals in the first half, but Andy Leach's Bauerboys tallied two fouls more than their Episcopal opponents. The score at half time was 11-9, with the James Boys on the wrong end.

In the second semester, the contest was so hot that the players looked as though some good housewife had made hash out of them. Schadel saved the day—or night, as you like it—for the Jimmylads, for he raced down the floor on four occasions in the final frame and scored a field goal each time.

"Wee Willie" Muschamp held Moyer to one solitary field goal, and our readers can judge at the good night's work he put in. Garside and Lister played each other to a standstill, each scoring two two-timers, in each half.

"Leader" Leach failed to make a point all evening and his teeth were all worn out from gnashing them. The "Whispering Ones," Dooner and Leach, held Harker and Bamford, the Jimmylad's fast forwards to two goals apiece.

The final score was 29-21 with the Jimmylads a-grinning.

The lineup:

St. James	Lutheran
Harker forward	Moyer
Bamford ... forward	A. Leach

Field goals: Harker 2; Bamford 2; Lister 2; Muschamp 2; Schadel 4; Moyer 1; Garside 2; J. Leach 2; Dooner 1.

On the same evening the Meboys fell before the onslaught of the Falls Baptist five with the odds at the whistle reading 45 to 20.

Both teams started off with a bang and at the half-way mark the score was 28 to 11. It was simply one more case of "too much Paul and Hoffman," for the former scored six markers from the field, while the latter tallied seven times.

Hodge, of the Claytonites, was the only one of the Meboys who seemed to have the basket gauge properly, and the rest of his team were away off when they had a chance to shoot fouls. The Meboys only snared 2 out of 12 tries. Baptist was a little better and netted 7 of their 15 fouls.

The lineup:

Baptist	Methodist
Fitzpatrick ... forward	Hodge
Paul forward	MacKenzie
Hoffman ... center	Tomlinson
Fisher guard	Clayton
Hannes guard	Davis

Field goals: Hodge 5; MacKenzie 2; Tomlinson 2; Fitzpatrick 3; Paul 6; Hoffman 7; Fisher 2; Hannes 1.

Fouls: Hodge 1; Clayton 1; Fitzpatrick 2; Hoffman 5.

St. James came back again on Friday night and trimmed the bewildered Meboys with the final score score being 37 to 15.

The only complaint the fans have when St. James is scheduled is that the Jimmylads are always late to start the game. Some night they will have a fast one pulled on them by having their opponents claim a forfeit, and maybe that will teach them that while a rainbow is a beautiful thing, it always comes after the storm is over.

We feel sympathetic toward "Wee Willie" Muschamp, who has such a hard time getting his temperamental stars together, for very often he has to gather them up in his gas-wagon.

Schadel and Lister had a big night of it again, for they scored 12 field goals between them. Schadel propelled the ball through 7 times and the Butter and Egg man netted the sphere on five occasions.

"Blake" Clayton, at last, has found the basket and in the weekend game rung 4 double deckers through the net. His floor work was also of a highly commendable order.

Again the fans were greeted with a new face in the cage, and when an inquisitive one asked "Who's that?" he was flabbergasted to hear the name of "Farmer" Hess. The hecker made his presence felt, and—how!

The lineup:

St. James	Methodist
Berry forward	Tomlinson
Proud forward	Hodge
Lister center	Gerke
Muschamp guard	Hess
Schadel guard	Clayton

Field goals: Berry 2; Proud 1; Lister 5; Muschamp 2; Schadel 7; Clayton 4; Gerke 1.

Fouls: Berry 3; Tomlinson 3; Gerke 2.

St. Bridget's had little trouble defeating the Baptist team on Friday night, the score at the whistle being 28 to 11 in favor of the the Saints.

The victory permitted the Midvale Avenue lads to go into a tie for first place with the Jimmylads.

It was the guarding of "Chucks" Foley and Connelly that ruined the evening from a Baptist standpoint, for all the Divers could get was one field goal in each half.

Greevey was the high score man for the night with 5 field goals and 3 fouls. Harry Connolly helped things along by ringing 3 double-deckers and 2 free throws. The final score, as stated above was 28-11.

The lineup:

St. Bridget's	Baptist
Greevey forward	Adelman
Kelley ... forward	Fitzpatrick
T. Connolly ... center	Verbeck
Foley guard	Muschamp
H. Connolly guard	Another Connolly

Field goals: Greevey 5; Kelley 2; Foley 1; Connolly 2; Fitzpatrick 1; Muschamp 1.

Fouls: Greevey 3; Kelley 1; H. Connolly 2; Adelman 2; Fitzpatrick 3; Muschamp 2.

Referee—Monahan.

WE WANNA KNOW!

Who's the fellow who takes tickets at the box office, in Literary Hall, for the East Falls Church League.

He is worried to death with kids trying to pull a one-eyed Connolly, and he certainly has his hands full. His advice to them is to go out and collect enough "odds" until they obtain the price of an Annie Oakley, which for these youthful fans, amounts to the fabulous sum of ten cents.

"Brick's" Warrington, the League's figure-chasing hound and official adding machine, tells us that it is none other than his old friend "Mickey" Cummings. Our hat's off to Mike!

"COS" AND "MAC" TO DEFEND TITLE

Walter M. Hoover, former national champion and Duluth rowing wonder, who for several years has represented the Undine Barge Club of this city and brought to it many victories, may wear the colors of a New York club this year and do all of his rowing in Gotham. These were the reports reaching Boat-house Row on Sunday, when first breaks in frigid weather brought oarsmen in substantial numbers, and caused numerous clubs to contemplate spring training in earnest.

Early reports had it that all of the other oarsmen of Boathouse Row will be back in action early in the spring. W. E. Garrett Gilmore, of Bachelors, will probably row doubles again with Emanuel McGreal, and may also row in the eight that club is considering. He is a former national singles champion, but will probably not row singles this year.

Paul V. Costello and Charley McIrvine, of the Penn Athletic Club, Philadelphia, only winners in the last Olympics, will defend their laurels in doubles and have decidedly not retired. Ken Meyers is aching to get back in harness and is said to be in splendid condition. Chester Turner, former Canadian oarsman, now representing the Penn Athletic Club, who won the national singles championship last summer, will be rowing as soon as weather permits.

EAST FALLS CHURCH BASKETBALL LEAGUE

Tuesday night of last week, brought together the two teams that were tied for first position, and "Bricks" Warrington sends us word that the contest was a hum-dinger.

From whistle to whistle the lads of St. Bridget's and St. James played fast and furious with triumph coming to the James Boys in the final second of play.

Five minutes of the game elapsed before either team scored, and then Handsome Tommy Connolly brought the house down by receiving a pass from Greevey, and dropped the ball through the net.

Al Harker came right back for the Jimmys with a free toss at the basket, which he made. Then "Coal Miner" Bamford completed a sensational shot which put the Clearfield outfit into the lead, Greevey took a one-handed "pud" for the net, which arched through and the Saints went ahead of their opponents.

Schadel, not to be placed outside the limelight dribbled the length of the floor to make his two-point-er. "Dimmo" McCann received a good hand when he successfully completed a long try at the basket. All through the game it was like this, first one side and then the other taking the lead.

The first half ended with St.

Bridget's leading by 12 to 11.

The second period opening saw Schadel tie the score with a free chance. Muschamp's field goal gave the Episcopalsians a two-point lead.

Eight minutes passed before the Saints scored and then Greevey made a shot from the fifteen foot mark. McCann was in the act of shooting another through when "Butter and Eggs" Lister stuck his finger in Dimma's optic. Time was taken out so that Mac could recuperate.

The foul shooting of St. Bridget's kept them up, for double deckers were few and far between. A few moments before the final whistle tooted, Harry Connolly made the first and only field goal that the Saints collected in the second period. Harker was held scoreless from the field, Bamford only scored one field goal, Muschamp got two and Schadel and Lister each collected one.

It certainly was a close call for the Jimmys, who have not lost a single contest in two consecutive years.

The final score was 21 to 19 with St. Bridget's, on account of their opponent's record, feeling as if they had won the game.

The lineup:
St. James St. Bridget's
Harker forward Greevey
Bamford forward Kelley
Lister center H. Connolly
Muschamp ... guard ... T. Connolly
Schadel guard McCann

Field goals: Bamford 1; Lister 1; Muschamp 2; Schadel 2; Greevey 1; Kelley 1; H. Connolly 1 and McCann 3.

Fouls: Harker 3; Bamford 1; Lister 2; Schadel 3; Greevey 1; Kelley 1; H. Connolly 1 and McCann 2.

Referee—Monahan.

The second game was another close one for Lutheran just about beat out their Presbyterian opponents by the score of 20 to 19.

The larger part of the crowd had left the hall and missed a good game.

The lineup:
Lees forward Haggerty
J. Leach forward Grady
A. Leach .. center .. McClenaghan
Kelley guard Muschamp
Edgar guard B. Connolly

Field goals: J. Leach 2; A. Leach 3; Kelley 1; Haggerty: 2; Grady 3; McClenaghan 2 and Muschamp 1.

Fouls: Edgar 3; Kelley 1; Haggerty 1; Muschamp 1 and Connolly 1.

Referee—Monahan.

On Friday night, St. Bridget's lost another tough one to Andy Leach's Bauerboys, with the digits reading 20 to 19 in favor of the Lutheran team.

It was one of those nerve-racking games in which the victor is not decided until the last possible minute. An extra five minutes had to be played in order to find out who really was entitled to wear the laurels.

The regular game finished up at 18 all. Warrington, the League's official statistician wanted to submit a lengthy report on this contest, but we had reached our "dead line" and didn't have time to wait for more details. However, the game must have been a world-beater and the first opportunity we get we're going down to the Lit and ogle a game or two.

The lineup:
St. Bridget's Lutheran
Greevey forward J. Leach
Kelley forward A. Leach
T. Connolly center .. Calhoun
McCann guard Munaw
Feley guard Dooner

Field goals: Greevey 1; T. Connolly 1; McCann 3; J. Leach 2; A. Leach 1; Calhoun 1 and Dooner 2.
Fouls: Kelley 1; Greevey 5; T. Connolly 2; McCann 1; J. Leach 2; A. Leach 1; Calhoun 3 and Dooner 2.

Metrodist took another dump on the nose from Falls Baptist in the Friday night night-cap. It was another tense conflict, and was more than a basketball game. Some of the spectators thought that Schmidt and Sonnenberg were in the Falls, but finally saw daylight when they discovered it was none other than Clayton and Hannes.

Seesawing back and forth, first the Baptist would be in the lead and the Meboys. The quintette from the lower section of Queen lane were short a couple of men and volunteers in the persons of Hess and Muschamp helped them out of the hole.

Wright got away with five field goals in the final half of the game. "Blake" Clayton scored three times and Hannes and Grady were the shining lights of the Baptist team, with four field goals each.

It was during this contest that excitement started. A fair spectator had just opened a box of candy to try a bon bon, when blooie! some one knocked it out of her hand, and then there was a free-for-all. It looked as though every kid in the Falls was on the spot in a trice.

The lineup:
Methodist Baptist
Hodge forward Grispon
Wright forward Grady
R. Clayton center Hannes
Another Clayton ..guard .. Hess

Shorrocks ... guard ... Muschatap
Field goals: Hodge 1; Wright 5;
Clayton 3; Grispon 2; Grady 4;
Hannes 4.

Fouls: R. Clayton 1; Hannes 1;
Muschamp 1.

Games are held every Tuesday and Friday evening at Literary Hall, Frederick street and Midvale avenue and on each evening a box of candy is awarded to the lady holding the lucky number.

Walter Costello, the League's ever-smiling president, had his hands full a'trying to keep the non-players off the floor between halves. Where's the Hero? Where's Cummings? Where's 'Bricks' Warrington and where, oh, where is Walter Jenkinson?

BASKETBALL LEAGUE

LAUGH, CLOWN, LAUGH!

The officials of the East Falls Church Basketball League have designated tomorrow night, as Clown Night at Literary Hall, Frederick street and Midvale avenue.

The basketball game will be played between two "fives" composed of men and women from Barnum and Bailey's, Ringling Brothers and Fels Soto's Circuses.

Those in search of a good laugh are invited to attend and bring along a buddy.

A little bit of comedy was furnished the patrons of the East Falls Church League, on Tuesday evening of last week, at Literary Hall, when the authorities put two new teams on the floor.

Welsh's Wildcats were booked to play a team called the All-American Five, but Wee Willie Muschamp, who started as referee in the game threw the whistle away and left for parts unknown before the game had progressed very far.

It would have been a crime to have requested the regular referee, Monahan, to act as the odd man on the floor, for he could not have possibly survived, to participate in the regular games.

Sam Hemphill acted as manager of the All-Americans, and states that the affair should not have been billed as a basketball game, but as a wrestling match. At the next game to be played between these two teams, all the doctors and undertakers in East Falls will be invited to attend.

In the first twenty minutes of play, the Wildcats were unable to score a point. The score at the half way mark was 11 to 0 in favor of Hemphill Hustlers.

In the second half, there was a general change in the lineup and an entire new team came out as "Wildcats."

Wisecracker Sam, only made one alteration, for he sent Moko in for Petrona. Moko could not find a pair of shoes to fit him, and played in his socks. Sometime during the half, Petrona went up behind the backboard and Hemphill threw the ball to him, but in his haste to get the sphere and drop it in the basket, Petrona bungled it and the effort was wasted. There was only one foul called and Lally, the ironman, made the shot count. The final score was 23 to 10 and everybody left to visit Welsh's Restaurant to make their alibis.

The lineup:

Wildcats	All-Americans
Brown ... Forward	Bowers
Jennings ... Forward	Petrona
O'Brien ... Center	Haslam
Ward ... Guard	Lally
Strenger ... Guard	Hemphill

Substitutions—Padoluse, Lewis
Cunningham, Flynn and Welsh.

Field Goals—Brown 2; Jennings
2; Strenger 1; Padoluse 3; Petrona
1; Haslam 1; Lally 1; Hemphill 5.

Fouls—Lally 1. (That's all there was, there wasn't any more).

St. James had a soft night of it when they played and defeated the Falls Baptist team, on the same night. There was little doubt over the outcome, for at half time the score was 18 to 3 with the James Boys holding the loot.

The second half saw the Jimmy-lads being razed by the spectators for missing several sleepers. Someone yelled out, "Let Bamford shoot, for he is only allowed one night out each week, and that's when he plays basketball." That started off one of Bamford's friends, who must be the Digger's bodyguard, for he certainly does a lot of pulling for Eddie. He also keeps the crowd in good humor kidding Paddy Muschamp, whenever Pat gets into action. Everyone is waiting anxiously to see Presbyterian and St.
James meet, for then Pat and the Digger will be opposed to each other. The crowd will want to be there to hear the wisecracks emanating from "Heinie" Rookhart.

Lister had a big time, for he caged six field goals while the Digger was getting five. Wee Willie Muschamp sat on the side lines so that Berry could have a chance to play.

McClure put up a fine showing for the Baptist, but Grady couldn't get going, for a while and only snared three goals.

The final score was 46 to 21 with the line-up as follows:

St. James	Baptist
Berry ... Forward	Hannes
Bamford ... Forward	Fitzpatrick
Lister ... Center	McClure
Proud ... Guard	Verbeek
Schadel ... Guard	Grady

Substitutions—Yaun.

Field Goals—Berry 2; Bamford 5;
Lister 6; Proud 3; Schadel 4;
Hannes 2; Fitzpatrick 2; McClure
2; Grady 3.

Fouls—Bamford 2; Lister 2;
Fitzpatrick 1; Hannes 1; Yaun 1.
Referee—Monahan.

Methodist fell before St. Bridget's on Tuesday night, when the second half of the schedule was started.

Greevey was the man who was mainly responsible for the Saints' victory, for he scored no less than five field goals. "Bear" Connolly played his usual game at guard, keeping "Dutch" MacKenzie scoreless for the entire evening.

Hodge was in the game from start to finish and made his presence felt, for at one time while lying his back on the floor, he left the ball fly and it went through the net for a two-pointer.

Blake Clayton was all over the floor, and is getting to be some traveler. Crisman was the real iron man of the evening when he played a full game for the Saints and then three-fourths of another contest for the Baptist team.

The lineup:

St. Bridget's	Methodist
Greevey ... Forward	MacKenzie
Crisman ... Forward	Hodge
T. Connolly ... Center	Gerke
Bear Connolly ... Guard	R. Clayton
Adelman ... Guard	H. Clayton

Field Goals—Greevey 5; Crisman
2; T. Connolly 2; Bear Connolly 1;
Adelman 2; Hodge 3; H. Clayton 1;
Gerke 2.

Fouls—Greevey 1; T. Connolly 1;
Adelman 1; MacKenzie 2; Gerke 1;
H. Clayton 1.

Referee—Monahan.

The Baptist team came back and set the Presbyterian team down for a 26 to 21 defeat on Friday night.

At half time Presbyterian was leading by the score of 13 to 10 and it was only in the last few minutes of play that the Baptist team came through for the victory.

Fitzpatrick got going and when the final whistle blew he had snared four field goals. Grady manages to get a few in every game and this one was no exception. Furman and Muschamp certainly do work together for they pass the ball to each other and cut for the basket whenever they get an opportunity. McClenaghan's men tried hard to come back but the struggle was just a little bit too much for them.

The lineup:

Baptist Presbyterian
Hannes ... Forward ... Haggerty
Fitzpatrick ... Forward ... Weer
Petroni ... Center ... McClenaghan
Grady ... Guard ... Furman
Verbeck ... Guard ... Muschamp
Substitution—Crisman.

Field Goals—Hannes 2; Fitzpatrick 4; Petroni 1; Crisman 1; Grady 3; Haggerty 2; Weer 2; McClenaghan 1; Furman 3; Muschamp 1.

Fouls—Hannes 1; Fitzpatrick 2; Crisman 1; Haggerty 2; Muschamp 1.

* * *

On the same evening Presbyterian gave the Lutheran Bauers a good run for their money, but just lost out by the score of 30 to 23.

Paddy Muschamp had plenty of shots from the foul line, but could not get them through. One time he was apparently all mixed up for he took a shot for the wrong basket.

The lineup:

Lutheran Presbyterian
Edgar ... Forward ... Haggerty
A. Leach ... Forward ... Petroni
Calhoun ... Center ... McClenaghan
J. Leach ... Guard ... Foley
Dooner ... Guard ... Muschamp

Field Goals—A. Leach 4; Calhoun 4; J. Leach 3; Dooner 2; Haggerty 4; McClenaghan 3; Foley 1; Muschamp 1.

Fouls—A. Leach 1; Calhoun 2; J. Leach 1; McClenaghan 2; Muschamp 1.

Referee—Monahan.

Through the Net

The winner of the box of candy on Tuesday night was Miss Anna Welsh, and on Friday night the bon-bons were won by Miss Alice Leach.

There was another new face in the crowd, on Tuesday, but upon a second look, it was discovered to be none other than Charles "Chuck-er" Foley, with glasses on.

Last week he wore black dimmers and someone yelled out, "All you need now is a cane so that you can go down to Market street. And then Jack Kelly will be looking for a new assistant."

EAST FALLS CHURCH BASKETBALL LEAGUE

Methodist trounced Falls Baptist last Tuesday night when they met in Literary Hall, with the score being 27 to 6 in favor of Blake Clayton's Meboys.

The Baptist team scored a lone field goal in each period. Hodge and Gerke were the leading lights for the Kraal street laddybucks.

The lineup:

Methodist Baptist
Hodge ... forward ... Hannes
Tomlinson ... forward ... Fitzpatrick
Calhoun ... center ... McClure
H. Clayton ... guard ... Grispon
Gerke ... guard ... Yuun
Substitutions—MacKenzie and Moorehead.

Field Goals—Hodge 3; MacKenzie 2; Calhoun 2; Gerke 3; Fitzpatrick 1; Moorehead 1.

Fouls—Hodge 1; Tomlinson 1; MacKenzie 1; Calhoun 1; Gerke 3; Fitzpatrick 1; McClure 1.

Referee—Monahan.

Billy Muschamp's Jimmylads smeared Lutheran for a 32 to 24 defeat on the same evening, at the same place.

The Jimmylads scored 22 of their 32 points in the final period. Lister looped five double-deckers through on Babs Calhoun in the last frame. Arthur "Bricks" Warrington being absent on this night, we are short on details for these two contests, for the League's figure hound usually supplies a good write-up.

The lineup:

St. James Lutheran
Harker ... forward ... J. Leach
Bamford ... forward ... Moyer
Lister ... center ... Calhoun
Dornan ... guard ... Dooner Schadel ... guard ... Edgar Substitutions—Muschamp and A. Leach.

Field Goals—Bamford 2; Lister 6; Muschamp 1; Schadel 3; J. Leach 1; Moyer 2; A. Leach 1.

Fouls—Harker 1; Lister 2; Muschamp 1; Schadel 4; J. Leach 1; Moyer 3; Calhoun 10; Dooner 2.

The fun on Friday night began when the League officials staged the Clown game. With Sam Hemphill sick all week, it looked as though the game would have to be called off. However a great crowd had assembled to see the "funny-boys," and Hemphill appeared on the job and got his team together at the last minute.

He marched them up the back stairs at the "Lit" and paraded them around a circle in the cage. Some had boxing gloves on, others had brooms, mops, dust pans, and all the housekeeping paraphernalia.

that they were able to purloin from their wives and mothers.

The difficult task was to select a man with enough courage to enter the cage as referee of the contest. After several minutes "Sparkler" Charles Schadel agreed to officiate and someone threw him a pair of boxing gloves, a base ball mask and a wind pad.

After throwing the ball in, he made himself as scarce as possible, and then something happened. It was something, but we will not attempt to name it, for there was a little bit of base ball, foot ball, basket ball, golf, ice hockey, wrestling, boxing, ping pong and what have you.

At one time Moko obtained possession of the ball and started down the floor with it, under his arm, straight-arming other players as he went. At the end of the first half, the game was halted to mop up the perspiration, with the score being ten-ten.

The second half was about to start when someone discovered that the referee had absconded. It was said that his pedal extremities had become frost-bitten and that he went home for his woolen socks, and then they picked another "goat." It was none other than our dear old friend "Hero" McHale. He played wiseacre and left the Clowns cavort for a minute or two, vigilantly keeping himself out of the way of the wierd looking basketeers only to blow the whistle and have the game end with the opponents kicking about the half being so short. The final score was 24 to 22 in favor of the "Thems."

The lineup:

Thems Those
Monaghan ... forward ... J. Brill
McCarty ... forward ... Maslem
Maloney ... center ... Gallagher
"Reds" Greevey ... guard ... Jenkins
Moko ... guard ... Petroni
No substitutions and no time out.
Field Goals—Monaghan 1; McCarty 2; Maloney 4; Greevey 2; Moko 3; Brill 3; Maslem 2; Gallagher 1; Jenkins 2 and Petroni 4.

The Lutheran Bauers came back at the week-end and defeated Falls Methodist to a 38 to 13 tune. Calhoun was high scorer of the evening with 4 field goals and five fouls.

The lineup:

Lutheran Methodist
 Edgar forward Hodge
 A. Leach .. forward .. Tomlinson
 Calhoun center Gerke
 J. Leach ... guard H. Clayton
 Dooner ... guard Schorrock Substitutions—R. Clayton.

Field Goals—Egar 2; A. Leach 3;
 Calhoun 2; J. Leach 3; Dooner 1;
 Hodge 1; Tomlinson 1; Gerke 1;
 H. Clayton 1.

Fouls—Edgar 2; A. Leach 1;
 Calhoun 5; J. Leach 1; Dooner 2;

Hodge 2; Tomlinson 1; Gerke 2.

Referee—Monaghan.

Falls Presbyterian pulled the big surprise of the season when they sunk St. Bridget's to a 17-16 defeat.

What a game it was! St. Bridget's and Presbyterian each tallied the same number of field goals, but the Townsend team scored one more foul shot.

It was McClenaghan's work from the 15 foot mark that held the Blue Stockings in front, although Crisman played a stellar game at guard. This player held Greevey down to two field goals, while Paddy Muschamp was blackballing "Dimmo" McCann.

Presbyterian	St. Bridget's
Haggerty guard	Greevey
Berry forward	McCann
McClenaghan center .	T. Connolly
Crisman guard	Adelman
Muschamp guard	Foley

Field goals—Haggerty 1; Berry 2; Greevey 2; T. Connolly 1.

Fouls—Haggerty 1; McClenaghan 8; Crisman 3; Muschamp 1; Greevey 3; McCann 3; Connolly 2; Adelman 1.

Referee—Monaghan.

RINGERS

Miss Margaret Mary Purcell Won the candy on Friday night.

Walter A. Costello, Walter Jenkinson, Lyman Harker, Willard Hess and all the League officials were seen in the crowd which attended.

VICTORY! AT LAST!

When we heard the news that Presbyterian had won its game with St. Bridget's on Friday night, we could not resist the desire to type a few words of praise for the plucky leader of the Presbyterian team.

For two years he has dauntlessly lead his team-mates both in basketball and baseball, against the teams from all of the other churches, generally to go down to defeat. We've heard him championing his fellow and their efforts at meetings, when everyone seemed to be opposed to him. But the next scheduled game would find him on the spot ready to go at it again with the realization somewhere back in his head that if his team would keep everlastingly at it, they would taste the fruits of success.

We want to tell the world that we have a lot of respect for Sam McClenaghan, and hope that in all his efforts he will eventually come out on top.

21st Ward Basketeers Win at Falls

Amos Taylor's Church League Stars Defeat Pick of Costello's Circuit

GAME VERY EXCITING

Hawthorne Stars for Hill-Climbers, While Schadel Shines for East Falls

Amos Taylor escorted a group of 21st Ward Church League stars down to Literary Hall East Falls, on Tuesday night of last week to play the pick of the Walter Costello's East Falls Church League, and when the smoke of the battle had arisen after the final whistle the spectators read the score as follows: "21st Ward 27; East Falls 21."

But don't think for a moment that it wasn't some Basketball Game! It was! The first half was all East Falls, and the final period was for the Hillclimbers. It was one of those contests which is apt to go either way, until the last born blows. Just before the last act the Taylorites pulled away from the rivals of Dobsonville with the result being as stated in our first paragraph.

There was plenty of close guarding by Hobson and Hinchcliffe, the Mountaineers backfield men. They held Greevey scoreless, and "Dimmo" McCann was only able to snare two field goals, each of which he looped through in the first period.

The two centers, Calhoun and Moyer, were so busy "Heagle Hyeing" each other that neither one scored in the first half. In the final frame Lister, of St. James, replaced Calhoun and the Butter and Egg man Moyer each scored one apiece. East Falls fans believe that their centers had the best argument, because in their philosophy, any man, or men, who can hold the 21st Ward start to a single goal must be wonders. Which speaks highly for Old Man Moyer's offspring.

Schadel went in at guard for East Falls in the second half and scored six of his team's eight points. Hawthorne, St. Tim's ace, took his usual amount of cuts at the net, but someone must have put a lid on the basket. However he caged three double deckers.

Winterbottom, who was shut out in the first semester came back in the second to score twice from the field and played a whirlwind game in the final seconds of play.

The lineup:
East Falls 21st Ward
Greevey forward Winterbottom
McCann forward Hawthorne
Calhoun center Moyer
Connolly guard Hobson
McClenaghan guard Hinchcliffe
Substitutions: Lister and Schadel for East Falls.

Field goals: McCann 2; Lister 1; Schadel 2; Winterbottom 2; Hawthorne 3; Moyer 1; Hobson 2.

Fouls: Greevey 1; McCann 3; Calhoun 3; Lister 1; Connolly 1; Schadel 2; Winterbottom 2; Hawthorne 2; Moyer 4; and Hinchcliffe 3.

Referee—Monaghan.

EAST FALLS CHURCH BASKETBALL LEAGUE

On Euesday night of last week, Lutheran took another contest from Falls Baptist by the score of 25 to 18.

Lutheran Baptist
Edgar forward Fisher
A. Leach forward Fitzpatrick
Calhoun center Simmons
J. Leach guard Verbeck
Garside guard Hannes
Field goals: Edgar, 2; A. Leach, 1; Calhoun, 3; J. Leach, 2; Garside, 2; Simmons, 4; Hannes, 2.

Fouls: A. Leach, 1; Calhoun, 2; Garside, 4; Fitzpatrick, 2; Simmons 2; Hannes 3.

Falls Presbyterian came through victorious again, this time defeating the Methodist five with the final score being 30 to 10.

Sam McClenaghan scored five field goals. With Paddy Muschamp Mac makes an ideal combination.

Presbyterian Methodist Haggerty forward Hodge
Petrona forward MacKenzie
McClenaghan center Gerke
Muschamp guard Shorrock
Crisman guard Davis
Field Goals: Haggerty, 1; Petrone, 2; McClenaghan, 5; Muschamp, 3; Crisman, 2; MacKenzie, 1; Gerke, 1; Shorrock, 1.

Fouls: Petrone, 2; McClenaghan, 1; Muschamp, 1; Hodge, 2; MacKenzie, 1; Davis, 1.

Referee—Monaghan.

St. James were forced to defeat St. Bridget's on Friday night in order to win the championship of the league. This the Clearfield street cagemen did to the tune of 49 to 22.

Schadel had a big night and at the end of the first twenty minutes he had scored six field goals.

"SI" Greevey was the St. Bridget's star. Paired with McCann the "Cyrus" scored 16 of the Alumni's 22 points.

The defeat throws St. Bridget's back into a three-cornered tie for second place, with Lutheran and Presbyterian being their corner mates.

The lineup:
St. James St. Bridget's
Harker forward Greevey
Bamford forward Kelley
Lister center T. Connolly
Muschamp (Will) guard McCann
Schadel guard T. Connolly
Substitutions: Proud for St. James; Adelman and Powers for St. Bridget's.

Field Goals: Harker, 3; Bamford, 2; Lister, 1; Muschamp, 2; Schadel, 7; Proud, 1; Greevey, 3; Kelley, 1; T. Connolly, 1; McCann, 2.

Fouls: Bamford, 2; Lister, 1; Muschamp, 2; Schadel, 3; Greevey, 2; Kelley, 1; T. Connolly, 1; McCann, 2.

Presbyterian also went into the three-cornered tie by downing the Baptist quintet by a 48 to 11 score.

Presbyterian Baptist
Haggery forward Hannes
Furman forward Fitzpatrick
McClenaghan center Verbeck
Crisman guard Adelman

"Battler" Quinn occupies the same seat at every game.

Dorothy Hannes won the bonbons again on Tuesday night. She says that she attends the games to see her brother play. And who else's brother.

Billy Wood has attended every game on the schedule. Some basket ball bug!

Hissoner Patrick Neilan was in attendance looking over promising base ball material.

Joe Doyle says he is in favor of Monaghan. The referee we mean. We don't know his sentiments on JOHN.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Kelley were there on Friday night to look over "their boy Jim."

Charlie Schadel leads the league in scoring with 59 field goals and 20 fouls.

Falls Golfer Now in Texas

Tommy Burke Is Fort Worth's Oldest Professional in Point of Service—He and His Brother John, Both Well Known in National Golf Circles

Tommy Burke, another of East Falls athletes, who is Fort Worth, Texas' oldest professional in the point of service, became a member of that city's golf colony in 1916 as professional at the Glen Garden Country Club. . . Burke, now pro at the River Crest Country Club, went to Fort Worth from Rockford, Ill., where he and his brother, Jack, now at River Oaks, Houston, were located.

Tommy remained at Glen Garden only two years, going to River Crest in 1918, where he has been since.

Of the two brothers, Tom and Jack, the latter is probably more nationally known. He has been competing in the national tournaments for several years while Tom took his first fling in national competition the past year, qualifying for the National Open. Jack finished one stroke short of the National Open championship in 1930, registering a score of 296 against 295 turned in by Edward Ray, of England.

Jack is a powerful hitter with the woods, while Tom's best game is his putting. It was his putting that enabled him to qualify for the open in 1928, sinking a 40-footer to win in a playoff.

Tom is accurate with his woods but the shots have lacked distance. However, during the past few years he has added distance to the shots.

Tom is the holder of the River Crest course record with a 66.

During the past few years Tommy has begun to take an active part in tournament play. He has competed in the Texas Open, Texas Professional Golf Association tournament and other events.

Tommy is married and has a young son about 2 years old who is learning to hit them as well as his dad.

GOOD PITCHING HAS PUT BROWNS AHEAD

Crowder, Ogden and Gray Have Menaced American League Batters This Season

BEAT DETROIT, 6 TO 5

(By Associated Press)

CURRENT suspicion has it that Cornelius McGillicuddy is beginning another forced-march along the paths of base ball glory, but even as the Philadelphia patriarch girds gaunt loins for the long drive toward October gold, the portly form of Daniel P. Howley rises to bar the way. Standing sentinel over Sportsman's Park, with Crowder and Ogden and Gray pouring brimstone over the parapet, General Howley, for the moment at least, threatens Athletics and Yankees alike.

The downfall of the champions progressed but slowly yesterday as the Hugman outpunched Washington while the Red Sox hurled back the Mackmen. The A's remain favorites if the Yanks do fail, but the gait of the Browns cannot be overlooked. Two weeks do not make a base ball season, but the Browns already have flashed enough to justify any fears which Messrs. Huggins and Mack may entertain.

The Howley tribe closed out in Detroit with a 6-to-5 victory, which made three out of four in the series and ten out of fourteen for the season. The triumph also gave the Browns more breathing space over the second-place Athletics.

The least said about events at the Yankee Stadium, the kinder it will be for all concerned. The champions pulled out a 10-to-9 decision over the Senators in the tenth on Fred Heilmach's double. The Hugmen had stood idly by while the Washington Senators were scoring five runs to tie in the seventh. Each side mauled three pitchers, Tom Zachary being perhaps the heaviest sufferer.

The Chicago White Sox won another from the skidding Cleveland Indians, this time by 8 to 4.

The National League spotlight centered upon Arthur C. Vance, who let the Giants down with three small singles at Ebbets Field, and won by 2 to 0 even with the mad Robins at his back. Bill Walker gave Brooklyn just four hits, but three of these were concentrated into the fifth round when Gilbert doubled with the bases filled. Vance fanned seven. Some 20,000 saw the battle.

The Chicago Cubs again stumbled upon misfortune at Redland Field as Cincinnati pulled out a 5 to 4 victory in the last of the ninth. Sheriff Blake twice blew a lead of one run in late innings as General Hoodricks rushed fresh troops into the fray.

Geo. Shaw's E. Falls Church League Nine Defeats Mus-champ's Jimmyslads

HOLD EXERCISES

John E. Smithies and Clergymen Make Short Addresses

East Falls officially opened its base ball season, last Saturday at Dobson Field, on Indian Queen lane, when brief, but appropriate exercises were held previous to the game between the Church League teams representing St. James the Less, and the Lutheran church of the Redeemer.

Mayor Mackey and Councilman E. Blackburn were to have been present, but were unable to attend on account of previous engagements.

As the two teams lined up at the home plate, John E. Smithies, a former City councilman from the section and incidentally one of the best which ever served its interests, made the chief address, in which he stressed the value of the Church League to the Falls of Schuylkill, and praised Walter A. Costello, the athletic association's president and his fellow fellow officials, for the activities they have shown for the good of the young men of East Falls. He asked the support of the spectators and after contributing $10 to be awarded to the manager of the winning nine, and $10 to the victorious captain, he closed his speech with the hope that "May the best team win!"

Mr. Smithies was followed by Rev. Ulla E. Bauer, pastor of the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer, at 35th & Midvale avenue, whose team won the pennant last year. Mr. Bauer expressed the wish that the League have a fine and prosperous season.

Next came Rev. Charles Jarvis Harriman, rector of the Episcopal Church of St. James the Less, whose nine gave the Bauerboys a close race in 1928. Father Harriman stated that he was for "East Falls, the Church League and clean sports, from first to last," and asked God's blessing on everyone present.

Dr. John S. Tomlinson, the East Falls M. E. pastor, was the final speaker, and he, too, hoped for the League and its officials, "success in their efforts to provide straight-forward, honest, clean and healthy sport for the youth of the community."

After a few remarks of explanation concerning the League and its rules, President Costello formally announced that the 1929 race was on.

The Jimmyslads fell before the onslaughts of George Shaw's Bauerboys by the score of 5 to 3. But let us tell you a few of the facts concerning the game.

"Big Slim," Frazer, twirling for the Shawlans, faltered in the second inning and for a moment it looked like curtains from a Midvale avenue standpoint. After the bases were loaded, he walked the next two men, permitting two runs to register. However, he settled down and from then on he was invincible.

The umpiring of Cavanaugh and "Doc" Byrnes met with the approval of the players and fans, for not a single kick was made.

"Paddy" Nellan, St. Bridget's peppery manager wasn't wasting time, for he obtained Rube Grill's signature on one of the Saint's contracts.
